Make Believe Moon:

Making Make-Believe Real Garry Wills, 2014-06-10 Shakespeare's plays abound with kings and leaders who crave a public stage and seize every opportunity to make their lives a performance Antony Cleopatra Richard III Othello and many others Such self-dramatizing characters appear in the work of other playwrights of the era as well Marlowe's Edward II and Tamburlaine among them But Elizabethan playwrights were not alone in realizing that a sense of theater was essential to the exercise of power Real rulers knew it too and none better than Queen Elizabeth In this fascinating study of political stagecraft in the Elizabethan era Garry Wills explores a period of vast cultural and political change during which the power of make-believe to make power real was not just a theory but an essential truth Wills examines English culture as Catholic Christianity's rituals were being overturned and a Protestant queen took the throne New iconographies of power were necessary for the new Renaissance liturgy to displace the medieval church state The author illuminates the extensive imaginative constructions that went into Elizabeth's reign and the explosion of great Tudor and Stuart drama that provided the imaginative power to support her long and successful rule Surveyor, 1967 Random Thinking O. E. Cramer, 2011-08-02 The book Random Thinking is my first attempt at writing a full-length manuscript and having it published as a writer It is a collection of short poems observations make-believe and not-so-make-believe things that pop into my head then suddenly appear on the written page This book as well as my children's book titled Non-sensibles is on my bucket list which simply put are things I want to achieve in my life Both are scheduled for release toward the middle of November this year Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1945 Standby Joshua Langman, 2022-05-18 This manuscript proposes a unified model of theatrical design that embraces all forms of design from scenic and costume to lighting and projection and all forms of theatre from the traditional to the avant-garde It provides practical guidelines for implementing design concepts Please choose a more appropriate subject area if you like Moon's Crossing Barbara Croft, 2003-08-12 A stunning cinematic debut novel set at the 1893 Chicago World's Fair Moon's Crossing explores a unique time in American history when the romantic heritage of the nineteenth century merged with the industrial temperament of the modern age Jim Moon an idealistic Union Army veteran leaves his young wife and son to visit the World's Columbian Exposition which has attracted America's greatest artists and thinkers as well as its drifters and schemers Nick a fast-talking con man takes Moon to Pullman Town a model city south of Chicago that is the site of the complex labor strike of 1894 Moon comes to see that the bright future the fair promised is compromised by greed Unable to recapture his early vision of America he takes his own life and in so doing generates a surprising love story between a common young woman and a corrupt policeman as well as a major upheaval in the life of his neglected son Kaleidoscopic and fast-paced Moon's Crossing draws on such sources as the traditional tall tale to present a unique narrative style Moon's adventures are completely American and the legacy he leaves is ironically more significant than his failed life would have foretold The Last Man on the Moon Eugene Cernan, Don Davis, 2007-04-01

From the Apollo 17 commander and NASA veteran an exciting insider's take on what it was like to become one of the first humans in space Publishers Weekly Eugene Cernan was a unique American who came of age as an astronaut during the most exciting and dangerous decade of space flight His career spanned the entire Gemini and Apollo programs from being the first person to spacewalk all the way around our world to the moment when he left man's last footprint on the moon as commander of Apollo 17 Between those two historic events lay more adventures than an ordinary person could imagine as Cernan repeatedly put his life his family and everything he held dear on the altar of an obsessive desire Written with New York Times bestselling author Don Davis The Last Man on the Moon is the astronaut story never before told about the fear love and sacrifice demanded of the few who dare to reach beyond the heavens Thrilling highlights a book not just about space flight but also about the often brutal competition that went on between the US and the Soviet Union Washington Times A fascinating book Charlotte Observer
