Shadow-Makers Stephen Kite, 2017-10-19 The making of shadows is an act as old as architecture itself From the gloom of the medieval hearth through to the masterworks of modernism shadows have been an essential yet neglected presence in architectural history Shadow Makers tells for the first time the history of shadows in architecture It weaves together a rich narrative combining close readings of significant buildings both ancient and modern with architectural theory and art history to reveal the key places and moments where shadows shaped architecture in distinctive and dynamic ways It shows how shadows are used as an architectural instrument of form composition and visual effect while also exploring the deeper cultural context tracing differing conceptions of their meaning and symbolism whether as places of refuge devotion terror occult practice sublime experience or as metaphors of the unconscious Within a chronological framework encompassing medieval baroque enlightenment sublime picturesque and modernist movements a wide range of topics are explored from Hawksmoor's London churches Japanese temple complexes and the shade patterns of Islamic cities to Ruskin in Venice and Aldo Rossi and Louis Kahn in the 20th century This beautifully illustrated study seeks to understand the work of these shadow makers through their drawings their writings and through the masterpieces they built

Eternal Shadows or Shadow Makers Fr. Steve Peterson OSJ,2012-07 Everything in our solar system casts a shadow The Earth the moon and the planets cast a shadow The only thing that does not cast a shadow is the sun The sun shines its light on one half of the planets while the other half is in the shade of its own shadow All living and non living things expose only half of themselves to the light of the sun Their other half remains in its shadow Plants and animals are born with a shadow live with a shadow and must die with a shadow Man is born with a shadow however he does not have to live and die with a shadow like the rest of the living creatures He can choose to stay confined within the shadows of earthly things or go beyond the shadows to become something like the sun But this quest takes a little something extra than most ordinary men seem to look for or even believe is possible to achieve Early on in childhood Fr Peterson wanted to fly Little did he know that his innocent desire to fly was an extraordinary shadowless thing called prayer A real and very extraordinary ear heard his plea So God s heart the only one in nature who produces no shadow was moved to help show him how to go beyond the shadows of worldly things frightful things and even deadly things
