Science in Medieval Islam Howard R. Turner, 2010-07-28 A well organized and interesting overview of science in the Muslim world in the seventh through seventeenth centuries with over 100 illustrations The Middle East Journal During the Golden Age of Islam in the seventh through seventeenth centuries A D Muslim philosophers and poets artists and scientists princes and laborers created a unique culture that has influenced societies on every continent This book offers a fully illustrated highly accessible introduction to an important aspect of that culture the scientific achievements of medieval Islam Howard Turner who curated the subject for a major traveling exhibition opens with a historical overview of the spread of Islamic civilization from the Arabian peninsula eastward to India and westward across northern Africa into Spain He describes how a passion for knowledge led the Muslims during their centuries of empire building to assimilate and expand the scientific knowledge of older cultures including those of Greece India and China He explores medieval Islamic accomplishments in cosmology mathematics astronomy astrology geography medicine natural sciences alchemy and optics He also indicates the ways in which Muslim scientific achievement influenced the advance of science in the Western world from the Renaissance to the modern era This survey of historic Muslim scientific achievements offers students and other readers a window into one of the world's great cultures one which is experiencing a remarkable resurgence as a religious political and social force in our own time

Saracens and Franks in 12th - 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature Aman Y. Nadhiri, 2016-06-10 Saracens and Franks in 12th - 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature examines the tension between two competing discourses in the medieval Muslim Mediterranean and medieval Christian Europe one rooted in the desire to understand the world and one's place in it and another promoting an ethnocentric narrative To this end it examines the construction of an image of the Other for Muslims in the Eastern Mediterranean and for Christians in Western Europe in works of literature particularly in the works produced in the centuries preceding the Crusades and it explores the ways in which both Muslim and Christian writers depicted the Enemy in historical accounts of the Crusades The author focuses on medieval works of ethnography and geography travel literature Muslim and Christian accounts of the Crusades and the romances of Western Europe to trace the evolution of the image of the Eastern Mediterranean Muslim in medieval Western Europe and the Western European Christian in the medieval Muslim world first to understand the construct in the respective scholarly communities and then to analyze the ways in which this conception informs subsequent works of non fiction and fiction in the Western European context in which this Muslim or Christian Other plays a prominent role In its analysis of the medieval Mediterranean Muslim and European Christian approaches to difference this book interrogates the premises underlying the concept of the Other challenging formulations of binary opposition such as the West versus Islam Muslims

The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers A. Asa Eger, 2019-05-15 The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers demonstrates that different areas of the Islamic polity previously understood as minor frontiers were in fact of substantial importance to state formation Contributors explore different conceptualizations of border the importance of which previously went unrecognized examining frontiers in regions including the Magreb the Mediterranean Egypt Nubia and the Caucasus through a combination of archaeological and documentary evidence Chapters highlight the significance of these respective regions to the emergence of new sociopolitical cultural and economic practices within the Islamic world These studies successfully overcome the dichotomy of civilization's center and peripheries in academic discourse by presenting the actual dynamics of identity formation and the definition both spatial and cultural of boundaries The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers is a rare combination of a new reading of written evidence with results from archaeological studies that will modify established opinions on the character of the Islamic frontiers and stimulate similar studies for other regions The book will be relevant to medieval Islamic studies as well as to research in the medieval world in general Contributors Karim Alizadeh Jana Eger Kathryn J Franklin Renata Holod Tarek Kahlaoui Anthony J Lauricella Ian Randall Giovanni R Ruffini Tasha Vorderstrasse Geography , Geography and Ethnography Kurt A. Raaflaub, Richard J. A. Talbert, 2012-12-18 This fascinating volume brings together leading specialists who have analyzed the thoughts and records documenting the worldviews of a wide range of pre modern societies Presents evidence from across the ages from antiquity through to the Age of Discovery Provides cross cultural comparison of ancient societies around the globe from the Chinese to the Incas and Aztecs from the Greeks and Romans to the peoples of ancient India Explores newly discovered medieval Islamic materials Geographers Geoffrey Martin, 2015-12-14 Geographers is an annual collection of studies on individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography and geographical thought Subjects are drawn from all periods and from all parts of the world and include famous names as well as those less well known including explorers independent thinkers and scholars Each paper describes the geographer s education life and work and discusses their influence and spread of academic ideas Each study includes a select bibliography and a brief chronology The work includes a general index and a cumulative index of geographers listed in volumes published to date Published under the auspices of the International Geographical Union Palestine Nur Masalha, 2018-08-15 This rich and magisterial work traces Palestine s millennia old heritage uncovering cultures and societies of astounding depth and complexity that stretch back to the very beginnings of recorded history Starting with the earliest references in Egyptian and Assyrian texts Nur Masalha explores how Palestine and its Palestinian identity have evolved over thousands of years from the Bronze Age to the present day Drawing on a rich body of sources and the latest archaeological evidence Masalha shows how Palestine s multicultural past has been distorted and mythologised by Biblical lore and the Israel Palestinian conflict In the process Masalha reveals that the concept of Palestine contrary to accepted belief is not a modern invention or one constructed in opposition to Israel but rooted firmly in ancient past Palestine represents the authoritative account of the country s history The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S. Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seeks to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series

Islamic History R. Stephen Humphreys,2020-06-16 This book will be immensely helpful to those who wish to orient themselves to what has become a very large body of literature on medieval Islamic history Combining a bibliographic study with an inquiry into method it opens with a survey of the principal reference tools available to historians of Islam and a systematic review of the sources they will confront Problems of method are then examined in a series of chapters each exploring a broad topic in the social and political history of the Middle East and North Africa between A D 600 and 1500 The topics selected represent a cross section of Islamic historical studies and range from the struggles for power within the early Islamic community to the life of the peasantry Each chapter pursues four questions What concrete research problems are likely to be most challenging and productive What resources do we possess for dealing with these problems What strategies can we devise to exploit our resources most effectively What is the current state of the scholarly literature for the topic under study

World-maps for Finding the Direction and Distance to Mecca David King,2021-09-06 Two remarkable Iranian world maps were discovered in 1989 and 1995 Both are made of brass and date from 17th century Iran Mecca is at the centre and a highly sophisticated longitude and latitude grid enables the user to determine the direction and distance to Mecca for anywhere in the world between Andalusia and China Prior to the discovery of these maps it was thought that such cartographic grids were conceived in Europe ca 1910 This richly illustrated book presents an overview of the ways in which Muslims over the centuries have determined the sacred direction towards Mecca qibla and then describes the two world maps in detail The author shows that the geographical data derives from a 15th century Central Asian source and that the mathematics underlying the grid was developed in 9th century Baghdad

Geographical Thought Lalita Rana,2014-01-01 Geographical thought at any point in time is a manifestation of the prevailing viewpoints and methodological approaches in vogue The development of geography has a history of evolution of over 2000 years The discipline has been crafted over time to incorporate ideas from various schools of thought and several other disciplines from ancient to modern times The existing methodology and the subject matter of Geography is a reflection of this assemblage and evolution The nature of development remained more philosophical up to modern period The First edition of this book published in 2008 was an attempt towards compilation of relevant study material on evolution of Geographic thought in a systematic way up to the modern period The book has been revised with the addition of two elaborated sections i e one each on the Classical and the Contemporary tradition in geography However the major thrust of present book is on the nature of geographic developments in its contemporary phase More recently the anthropocentrism and a concern about methodology are more evident in the development of discipline

India and the Islamic Heartlands Gagan D. S. Sood,2016-03-29 Based on the chance survival of a remarkable cache of documents India and the Islamic Heartlands recaptures a vanished and forgotten world from the eighteenth century spanning much of today s Middle East and South Asia Gagan D S Sood focuses on ordinary people traders pilgrims bankers clerics brokers and scribes among others who were engaged in activities marked by large distances and long silences By elucidating their everyday lives in a range of settings from the family household to the polity at large Sood pieces together the connective tissue of a world that lay beyond the sovereign purview Recapturing this obscured and neglected world helps us better understand the region during a pivotal moment in its history and offers new answers to old questions concerning early modern Eurasia and its transition to colonialism

The Humanities in a World Upside-Down Ignacio López-Calvo,2018-06-11 Following the metaphor of the world upside down this essay collection highlights the importance of the humanities in addressing along with the sciences pressing challenges in today s rapidly changing world Crossing across a variety of disciplines historical periods and regions in the world this volume represents a useful tool for humanities scholars and students exploring the key role of our disciplines in public debates about pressing issues such as the refugee crisis climate change denialism environmental justice racism and the current worldwide crisis of democracy It provides practical examples of how societies throughout the world have historically coped with unexpected and distressing changes in government core values axiomatic systems assumptions beliefs ideology or cultural constructions The feeling of topsy turvy consternation as a result of sudden harrowing change as is shown here is not new rather it has simply evolved throughout time and space

The Tarragona Vortex Lawrence J. McCrank,2022-09-30 This extensive bibliographic essay underpins the entire Tarragona Vortex study by focusing on this arena as one of the most contested frontiers in Western history comparable to Jerusalem in the East for broad issues of Romanization Westernization Islamization and Christianization Its book length chapters treat 1 diverse historiographies from local and Spanish to comparative Mediterranean and Crusade History and especially Ethno historiography and the explanatory concept of frontiers 2 the phenomena of religion conversion and reform and the conditioning agents of Islam and Latin Christianity in practice and adversity 3 religious universalism and violence especially religious war 4 the Crusade and Reconquest paradigms and century long debate 5 the environment on land and sea and setting for this History Although these themes are explored to include due reconsideration but avoid major digressions in its telling about Tarragona and the Tarraconensis they underly so much of Late Antique and Medieval historical research that this discussion pertains to the whole field of historical cultural and religious studies
