Making a Difference Dean Gualco, 2013-11-11 Changing an organization company culture or mind set depends on knowing what to change how to change and most importantly why to change. Author Dean Gualco public speaker and the owner of Torgun Consulting explores how organizations and individuals can initiate manage and capitalize on change in this instructive guidebook. He explains ways to recognize when it makes sense to change create a framework to manage change effectively harness imagination and originality to outpace competitors and encourage colleagues to embrace necessary change. Too often change is viewed through a prism of conflict and negativity. Millions of people have lost their jobs because of changing technology and others have lost their health and retirement benefits as organizations have cut costs. We find ourselves in a world where older people can't retire and younger people can't find jobs. But avoiding or hindering change won't solve anything. Instead it's important to tackle it head on. In Making a Difference you can discover how pursuing the right dreams at the right time and for the right reasons can change your life.

Making a Difference, 2007-01-01 Making a Difference: Challenges for Teachers Teaching and Teacher Education has been written to provide an international forum of scholarly discussion around the theme of how teachers and teacher educators can make a difference. It examines some of the challenges that need to be addressed across the teaching profession. The chapters have been developed by the contributors from a set of keynote presentations and refereed papers given at the 2005 International Study Association for Teachers and Teaching ISATT Conference in Sydney Australia. The conference was attended by 190 delegates from a diverse range of countries: Australia, Belgium, Bosnia, Canada, China, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Hong Kong, Iceland, India, Jamaica, Malaysia, Marshall Islands, Netherlands, New Zealand, Pakistan, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia, South Africa, Sweden, Taiwan, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States and the West Indies. A distinctive feature of the conference was the range of education systems policies teacher education programs school districts classrooms teachers and students whose views were argued for and critiqued. This book has been prepared so that it reflects that breadth of contexts and issues. The book is presented in four sections each emphasising a unique dimension of what is involved in making a difference The authors offer a range of viewpoints from their different cultural historical and professional contexts While each section has a special emphasis the major themes of heeding challenges and making a difference are woven into all the sections The chapters in this book provide readers with frameworks evidence and examples addressing challenges and making a difference Evidence is presented as to how realities have been transformed for students teachers and teacher educators as well as for the profession itself We hope that your engagement with the authors and material in this ISATT forum will motivate you to transform realities in your own professional worlds ISATT members please contact our Acquisitions Editors responsible for Brill s Education list for the ISATT members discount
