Making Of A Modernist:

Modernism Ástráður Eysteinnsson, Vivian Liska, 2007 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity

The Making of Modern Italy Arrigo Solmi, 1925 Making Modern Paris Christopher Curtis Mead, 2012 Investigates how architecture technology politics and urban planning came together in French architect Victor Baltard's creation of the Central Markets of Paris Presents a case study of the historical process that produced modern Paris between 1840 and 1870

MAKING MODERNISM. Michael C. Fitzgerald, 1995 Making Modern Mothers Heather Paxson, 2004-02-12 Publisher Description Making Modern Muslims Robert W. Hefner, 2008-10-01 When students from a Muslim boarding school were convicted for the 2002 terrorist bombings in Bali Islamic schools in Southeast Asia became the focus of intense international scrutiny Some analysts have warned that these schools are being turned into platforms for violent jihadism Making Modern Muslims is the first book to look comparatively at Islamic education and politics in Southeast Asia Based on a two year research project by leading scholars of Southeast Asian Islam the book examines Islamic schooling in Malaysia Indonesia Thailand Cambodia and the southern Philippines The studies demonstrate that the great majority of schools have nothing to do with violence but are undergoing changes that have far reaching implications for democracy gender relations pluralism and citizenship Making Modern Muslims offers an important reassessment of Muslim culture and politics in Southeast Asia and provides insights into the changing nature of state society relations from the late colonial period to the present It allows us to better appreciate the astonishing dynamism of Islamization in Southeast Asia and the struggle for Muslim hearts and minds taking place today Timely and readable this volume will be of great interest to teachers and specialists of Islam and Southeast Asia as well as the general reader seeking to understand the great transformations at work in the Muslim world Contributors Esmail A Abdula Björn Atle Blengslí Joseph Chinyong Liow Robert W Hefner Richard G Kraince Thomas M McKenna

Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020-03-12 Reconstructing Modernism establishes for the first time the centrality of modernist buildings and architectural periodicals to British mid century literature Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself While the city has long been a focus of literary modernist studies architectural modernism has never had its due Scholars usually characterize architectural modernism as a parallel modernism or even an incompatible modernism to literature Giving special attention to dystopian classics Brave New World and Nineteen Eighty Four this study argues that sustained attention to modern architecture shaped mid century authors political and aesthetic commitments After many writers deemed modernist architects to be agents for communism and other collectivist movements they squared themselves and literary modernist detachment and aesthetic autonomy against the seemingly tyrannical utopianism of modern architecture literary aesthetic qualities were reclaimed as political qualities In this way Reconstructing Modernism redraws the boundaries of literary modernist studies rather than simply adding to its canon it argues that the responsibility for defining literary modernism for the mid century public was shared by an incredible variety of authors Edwardians modernists satirists and even anti modernists

Modernism and Race Len Platt,2011-02-24 The transnational turn has transformed modernist studies challenging Western authority over modernism and positioning race and racial theories at the very centre of how we now understand modern literature Modernism and Race examines relationships between racial typologies and literature in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries drawing on fin de si cle versions of anthropology sociology political science linguistics and biology Collectively these essays interrogate the anxieties and desires that are expressed in or projected onto racialized figures They include new outlines of how the critical field has developed revaluations of canonical modernist figures like James Joyce T S Eliot Ford Madox Ford and Wyndham Lewis and accounts of writers often positioned at the margins of modernism such as Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and the Holocaust writers Solomon Perel and Gisella Perl This collection by leading scholars of modernism will make an important contribution to a growing field

The Modernist Impulse in American Protestantism William R. Hutchison,1992-04-30 This landmark study of American religion recipient of the National Religious Book Award in 1976 is being brought back into print with an updated bibliography The Modernist Impulse in American Protestantism traces the history of American Protestant thought from the early part of the nineteenth century to the present William R Hutchison deals especially with the modernist movement that flourished in the years around 1900 and with the colorful personalities and disputes associated with that movement

The Development of Modern Industries in Bengal Indrajit Ray,2018-05-25 Bengal s traditional industries once celebrated worldwide largely decayed under the backwash effects of the British Industrial Revolution in the first half of the nineteenth century Although colonial ambivalence is often cited as an explanation this study also shows that a series of new industries emerged during this period The book reappraises the thesis of India s deindustrialisation and discusses the development status of the traditional industries in the early nineteenth century examines their technology employment opportunities and marketing and finally analyses the underlying reasons for their decay It offers a study of how traditional industries evolved into modern enterprises in a British colony and contributes to the broader discussion on the global history of industrialisation This book will be of interest to scholars of Indian economic history as well as those who seek to understand the widespread effects of industrialisation especially in a colonial context A History of the Modern Middle East William L. Cleveland, Martin Bunton, 2018-05-04 A History of the Modern Middle East examines the profound and often dramatic transformations of the region in the past two centuries from the Ottoman and Egyptian reforms through the challenge of Western imperialism to the impact of US foreign policies Built around a framework of political history while also carefully integrating social cultural and economic developments this expertly crafted account provides readers with the most comprehensive balanced and penetrating analysis of the modern Middle East The sixth edition has been revised to provide a thorough account of the major developments since 2012 including the tumultuous aftermath of the Arab uprisings the sectarian conflict in Iraq and civil war in Syria that led to the rise of ISIS the crises in Libya and Yemen and the United States nuclear talks with Iran With brand new timelines in each part updated select bibliographies and expanded online instructor resources A History of the Modern Middle East remains the quintessential text for courses on Middle East history Voice of the Oppressed in the Language of the Oppressor Patsy J. Daniels, 2013-05-13 This book examines works from twelve authors from colonized cultures who write in English William Butler Yeats James Joyce Joseph Conrad Chinua Achebe Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Toni Morrison Alice Walker Sandra Cisneros Ana Castillo Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko The book finds connection among these writers and their respective works Patsy Daniels argues that the thinkers and writers of colonized culture must learn the language of the colonizer and take it back to their own community thus making themselves translators who occupy a manufactured hybrid space between two cultures Finnish Architecture and the Modernist Tradition Malcolm Quantrill, 2012-12-06 This is a unique and comprehensive study of the entire span of Finnish architecture in the 20th century Using comparative critical analysis the author weaves Aalto's contribution into his overview of the evolution of modern Finnish architecture and includes the work of a range of lesser published figures It will be of considerable interest to architects art historians and all those interested in modern Finnish architecture Modern Machinery, 1910 The Ten Legal Cases That Made Modern Britain Inigo Bing, 2022-07-12 LIFE SEX RACE POWER FREE SPEECH PROTEST PRIVACY DEMOCRACY SOVEREIGNTY DEATH Society shapes law and law shapes society We like to imagine that progress comes about when Parliament spots a looming groundswell in public opinion and responds by changing the laws that govern our daily lives This is not always true In this fascinating book Inigo Bing unravels ten legal cases in which the decisions of judges or a jury either heralded a shift in outlook or forced Parliament to respond to simmering social change Some of these cases demonstrate the role judges have in defending our civil liberties against overweening executive power articulating inherent unwritten rights Parliament would prefer to keep quiet about Others explore what happens when rapid technological or social change outpaces government placing urgent ethical dilemmas in the lap of the court All of them have had a lasting impact on the society we inhabit Taken together these stories provide a powerful insight into eighty years of British social political and cultural history illustrating why legal cases are just as important to making our world as laws written by Parliament or grassroots changes within society Tate's Modern Cambist ... Sixteenth edition, rewritten and ... enlarged; with ... index by G. L. M. Strauss William TATE (the Elder.),1874 Modern Salesmanagement Justus George Frederick,1919 The Concept of Modernism Astradur Eysteinnsson,Ástráður Eysteinnsson,1990 The term modernism is central to any discussion of twentieth century literature and critical theory Astradur Eysteinnsson here maintains that the concept of modernism does not emerge directly from the literature it subsumes but is in fact a product of critical practices relating to nontraditional literature Intervening in these practices and correlating them with modernist works and with modern literary theory Eysteinnsson undertakes a comprehensive reexamination of the idea of modernism Eysteinnsson critically explores various manifestations of modernism in a rich array of American British and European literature criticism and theory He first examines many modernist paradigms detecting in them a conflict between modernism s culturally subversive potential and its relatively conservative status as a formalist project He then considers these paradigms as interpretations and fabrications of literary history Seen in this light modernism both signals a historical change on the literary scene and implies the context of that change Laden with the implications of tradition and modernity modernism fills its major function that of highlighting and defining the complex relations between history and postrealist literature Eysteinnsson focuses on the ways in which the concept of modernism directs our understanding of literature and literary history and influences our judgment of experimental and postrealist works in literature and art He discusses in detail the relation of modernism to the key concepts postmodernism the avant garde and realism Enacting a crisis of subject and reference modernism is not so much a form of discourse he asserts as its interruption a possible other modernity that reveals critical aspects of our social and linguistic experience in Western culture Comparatists literary theorists cultural historians and others interested in twentieth century literature and art will profit from this provocative book Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan Wali Ahmadi,2008-03-05 With the unleashing of the War on Terror in the aftermath of 9 11 Afghanistan has become prominent in the news However we need to appreciate that no substantive understanding of contemporary history politics and society of this country can be achieved without a thorough analysis of the Afghan encounter with cultural and literary modernity and modernization Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan does just that The book offers a balanced and interdisciplinary analysis of the rich and admirable contemporary poetry and fiction of a land long tormented by wars and invasions It sets out to demonstrate that within the trajectory of the union between modern aesthetic imagination and politics creativity and production and representation and history the modernist intervention enabled many contemporary poets and writers of fiction to resist the overt politicization of the literary field without evading politics or disavowing the modern state The interpretative moves and nuanced readings of a series of literary texts make this book a major contribution to a rather neglected area of research and study Winner of the Iranian World Prize for Book of the Year in Islamics Studies 2009 The Modern Gasoline Automobile Victor Wilfred Pagé, 1912
