Excellence in Ministry Tom Quinlan, 2017-11-01 Catechetical leadership is at its best when it builds on the shoulders of those who have gone before while at the same time creating innovative approaches for an ever changing ministry This fifth volume of The Effective Catechetical Leader will share both time tested and new skills and strategies that will allow catechetical leaders to not only be successful in the week to week particulars of running a parish catechetical program but also to fulfill the ultimate goal of animating a faith community to grow in authentic discipleship to Jesus Christ. A few of the best practices covered in this book include planning the catechetical year, selecting catechetical resources, promoting the catechetical program to the parish community and beyond, how to honestly evaluate your program and so much more. The Effective Catechetical Leader series, developed in conjunction with the National Conference for Catechetical Leadership and written by some of the top catechetical leaders in the country, is the only series to encompass all the various aspects of catechetical leadership. This series provides the practical skills, strategies, and approaches that ensure successful parish faith formation in an evangelizing manner which leads directly to a vibrant Church. From best practices to new approaches for proclaiming God's word in a rapidly changing world, this groundbreaking series will empower catechetical leaders to excel at everything from administrative duties to effectively catechizing people of all ages within our diverse Church. Preparing the Pastors We Need George A. Mason, 2012-11-06. Amid the widespread discussion about the future of the church, an important point is sometimes overlooked: tomorrow's church will depend to a great extent on the new pastors of today who will serve and guide our churches in the years ahead. George Mason's Preparing the Pastors We Need: Reclaiming the Congregation's Role in Training Clergy makes a timely intervention, asking us to redefine pastoral leadership by analyzing how, in fact, pastors are made in the first place. The book highlights an exciting development in the training of pastors: pastoral residency programs and mentoring. Mason demonstrates that these programs work best when the congregations themselves, not just leadership or staff, are an active participant in the training. In this way, churches begin to reclaim their rightful role in the formation of the ministers that will serve them. And at the same time, they become healthier and more effective churches. Mason gives us the analogy of physician training: medical school produces graduates with extensive knowledge of the body, but a practicing doctor will require several more years of internship and residency. Similarly, our seminaries and divinity schools produce men and women with good biblical knowledge, but they might not prepare a graduate for the task of helping a bereaved parishioner cope with the sudden loss of a loved one. Moreover, such areas as finances, budgets, personnel management, and vocational identity are also not well suited to seminary study. Mason shows that congregation-based mentoring and residency are excellent ways to bridge this gap. The Human Face of Church Sara Savage, Eolene

Boyd-Macmillan, 2007-10-30. Until now, Fresh Expressions has been about starting and sustaining mission initiatives among people with little or no church contact. As these projects mature, pastoral problems easily arise: how do you integrate the old with the new? How do you get an established congregation to change its views and practices? How do you cope with conflict? What if newcomers challenge set patterns of church behaviour rather than conform with them? The publication is structured for use for training in local churches, theological colleges, and as a research tool in postgraduate study. Pause Before the Pulpit William W. Helland, 2005. This collection of devotionals opens up the scriptures and serves a meal that nurtures the life with God. Helland is well acquainted with the needs of pastors, and through these pages he serves as a pastor's pastor. The book has the added value of speaking to the pastor the Word of God while he is preparing to speak to others Those who use this book will be enriched and blessed through the gospel of Jesus Christ Eugene L Boe Professor of Systematic and Historical Theology Lutheran Brethren Seminary Today s busy pastors must cope with a diverse range of physically and emotionally draining tasks Yet as they balance the many competing demands on their time the essential element for maintaining a vital and successful ministry is carving out time for their own spiritual regeneration Before pastors can effectively proclaim the Good News to the people in the pews they must attend to their ongoing relationship with the God whom they serve Based on each Sunday s epistle and gospel texts from Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary this collection of prayerful reflections specifically addresses the spiritual needs of the clergy Rather than a primer on how to preach the text these devotions explore what the scripture passages have to say about the personal lives of pastors and their public ministry It s an ideal resource to begin weekly sermon preparation with as each thoughtful contemplation prepares the heart for faithful preaching of God s Word But Pause Before The Pulpit isn t just for pastors these devotions will also strengthen and spiritually encourage anyone actively involved in lay ministry Bill Helland has written a wonderful devotional companion which gives inspiration hope and commitment Every pastor should have a copy of this book in his study it is a must read before he steps into the pulpit on Sunday morning Gaylord T Gunhus Chaplain Major General USA retired Underwood Minnesota Bill Helland talks with pastors who give of themselves in lifting people up to the Lord and he invites them to talk back I suggest reading these devotionals early in the week Helland s questions self disclosures and sharing of God s Word will nourish you as you prepare sermons plan worship play with your family pray over your people and walk in fellowship with God Joel R Egge President Church of the Lutheran Brethren William W Helland has been a pastor in the Church of the Lutheran Brethren of America for the past fifteen years serving parishes in Minnesota and South Dakota A former locksmith and dairy farmer Helland is a graduate of the Lutheran Brethren Seminary

Ruiz,David J. Endres,2024-07-23 The richness of the Catholic Church is found in the bonds of communion between the universal church and the local church The bishop the antistite or high priest as he is entitled in the Canon of the Mass is the apostolic successor who though always in communion with the pope is likewise a vicar of Christ in his own right Thus the role of the bishop and his understanding of his own ministry can shape the personality of a diocese as well as its understanding of its place in the worldwide church This Festschrift written in honor of a bishop who has sought to enliven his diocese and remind it of its bonds of communion with the whole aims to provide a multi disciplined approach to the ministry of the diocesan bishop at a time when authority is held in suspicion communion is seen as constricting and obedience to those in authority is treated as an artifact of a bygone age The assembled essays approach the question of the episcopal ministry from the perspective of the Catholic Church s theological tradition and aim to enlighten clergy and laity about the ministry of their bishops and encourage bishops themselves in exercising their sacred office

Localism Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee,2011-06-09 This report finds that the Government s desire to deliver localism is neither supported consistently across Whitehall nor implemented coherently by each department of state MPs warn that the Minister for Decentralisation will need to bring coherence rigour and clear priorities to the Government s programme The MPs call for a more explicit statement about where the dividing line will be drawn between a central light touch framework for local services and unwarranted interference from ministers in local affairs So far the Government has shown itself all too eager to impose its preferences on local decision making Ministers have also introduced policies that circumvent rather than empower local government elected police commissioners free schools academies and health service reform threaten to fragment rather than integrate delivery of better public services at local level As devolution proceeds the manner in which local decisions are taken come under greater scrutiny Any reduction in the inspection and performance management required by Whitehall must be accompanied by stronger local democratic accountability Broadening the provider base for public services is an important plank of the government s decentralisation agenda but it remains unclear how far the Big Society can expand to take on services and functions shed by statutory bodies Localism should not be adopted purely as a way to curb public sector costs not least because the financial benefits of more tailored services may not offset the loss of efficiencies of scale Stimulating greater democratic participation and civic activism will itself cost money if it is to be successful and sustainable
