in the name of the tsar to rethink traditional understandings of gender norms and family law This remarkable social history is thus also a contribution to our understanding of the deepening political crisis of autocracy

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryll Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions

Torrance,2011-09-22 This timely book addresses the problem of the family in crisis and challenges us to look at family values from a biblical perspective Some of these are hard questions and we will not all agree on how to tackle them but God Family and Sexuality is a wonderful place to start Linden Bowing CARE Christian faith should be marked by a distinctive lifestyle Nowhere in our culture is that distinctiveness being challenged more than in the area of sexuality This book is a very welcome contribution from a range of well qualified people who argue convincingly that the future of the church and our civilization are at stake Bill Wallace Convener Church of Scotland Board of Social Responsibility a series of well informed and responsible engagements with questions relating to human sexuality a serious attempt to hear God's word speaking amidst the Babel of voices clamoring for attention on these topics should be read widely within and outside the Christian community in the interest of a genuinely plural and balanced public dialogue Trevor Hart Professor of Divinity University of St Andrews Learning to Love Raksha Pande,2021-03-19 The politics of marriage and migration in postcolonial Britain Becoming modern and British enacting citizenship through arranged marriages Continuing traditions as a matter of arrangement Becoming a suitable boy and a good girl Learning to love The ties that bind marriage belonging and identity Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Government Operations United States. Love, Joy, and Sex Stan Chu Ilo,2019-07-30 There is no papal document that has generated as much interest controversy and debate in recent times as Pope Francis's Amoris Laetitia This document which came out of two very divisive synods of Catholic bishops and leaders in Rome in 2014 and 2015 will probably be the most discussed document ever produced by a pope in modern Catholicism on marriage and family life This volume has gathered seminal commentaries on Amoris Laetitia by African Catholic theologians social scientists and pastoral workers They offer African theological and pastoral responses to the principles and practices proposed by Pope Francis and the Synod on the family on such contested issues as same sex relations divorce and remarriage and reception and denial of Holy Communion in the church among other divisive issues These important essays and commentaries show the strengths and weaknesses of this papal commentary and point out the missing link in the global conversation on marriage family and same sex relations Their argument for the inclusion of African perspectives and moral traditions in the search for a third way in finding an inclusive and integrated pastoral art of accompaniment is very compelling The authors here also call for the inclusion of Africa's own unique challenges like polygamy childless marriages and the impact of migration civil conflict diseases ecological and population crises and the rights of African women in the global discussion on marriage and family life They also challenge uncritical clichés in world Christianity that Africa's opposition to same sex marriages or Western propaganda about population or birth control and contraception are conservative while showing diverse African conversations on these topics in the search for abundant life on this beautiful continent
