Make Peace before the Sun Goes Down Roger Lipsey, 2015-05-19 In the 1950s and 60s Thomas Merton a monk of the Trappist monastery of Gethsemani in Kentucky published a string of books that are among the most influential spiritual books of the twentieth century including the mega best seller The Seven Storey Mountain He was something of a rock star for a cloistered monk and from his monastic cell he enjoyed a wide and lively correspondence with people from the worlds of religion literature and politics During that period he also explored and wrote extensively on Buddhism Sufism art and social action The man to whom he owed obedience in the cloistered life was a much more traditional Catholic his abbot Dom James Fox To say that these two men had a conflicted relationship would be an understatement but the tension their differences in orientation brought actually led to creative results on both sides and to a kind of hard won respect and love Roger Lipsey's portrait of this unusual relationship is compelling and moving it shows Merton in the years his imagination was taking him far beyond the walls of the monastery and eventually literally to Asia Land of the Rising Sun Asif Ahmed
