Fine Gardening ,1988 Practical Basket Making George Wharton James,1966 More Baskets and How to Make Them (Classic Reprint) Mary White,2018-02-03 Excerpt from More Baskets and How to Make Them The interest in basketry which began in this country some three years ago is on the increase rather than on the wane This may seem surpris ing to the uninitiated but those who have made baskets will understand it Basketry has proved itself In schools and social settlements one notes the contrast between the beginners mats and baskets loosely woven and crude in form and the graceful forms and solid weaving of experienced young craftsmen A well made basket shows more than dexterity and skill it stands for patience and stick to it iveness and has the value of all good work Best of all children love the craft and would rather weave baskets or wander afield in search of natural material for weaving or dyes than do anything else you can suggest To grown people basketry is a boon It is unusual to find a craft so simple as to require no tools or para About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Complete Book of Baskets and Basketry Dorothy Wright,1992 Country Baskets Evelyn Legg,1960 More Baskets and How to Make Them Mary White,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1903 edition Excerpt chapter viii raffia basketry One is constantly finding new uses for raffia Its possibilities seem endless Attractive even in its natural state it is doubly so when dyed with the soft rich vegetable colours It is inexpensive too and not hard to obtain since even in country places it may be bought of seedsmen or florists No matter then what other materials we may find there will always be a place and a large one for raffia in basketry Braided Raffia Lamp Mat Materials 10 yards of braided raffia itf yards of braided green raffia A bunch of raffia Several strands of green raffia A tapestry needle No 19 A lamp mat of braided raffia in the natural colour with a design of broken circles in green is simple and good The three stranded braid is used If the raffia is thick two pieces are taken for each strand otherwise there should be three pieces in each It is coiled and sewed like the brim of the doll s hat in How to Make Baskets When four rows have been made a strand of green raffia is started the fifth coil is laid about an eighth of an inch from the previous one and attached to it with a long stitch in green Another long stitch is made in the same place and the raffia is brought around them twice in the opposite direction like the open work stitch in the raffia candy basket in How to Make Baskets The needle is then run along inside the braid to a point about quarter of an inch from the first stitch where another is made This is repeated for two rows Eleven rows of the plain braid are sewed and then the braid is cut at about an inch beyond the end of the last row The end is bound tightly with raffia and sewed down on the lower side of the mat Half an inch of the green braid is bound and sewed close

Basket Making T. Vernette Morse,2018-03 Excerpt from Basket Making Being the First Book of the How to Do It Series A demand for lessons in basket weaving by mail has led to the publishing of Basket Making which is the first of the How To Do It series of handbooks that is about to be published by the printing department of the Art Craft Institute These books will all be of uniform size and style and will cover such subjects as Drawing Designing Phoenician Wood Carving and Pyrography Metal work Needle work and other arts that are taught in the Institute Each edition will be fully illustrated and as concise as consistent with the nature of the subject It is expected that these books will to a certain extent take the place of the correspondence course although work will still be received for criticism as it is quite impossible to meet every requirement of the students in any one book or in fact any number of books The work is condensed to cover as large a field as possible and the only excuse for its being is that it may assist those who are now struggling with the intricacies of basket making About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
