Message in a Book Michelle Patrizio, 1999      Connection You Sheila K Stabile, 2020-01-04 Very little in life is more important than our relationships at work in life and with self How connected we feel to others is a strong predictor of our happiness and our feelings of self worth Our deeply connected relationships can ultimately give us true meaning and purpose

But if we're feeling disconnected alone and segregated from those around us how can we become more connected? Why does it seem so easy for some to create deep connections while it's hard for others? In Sheila Stabile's book Connection: You Build, Strengthen and Profit by Making Connections in Work, Life and Self she shares insights in 45 stories that will open your eyes about the importance of connections with others. By identifying and developing your ability to create, build and maintain connections at work, in life and with self you can live a rich and rewarding life. Connection will help you build connections that will reward you for the rest of your life.

Making Connections 3 Mary Lou McCloskey, Lydia Stack, Carolyn Kessler, Linda Lee, Rules of Engagement Froswa' Booker-Drew, 2013-04-01 Rules of Engagement: Making Connections Last is a workbook for women who understand the value of relating to others both professionally and personally. The book provides 29 Rules of Engagement to help the reader understand how to do more than just share your name and address. Building a network can be challenging. As a businesswoman and a mother you don't know if you have the time or energy to find and develop new relationships. Have you ever attended a conference expecting to meet numerous people and collect business cards from those who can be a valuable asset to you both professionally and personally, however when you try to follow up you discover that everyone is busy and you get no return calls? A friend introduces you to someone you would really like to get to know but after a few minutes of chit chat your new acquaintance walks away disinterested. Helping women develop the kind of relationships that pay valuable dividends to everyone involved is the goal of Froswa Booker-Drew in this book Rules of Engagement: Making Connections. Last This powerful workbook will not only equip you with the information you need but the workbook format will walk you through the exercises to make it a reality.
