Making Of A Nation:

The Making of a Nation H. Ng'weno, 2008 Materializing the Nation Robert J. Foster, 2002-10-24 Foster shows us how seemingly banal activities like making a phone call chewing betel nut watching a Coke commercial may give important insights into the ways in which the nation is constructed materialized or contested Orvar L. Fjellgren author of On Holiday A History of Vacationing Why in the current era of globalization does nationality remain an important dimension of personal and collective identities In Materializing the Nation Robert J. Foster argues that the contested process of nation making in Papua New Guinea unfolds not only through organized politics but also through mundane engagements with commodities and mass media He offers a thoughtful critique of recent approaches to nationalism and consumption and an ethnographic perspective on constructs of the nation found in official policy documents letters to the editor school textbooks song lyrics advertisements and other materials This volume will appeal to readers interested in the links among nationalism consumption and media in Melanesia and elsewhere American History James Alton James, Albert Hart Sanford, 1912

Allison, 2019-03-13 Thanksgiving Day 1621 marked the beginning of a relationship between the settlers and Natives of America it was a celebration spurred by Natives of America having a heart for the new settlers reaching out to them teaching them how to work the land fish and grow corn They also shared their food with them during the first winter when their own food supplies ran out Thanksgiving day 2007 began a reality of freedom from the stallion of an oppressive government that knew no limits when it came to abuse over the years On this day gone would be the days of others dictating the Indian's path that always returned to a restrictive reservation without sovereignty Deeply entrenched spiritual beings would set the stage for the liberation of a people from a government who claimed centuries ago to have discovered or found a new land already inhabited A land the government sanctioned the importation of another people to work the land for the sake of wealth Wealth that required shuffling those in the way out of the way The federal government feared a common practice of the Indian called the Ghost Dance The practice was perceived to be a threat to expansion wealth and power They couldn't have been more right Nigeria and the Politics of Survival as a Nation-state E. Ike Udogu, 1997 This volume addresses the struggles and strategies applied by the civilian and military administrations to resolve the issue of political instability in Nigeria It examines its political history as an entity before Britain colonized the area and the constitutional developments since 1914 when Britain amalgamated the northern and southern regions to form modern Nigeria

Nations, Markets, and War Nicholas Greenwood Onuf, Peter S. Onuf, 2006 The limits of history Liberal society Civilized nations Moral persons Nation making Adam Smith moral historian National destinies War and peace in the New World The North and the nation The South and the nation History Teacher's Magazine, 1910 The Nation, 1893 Men of Capital Sherene Seikaly, 2023-05-25 An eye opening book on the history of an elite Palestinian Arab group an important contribution and a highly recommended read Middle East Journal Men of Capital examines British ruled Palestine in the 1930s and 1940s through a focus on economy In a departure from the expected histories of Palestine this book illuminates dynamic class constructions that aimed to shape a pan Arab utopia in terms of free trade profit accumulation and private property And in so doing it positions Palestine and Palestinians in the larger world of Arab thought and social life moving attention away from the limiting debates of Zionist Palestinian conflict Reading Palestinian business periodicals records and correspondence Sherene Seikaly reveals how capital accumulation was central to the conception of the ideal social man Here we meet a diverse set of characters the man of capital the frugal wife the law abiding Bedouin the unemployed youth and the abundant farmer in new spaces like the black market cafes and cinemas and the idyllic Arab home Seikaly also traces how British colonial institutions and policies regulated wartime austerity regimes mapping the shortages of basic goods such as the vegetable crisis of 1940 to the broader material disparities among Palestinians and European Jews Ultimately she shows that the economic is as central to social management as the political and that an exclusive focus on national claims and conflicts hides the more complex changes of social life in Palestine

A United Nations for the Twenty-First Century Dimitris Bourantonis,Marios Evriviades,2023-09-14 This collective work brings together scholars international civil servants and field practitioners who examine a wide range of theoretical and practical problems as well as challenges confronting the world and the United Nations at the dawn of the twenty first century The papers in this volume have been organized under themes which focus on problem areas and challenges that mankind must unavoidably deal with collectively in the years ahead much as it has attempted to do during the past half century The contributors address the triangular relationship between peace security and development and raise questions about the relevance of the UN system in the decades to come The authors do so through reflection on past experiences and relevant philosophical inquiries They examine specific cases and experiences that are representative of the relevance or irrelevance of past collective actions in the security and non security fields and suggest new ideas and concepts that attempt to marry theory and practice In this connection aspects of peacemaking and peacekeeping arms control economic development human rights and the critical role of education are amongst the topics analyzed and assessed One of the underlying themes of the volume is that the challenges of the twenty first century will be of unprecedented magnitude Unless the UN system is reformed and revitalized it runs the risk of becoming irrelevant
