Making Of A Nation In The Balkans:

Making and Remaking the Balkans Robert C. Austin, 2019-01-01 With more than 25 years since the collapse of communism the end of the wars and billions of dollars in aid the Balkans are still characterized by corruption state capture and decidedly unmodern states that are often either weak or authoritarian Taking the contemporary Balkans as a starting point Making and Remaking the Balkans studies the region's history combined with observations based on more than twenty years of field experience Primarily concerned with current issues in the Balkans since 1989 this book explains why the region has endured such a prolonged and fraught transition to democracy and eventual membership in the European Union The young and educated have largely left Governmental crisis and economic stagnation is the norm and much needed regional cooperation has been suppressed by renewed nationalism Wars on corruption have proved to be largely rhetorical Making and Remaking the Balkans offers a systematic study of the issues the entire region faces as it struggles to complete the European integration process at a time when the European Union faces bigger problems elsewhere

Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century Alexis Heraclides, Ada Dialla, 2015-07-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book is a comprehensive presentation of humanitarian intervention in theory and practice during the course of the nineteenth century Through four case studies it sheds new light on the international law debate and the political theory on intervention linking them to ongoing issues and paying particular attention to the lesser known Russian dimension The book begins by tracing the genealogy of the idea of humanitarian intervention to the Renaissance evaluating the Eurocentric gaze of the civilisation barbarity dichotomy and elucidates the international legal arguments of both advocates and opponents of intervention as well as the views of major political theorists It then goes on to examine four cases as humanitarian interventions the Greek War of Independence 1821-31 the Lebanon and Syria 1860-61 the Bulgarian atrocities 1876-78 and the U S intervention in Cuba 1895-98 Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century will be of benefit to scholars and students of international relations international history international law and international political theory The Making of the Balkan States William Smith Murray, 1910

Normalizing the Balkans Professor Dušan I Bjelic, 2013-01-28 Normalizing the Balkans argues that following the historical patterns of colonial psychoanalysis and psychiatry in British India and French Africa as well as Nazi psychoanalysis and psychiatry the psychoanalysis and psychiatry of the Balkans during the 1990s deployed the language of psychic normality to represent the space of the Other as insane geography and to justify its military or its symbolic takeover Freud's self analysis influenced by his journeys through the Balkans was a harbinger of orientalism as articulated by Said However whereas Said intended Orientalism to be a critique of the historical construction of the Orient by and in relation to the West for Freud it constituted a medical and psychic truth Freud's self orientalizing became the structural foundation of psychoanalytic language which had tragic consequences in the Balkans when a demonic conjunction developed between the ingrained self orientalizing structure of psychoanalysis and the Balkans own propensity for self orientalizing In the 1990s in the ex Yugoslav cultural space psychoanalytic language was used by the Serb psychiatrist politicians Drs Ra kovic and Karad ic as conceptual justification for inter ethnic violence Kristeva's discourse on abject geography and i ek's conceptualization of the Balkans as the Real have done violence to the region in an intellectual register on behalf of universal subjectivity Following Gramsci's and Said's discourse geography Bjelic transmutes the psychoanalytic topos of the imaginary geography of the Balkans into the geopolitics inherent in psychoanalytic language itself and takes to task the practices of normalization that underpin the Balkans politics of madness

Imagining Europe Michael J. Wintle, 2008 The authors of this research collection are not so much interested in what Europe thinks of itself but rather what others think of it They take a number of scenarios from recent history and examine how Europe has appeared to people in other parts of the world America China the Arab world for example

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics

The Balkans Nevill Forbes, 1915 The Balkans and the Byzantine World before and after the Captures of Constantinople, 1204 and 1453 Vlada Stankovic, 2016-06-15 This book represents the first attempt to analyze historical and cultural developments in late medieval and early modern southeastern Europe as a set of mutually intertwined regional histories burdened by the strong dichotomy between the almighty center Constantinople and the periphery that is rarely visible in both contemporary sources and modern scholarship This mosaic of original studies is devoted to various regions of the Byzantine Balkans and their historical artistic and ideological idiosyncrasies mirroring the complex character and composite and fragmented structure of this vast region The focal points of the book are the two captures of Constantinople in 1204 and 1453 and the contributors analyze the significance of these catastrophic events on the political destiny of medieval Balkan societies the mechanisms of adapting to the new political order and the ever present interconnectedness of a lower regional elite across southeastern Europe that had remained strong even after the Ottoman conquest

Atlas of the Balkan War, 1912 Balkan Transitions to Modernity and Nation-States Evguenia Davidova, 2012-10-12 In contrast to research on elites or history from below this study offers an approach that can be called mesohistory a collective social biography of the Balkan merchants In foregrounding the voices of traders this study sheds fresh light on multiethnic networks of social actors navigating multiple social political and economic systems supporting and opposing various aspects of nationalist ideologies Personal accounts humanize features of these faceless socially mediating groups Merchants generation specific perspectives on the economy society and state both in times of war and peace are analyzed against the backdrop of Balkan Ottoman and European history The study captures a dialogue between primary and secondary sources and the major debates regarding nationalism modernity and the Ottoman legacy The Revival of Islam in the Balkans Olivier Roy,Arolda Elbasani,2015-07-28 This book shifts analytical focus from macro politicization and securitization of Islam to Muslims choices practices and public expressions of faith An empirically rich analysis the book provides rich cross country evidence on the emergence of autonomous faith communities as well as the evolution of Islam in the broader European context 'Doing Nation' in a Digital Age Sanja Vico,2024-12-31 This book introduces a new theory of national identity arguing that the nation does not only represent an abstract imagined community but also represents embodied cultural and discursive practices Drawing upon a detailed case study of Serbian Londoners this truly interdisciplinary study positions media as constitutive of national identities The author contends that nations come into being and are sustained through everyday interpersonal communication practices that have increasingly become mediated especially for migrants She develops the concept of doing nation to argue that we should think of the nation as a dynamic process Situated first within a particular migration context the concept is then applied more broadly as everyday communication practices are becoming increasingly mediated worldwide Covering a breadth of key theories and concepts in this field including diaspora ethnicity nationalism cosmopolitanism social media affordances and polymedia this book will appeal to scholars and students researching digital media migration identities nationalism and cosmopolitanism in the social science disciplines League of Nations Magazine ,1916 A Military History of the New World Disorder, 1989-2022 Jonathan M. House,2025-05-06 The collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 freed the world of the political and military perils and imperatives of the Cold War But it also introduced a whole new constellation of risks and challenges as Jonathan M House brings into sharp relief in A Military History of the New World Disorder 1989 2022 the third and final volume in his comprehensive trilogy of military developments around the globe since the Second World War What followed the breaking of the Cold War s grip on global affairs was not so much a new world order as a new world disorder as the United States and its allies suddenly found themselves without the sort of coherent grand strategy previously deployed to contain the Soviet Union Focusing largely but not exclusively on the US House surveys subsequent developments in military strategy and operations the processes by which politicians and military leaders of the major powers designed organized resourced and then employed military forces to conduct or deter conflicts His overview ranges from conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan to American interventions in Panama Somalia former Yugoslavia and Haiti Israel vs Hezbollah in Lebanon and the resurgence of the Russian military in Syria Georgia and Ukraine Throughout House provides a compelling analysis of recent military developments including the strengths and weaknesses of employing precision guided munitions counter insurgency techniques and other controversial methods of current warfare His work reveals the complex relationship between national political decisions to commit armed forces to conflicts and the results on the battlefield and offers a timely perspective on military power and practice in the current day Slobodan Milosevic and the Destruction of Yugoslavia Louis Sell,2003-08-04 Focusing on the life and career of Slobodan Milosevic from the perspective of both a diplomatic insider and a scholar this text provides first hand observations of Milosevic during his rise to power and later in the endgame of the Bosnian war Beyond the Balkans Sabine Rutar,2014 This book shows how current and future research on the social history of the Balkans can be integrated into a broader European framework The contributions look at a range of methodological and empirical issues and the theme that links the various studies is that of the contrasting yet at the same time entangled ideas of the Balkans as a mental map and of Southeast Europe as an historical region Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 10 The Balkans Robert Bideleux,Ian Jeffries,2007-01-24 An excellent companion volume to the successful A History of Eastern Europe this is a country by country treatment of the contemporary history of each of the Balkan states Albania Bulgaria Romania Croatia Serbia Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia Montenegro and Kosova With a distinctive conceptual framework for explaining divergent patterns of historical change the book shifts the emphasis away from traditional cultural explanations and concentrates on the pervasive influence of strongly entrenched vertical power structures and power relations Focusing on political and economic continuities and changes since the 1980s The Balkans includes brief overviews of the history of each state prior to the 1980s to provide the background to enable all students of Eastern European history to make sense of the more recent developments Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,2008
