Making of Distinctions Antony Palackal, Nandita Chaudhary, Giuseppina Marsico, 2021-01-01 The volume revolves around the theme inclusive oppositions in social sciences that address the issue of making of distinctions and create artificial dichotomies and dualistic view of society

It is set against the currents of systematic reduction of anthropodiversity and psychodiversity which appears as a pathology of the current neo liberalist and colonialist model of development The volume is an attempt to overcome the colonial tendencies and forces to standardize and homogenize various categories and institutions in society by establishing structural relationality and intersectionality between the parts of the whole ecosystem where in the human and non human intersect and interact The volume brings together a unique collaboration in the field of Cultural Psychology and offers the intellectual tools to grasp how a syncretic understanding of Identity and Culture unfolds particularly in the key domain of gender The chapters and commentaries uncover cultural dynamics and identity formation from a specific location the region of Kerala in south western India The chapters and commentaries in this volume illustrates that Kerala is a cultural micro cosmos in which gender identity religion ethnicity caste global market and tradition intersect to create complex and multiple subjects that do not fit in binary categorizations The compiled volume will be of great value to scholars researchers and academicians in Social Sciences particularly Cultural Psychology Social Psychology Sociology Social Work Political Science Philosophy Anthropology and Economics

Entrepreneurship Maura McAdam, James A. Cunningham, 2021-04-05 Entrepreneurship in context has been described as the third wave in entrepreneurship research Accordingly specific socio economic political market and institutional contexts are key to fostering enabling and enacting entrepreneurial activity and behaviours These contexts shape everyday entrepreneurship experiences This book is based on the premise that how gender is articulated within the entrepreneurial debate has to acknowledge context However context is not a construct that only applies to those economies and situations that differ from the presumed norm of Western developed nations Adopting a more critical appraisal of how context is positioned within current theorizing around gender and entrepreneurial behaviours offers potential to progress debate whilst acknowledging that competing and contrasting contextual influences require clearer recognition This book therefore has the potential to unearth credible and robust approaches to further examining contextualisation and women entrepreneurship that advances new insights By exploring and examining how contextual influences shape women's entrepreneurship this book challenges the assumption that women entrepreneurship is the same throughout the world It will be of value to researchers academics and students with an interest in entrepreneurship political economy economics and public policy The
