Murder On The Thirty First Floor:

Murder on the the Thirty-first Floor Per Wahloo, 2013-02-26 In an unnamed country in an unnamed year sometime in the future Chief Inspector Jensen of the Sixteenth Division is called in after the publishers controlling the entire country's newspapers and magazines receive a threat to blow up their building in retaliation for a murder they are accused of committing. The building is evacuated but the bomb fails to explode and Jensen is given seven days in which to track down the letter writer. Jensen has never had a case he could not solve before but as his investigation into the identity of the letter writer begins it soon becomes clear that the directors of the publishers have their own secrets not least the identity of the Special Department on the thirty first floor the only department not permitted to be evacuated after the bomb threat.

Murder on the Thirty-first Floor Per Wahloo, Per Wahlöö, 1967 Chief Inspector Jensen investigates a bomb threat made to the nation's publishing conglomerate supposedly in retaliation for a murder. Swedish Marxist Noir Per Hellgren, 2018-12-28 Marxist theories have had a profound influence on crime fiction beginning with the works of the American writers of the 1930s. This study explores the development of a Swedish Marxist noir subgenre after the 1990s through a Marxist reading of central works from the Marlowe novels of Raymond Chandler to the 1960s social crime fiction of Sjöwall Wahloo to modern bestselling authors such as Henning Mankell Stieg Larsson Roslund Hellström Jens Lapidus Arne Dahl and others. The works of these writers show a common thread of Marxist worldview in their portrayal of a modern world gone wrong. A Literary Symbiosis Hazel Pierce, 1983-11-16 A Literary Symbiosis studies the merger of science fiction fantasy and mystery fiction from historical and critical perspectives. Pierce examines the problems and expectations raised by the various literary labels particularly as regards definition theme conventions stock characters and setting. While she admits the difficulties inherent in merging idea oriented speculative science fiction with the situation specific and present time oriented mystery story she argues that the two genres have much in common. The book examines critically the elements of mystery fiction which have been integrated with varying degrees of success into science fiction fantasy. This evaluation focuses on individual authors and novels or short stories which contributed to the original modes and to their synthesis. The New Russian Book Birgitte Beck Pristed, 2017-08-01 This book takes up the obtrusive problem of visual representation of fiction in contemporary Russian book design. By analyzing a broad variety of book covers the study offers an absolutely unique material that illustrates a radically changing notion of literature in the transformation of Soviet print culture to a post Soviet book market. It delivers a profound and critical exploration of Russian visual imaginary of classic popular and contemporary prose. Among all the carelessly bungled covers of mass published post Soviet series the study identifies gems from experimental designers. By taking a comparative approach to the clash of two formerly separate book cultures the Western and the Soviet that results both in a mixture of highbrow and lowbrow forms and in ideological re-interpretations of the literary works this book contributes to opening an East West dialogue between the fields of Russian
