Paul N. Balchin

Regional Problems Problem Regions And Public Policy In The U K:

Regional Policy in Britain Paul N. Balchin, 2021-07-11 Originally published in 1990 this book examines the extent to which the north south divide in the UK has been a reality in recent years It also reveals the degree to which the gap between the two parts of Britain has worsened An issue of enduring relevance particularly given the political drive to level up the regions the book focusses particularly on the 1980s a period when regional assistance became a victim of both monetarism and free market ideology The book reviews legislation and considers whether regional policy has been effective and consistent To widen the debate the author questions some common assumptions about regional imbalance and argues that intraregional disparities and the plight of Inner London were causes of concern no less serious than the problem of the north south imbalance

Regional Identity and Behavior Max Sugar, 2012-12-06 The author proposes that the four earliest British North American colonies in the United States promoted the development of distinct regional identities and that this cultural legacy affected identity development as well as behavioral patterns differently in each region He compares data from the North American colonies to the situation in England and discovers that the findings in the latter s eight standard regions are very similar to those in the United States

Strategic Planning for Regional Development in the UK Harry T. Dimitriou, Robin Thompson, 2007-08-07 With contributions from leading academics and practitioners Strategic Planning for Regional Development in the UK is the most up to date treatment of a fast changing subject The book discusses The evolution of regional planning in the UK and the strategic thinking involved The spatial implications of regional economic development policies The methods and techniques needed for the implementation of strategic planning for regional development How strategic planning for regional development is currently put into practice in three UK regions with different priorities Strategic Planning for Regional Development in the UK is essential reading for students and academics working within strategic and regional planning and provides policy makers and practitioners with a comprehensive and thought provoking introduction to this critically important emerging field

Regional Development in the 1990s Ron Martin, Peter Townroe, 2013-10-18 This book documents the changing nature and challenge of regional development in Britain and Ireland in the final decade of this century In the first half of this book region by region profiles review the experience of the eighties and reflect on the present climate assessing problems and opportunities The second half provides 25 commentaries on changes influencing the development of regions from questions of industry technology and employment to the impact of national policy and 1992 and the prospects and capacity for regional policy and development

Routledge Library Editions: Housing Gentrification and Regional Inequality Paul N. Balchin, 2022-07-30 Originally published in 1979 and 1990 the 2 volumes in this set Analyse the economic and social rationale of housing improvement in London Review the progress of improvement legislation as applied to London Identifies the connection between grant distribution and socio economic change within Housing Action Areas in the 1960s and 70s Provide introductory background to regional imbalance and policy in Britain Examine the economic and social data suggestive of a North South divide Question well known assumptions about regional imbalance      Housing Policy Paul Balchin, Maureen Rhoden, 2019-01-09 Now in its fourth edition this textbook has been completely revised to examine the current state of housing policy in the UK Exploring developments in housing policy made since Labour's 1997 electoral victory the book addresses current issues including the brownfield versus greenfield debate the phasing out of renovation grants the transfer of local authority housing to registered social landlords boom slump and boom in the owner occupied sector Other topics addressed range from regional policy and housing across the UK to social exclusion community care and homelessness

Global Challenge and Local Response Walter B. Stöhr, 1990 The volume grew out of research undertaken as a part of the UN University's European Perspectives Project It addresses the consequences of the failure of large scale industrial enterprise and the inability of central government policies to cope with the results of economic restructuring in a series of comparative case studies showing how local communities throughout Europe East and West rural and industrial have responded to economic dislocation and decline and how these local initiatives have become the basis for economic regeneration Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Spatial Policy in a Divided Nation Richard T. Harrison, Mark Hart, 2002-09 This re evaluation of the role of regional policy in the UK has been accompanied by a much closer identification of regional policy with national economic policymaking This book drawing upon the contributions of a large number of experts in the field in the UK sets the debate on the future of spatial policy explicitly within the context of the economics and politics of the North South divide Recent policy debates in the United Kingdom have highlighted two major issues which will shape future policy developments and their impact in the 1990s the persistence of pronounced regional economic and social imbalances and the shift away from traditional perceptions of the role of regional policy with a new emphasis on inner city as opposed to regional problems In this collection by leading researchers in the field the role of regional policy in the UK is re evaluated against a background of renewed debate on the economic disparities inherent in the north south divide and an assessment of the implications for future policy

Jordan,2006-08-03 This is a unique book length accounts of the domestic impact of EU membership Drawing on expert contributions this volume provides a state of the art account of how membership has affected the institutions of central devolved and local governance the activities of organized interests and major areas of public policy

The UK Regional-National Economic Problem Philip McCann,2016-03-10 In recent years the United Kingdom has become a more and more divided society with inequality between the regions as marked as it has ever been In a landmark analysis of the current state of Britain s regional development Philip McCann utilises current statistics examines historical trends and makes pertinent international comparisons to assess the state of the nation The UK Regional National Economic Problem brings attention to the highly centralised top down governance structure that the UK deploys and demonstrates that it is less than ideally placed to rectify these inequalities The North South divide in the UK has never been greater and the rising inequalities are evident in almost all aspects of the economy including productivity incomes employment status and wealth Whilst the traditional economic dominance of London and its hinterland has continued along with relative resilience in the South West of England and Scotland in contrast the Midlands the North of England Northern Ireland and Wales lag behind by most measures of prosperity This inequality is greatly limiting national economic performance and the fact that Britain has a below average standard of living by European and OECD terms has been ignored The UK s economic and governance inequality is unlikely to be fundamentally rebalanced by the current governance and connectivity trends although this definitive study suggests that some areas of improvement are possible if they are well implemented This pivotal analysis is essential reading for postgraduate students in economics and urban studies as well as researchers and policy makers in local and central government Innovation, Networks and Localities Manfred M. Fischer, Luis Suarez-Villa, Michael Steiner, 2012-12-06 The relationship between innovation networks and localities is of central concern for many nations However despite increasing interest in the components of this research triangle efforts in these fields are hampered by a lack of conceptual and empirical insights This volume brings together contributions from a distinguished group of scholars working in different but related disciplines and aims to provide a fresh look at this research triangle The objective is to offer a concise overview of current developments and insights derived from recent studies in Europe and North America All of the contributions are based on original research undertaken in the various regions and nations and are published here for the first time We are grateful to all those who have contributed to this volume for their willingness to participate in the project Without their co operation this book would not have been possible We should like in addition to thank Angela Spence for her careful linguistic editing and assistance in co ordinating the production of the camera ready copy Lastly but not least we wish to express our gratitude for support from our home institutions and in particular the Austrian Academy of Sciences Institute for Urban and Regional Research the Austrian Ministry for Science and Transport the Styrian Government Section for Science and Research and the Federation of Austrian Industry in Styria for the financial backing received April 1999 Manfred M An Enlarged Europe Louis Albrechts, Sally Hardy, Mark Hart, Anastasios Katos, 2013-12-19 The political and economic geography of Europe is changing the European Community is expanding its boundaries towards EFTA and is resuming a closer association with Central and Eastern European regions engaged in radical restructuring As EC integration accelerates there is the prospect of intensified inter regional competition This book divided into five parts examines in detail the changes and the challenge for policy makers The introduction draws out the central themes of the book addressing EC regional performance and future indicators the enlargement and changing map of Europe and the implications for the EC of Eastern European changes The second part deals with EC issues particularly focusing on the economic and spatial impact of European integration Part 3 addresses Eastern European issues and Part 4 covers the Peripheral Regions The final part is devoted to a policy debate concluding with a policy agenda for the forthcoming decade Territory, Identity and Spatial Planning Mark Tewdwr-Jones, Philip Allmendinger, 2006-09-27 This book provides a multi disciplinary study of territory identity and space in a devolved UK through the lens of spatial planning It draws together leading internationally renowned researchers from a variety of disciplines to address the implications of devolution upon spatial planning and the rescaling of UK politics Each contributor offers a different perspective on the core issues in planning today in the context of New Labour s regional project particularly the government s concern with business competitiveness and key themes are illustrated with important case studies throughout Routledge Revivals: Localities (1989) Philip Cooke, 2016-09-19 First published in 1989 this book examines seven different localities ranging from the outer suburbs of large northern cities to small freestanding town which were prospering in the 1980s or struggling against the negative employment effects of restructuring Within the theoretical frame of industrial restructuring it traces the development of each locality exploring in depth the influence of several key elements deindustrialisation technological change the shift to the services in employment on social composition political change and local policy A major contribution to locality studies this book is essential reading for students of urban and regional studies and sociology
