The World about Us Osbert John Radcliffe Howarth,1922 Special Report - Highway Research Board National Research Council (U.S.). Highway Research Board,1969 Will Carleton's Magazine Every where ,1904 The Intellectual repository for the New Church. (July/Sept. 1817). [Continued as] The Intellectual repository and New Jerusalem magazine. Enlarged ser., vol.1-28 New Church gen. confer,1857 The Little Book of Big Frontiers John E. Worgul,2012-09-06 Most Christians are unaware that there is such a thing as a biblical cosmology That is we do not have a clear idea of the whole of creation both visible and invisible its parts and realms and how they fit together We live by bits and pieces of conflicting notions supplied by the Bible and the secular world and there is little comprehension of the overall design of reality and the all embracing vision of creation that the Bible provides and the Church has taught for centuries The matter seems too complex for the typical contemporary Christian and so the matter is dropped as irrelevant The consequences are deadly ignorance breeds arrogance indifference and finally spiritual death The Little Book of Big Frontiers intends to make the complex issue of cosmology understandable Vivid and ordinary stories and images are used to illustrate extremely difficult concepts that will open up new frontiers for the reader Readers will come away with a whole new understanding of the cosmos and how it works integrating the interior realities of the soul with the world around them rediscovering realms that were once known to the early Christians but alas are now lost within the secularization of our culture

Casey, 2002-01-01 You are here a map declares but of course you are not any more than you truly occupy the vantage point into which a landscape painting puts you How maps and paintings figure and reconfigure space as well as our place in it is the subject of Edward S Casey's study an exploration of how we portray the world and its many places Casey's discussion ranges widely from Northern Song landscape painting to nineteenth century American and British landscape painting and photography from prehistoric petroglyphs and medieval portolan charts to seventeenth century Dutch cartography and land survey maps of the American frontier From these culturally and historically diverse forays a theory of representation emerges Casey proposes that the representation of place in visual works be judged in terms not of resemblance but of reconnecting with an earth and world that are not the mere content of mind or language a reconnection that calls for the embodiment and emplacement of the human subject Book jacket

The Wisdom Paradox Elkhonon Goldberg, 2006-02-16 The Wisdom Paradox explores the aging of the mind from a unique positive perspective In an era of increasing fears about mental deterioration world renowned neuropsychologist Elkhonon Goldberg provides startling new evidence that though the brain diminishes in some tasks as it ages it gains in many ways Most notably it increases in what he terms wisdom the ability to draw upon knowledge and experience gained over a lifetime to make quick and effective decisions Goldberg delves into the machinery of the mind separating memory into two distinct types singular knowledge of a particular incident or fact and generic recognition of broader patterns As the brain ages the ability to use singular memory declines but generic memory is unaffected and its importance grows As an individual accumulates generic memory the brain can increasingly rely upon these stored patterns to solve problems effortlessly and instantaneously Goldberg investigates the neurobiology of wisdom and draws on historical examples of artists and leaders whose greatest achievements were realized late in life Putnam's Monthly Magazine of American Literature, Science, and Art, 1854 An essay on the improvement of society. The philosophy of a future state. The philosophy of religion. The mental illumination and moral improvement of mankind. An essay on the sin and evils of covetousness Thomas Dick, 1859
