Reinventing Film Studies:

Reinventing Film Studies Linda Williams, Christine Gledhill, 2000-01 This anthology of specially commissioned essays introduces students to some of the central questions and debates which have concerned the development of Film Studies. It differs from other readers in that it does not start with the intellectual history of the evolution of film theory or the history and criticism of film but with the problems and questions that confront us now. The contributors begin with questions that are central to the field asking what we need to know and what theories, concepts and methods help us to know. These questions that confront the discipline at the beginning of a new century either reframe or depart from the concerns of the 1970s when film first became an academic subject of study. This second century of moving images new questions and a new knowledge animate the field. The aim of this collection is to reinvent film studies in the light of these new questions rethinking and refiguring what is most useful from the past. There are four key issues in this reinvention that film studies can no longer ignore: its interdisciplinary invention next to media studies, cultural studies and visual culture; and that film studies thus needs to confront the massness of its existence as mass media; that film studies has a distinctive and historically changing sensory appeal; that since mass mediated culture is the only terrain on which we have to work we need to re-confront the aesthetic generic and modal forms of this mass media; and finally that the pressure of postmodernity has compelled a new urgency in the understanding of film history which is never wholly about then and certainly always about now. Reinventing Film Studies Christine Gledhill, Anne Friedberg, Rajinder Kumar Dudrah, 2000 Reinventing Film Studies Christine Gledhill, 2000 Inventing Film Studies Lee Grieveson, Haidee Wasson, 2008-11-24 A collection of institution centered essays comprising a history of film studies as a discipline Beginning film studies Andrew Dix, 2016-05-01 Beginning film studies offers the ideal introduction to this vibrant subject. Written accessibly and with verve it ranges across the key topics and manifold approaches to film studies. Andrew Dix has thoroughly updated the first edition and this new volume includes new case studies, overviews of recent developments in the discipline and up to the minute suggestions for further reading. The book begins by considering some of film's formal features: mise en scene, editing and sound, before moving outwards to narrative, genre, authorship, stardom and ideology. Later chapters on film industries and on film consumption where and how we watch movies assess the discipline's recent geographical turn. The book references many film cultures including Hollywood, Bollywood and contemporary Hong Kong. Case studies cover such topics as sound in The Great Gatsby and narrative in Inception. The superhero movie is studied so too is Jennifer Lawrence. Beginning film studies is also interactive with readers enabled throughout to reflect critically upon the field. A2 Film Studies Sarah Casey, Benyahia, John White, Freddie Gaffney, 2010-12-14 A2 Film Studies: The Essential Introduction gives students the confidence to tackle every part of the WJEC A2 Level Film Studies course. The authors, who have wide ranging experience as teachers, examiners and authors, introduce students step by step to the skills involved in the study of film. The second edition has been redesigned and re written to follow the new WJEC A2 syllabus for 2009 teaching onwards and is supported by a companion website at www.alevelfilmstudies.co.uk offering further advice and activities There is a chapter for each exam topic including The small scale research project The creative project Aspects of a national cinema Bollywood Iranian Japanese and Mexican International Film Styles German and or Soviet Surrealism Neo Realism and New Waves Specialist studies Urban Stories and Empowering Women Spectatorship topics Early cinema before 1917 Documentary Experimental and expanded film video and Popular film and emotional responses The single film critical study every film covered Specifically designed to be user friendly the second edition of A2 Film Studies The Essential Introduction has a new text design to make the book easy to follow includes more than sixty colour images and is packed with features such as case studies relevant to the 2009 specification activities on films like All About My Mother 10 Vertigo and City of God key terms example exam questions suggestions for further reading and website resources Matched to the current WJEC specification A2 Film Studies The Essential Introduction covers everything students need to study as part of the course

The Cinema of Naruse Mikio Catherine Russell, 2008-09-08 The first English language book dedicated to an analysis of Naruse Mikio one of Japan's most prolific directors whose films provide unique insight into the representation of female subjectivity and modernity in Japan The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments

Cinematic Flashes Rashna Wadia Richards, 2013 Cinematic Flashes challenges popular notions of a uniform Hollywood style by disclosing uncanny networks of incongruities coincidences and contingencies at the margins of the cinematic frame In an agile demonstration of cinephiliac historiography Rashna Wadia Richards extracts intriguing film fragments from their seemingly ordinary narratives in order to explore what these unexpected moments reveal about the studio era Inspired by Walter Benjamin's preference for studying cultural fragments rather than composing grand narratives this unorthodox history of the films of the studio system reveals how classical Hollywood emerges as a disjointed network of accidents excesses and coincidences

Valuing Films L. Hubner, 2011-04-05 This volume gets to the heart of what films mean to people on personal political and commercial levels Exploring value judgements that underpin social academic and institutional practices it examines the diverse forms of worth attributed to a range of international films in relation to taste passion morality and aesthetics

Reception Studies and Audiovisual Translation Elena Di Giovanni, Yves Gambier, 2018-06-15 The coming of age of audiovisual translation studies has brought about a much needed surge of studies focusing on the audience their comprehension appreciation or rejection of what reaches them through the medium of translation Although complex to perform studies on the reception of translated audiovisual texts offer a uniquely thorough picture of the life and afterlife of these texts This volume provides a detailed and comprehensive overview of reception studies related to audiovisual translation and accessibility from a diachronic and synchronic perspective Focusing on all audiovisual translation techniques and encompassing theoretical and methodological approaches from translation media and film studies it aims to become a reference for students and scholars across these fields The New Peplum Nicholas Diak, 2018-01-12 Peplum or sword and sandal films an Italian genre of the late 1950s through the 1960s featured ancient Greek Roman and Biblical stories with gladiators mythological monsters and legendary quests The new wave of historic epics known as neo pepla is distinctly different embracing new technologies and storytelling techniques to create an immersive experience unattainable in the earlier films This collection of new essays explores the neo peplum phenomenon through a range of topics including comic book adaptations like Hercules the expansion of genre boundaries in Jupiter Ascending and John Carter depictions of Romans and slaves in Spartacus and The Eagle and Centurion as metaphors for America's involvement in the Iraq War The Cambridge Companion to Postmodernism Steven Connor, 2004-07-15 The Cambridge Companion to Postmodernism offers a comprehensive introduction to postmodernism The Companion examines the different aspects of postmodernist thought and culture that have had a significant impact on contemporary cultural production and thinking Topics discussed by experts in the field include postmodernism's relation to modernity and its significance and relevance to literature film law philosophy architecture religion and modern cultural studies The volume also includes a useful guide to further reading and a chronology This is an essential aid for students and teachers from a range of disciplines interested in postmodernism in all its incarnations Accessible and comprehensive this Companion addresses the many issues surrounding this elusive enigmatic and often controversial topic Making Personas Hideaki Fujiki, 2020-10-26 The film star is not simply an actor but a historical phenomenon that derives from the production of an actor's attractiveness the circulation of his or her name and likeness and the support of media consumers This book analyzes the establishment and transformation of the transnational film star system and the formations of historically important film stars Japanese and non Japanese and casts new light on Japanese modernity as it unfolded between the 1910s and 1930s Hideaki Fujiki illustrates how film stardom and the star system emerged and evolved touching on such facets as the production representation circulation and reception of performers images in films and other media Examining several individual performers particularly benshi narrators Onoe Matsunosuke Tachibana Teijir Kurishima Sumiko Clara Bow and Natsukawa Shizue as well as certain aspects of different star systems that bolstered individual stardom this study foregrounds the associations of contradictory multivalent social factors that constituted modernity in Japan such as industrialization capitalism colonialism nationalism and consumerism Through its nuanced treatment of the production and consumption of film stars this book shows that modernity is not a simple concept but an intricate contested and paradoxical nexus of diverse social elements emerging in their historical contexts

New Hollywood Cinema Geoff King, 2002 Addresses the stylistic industrial and socio historical contexts of the New Hollywood cinema identifying its distinctive characteristics and its points of similarity with the Hollywood of the past Topics include the industrial context to the blockbuster format of contemporary Hollywood the frameworks of authorship genre and stardom through which New Hollywood films have been produced and consumed and the growing importance of small screen media to the overall economy of Hollywood Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

All-Stars and Movie Stars Ron Briley, Michael K. Schoenecke, Deborah A. Carmichael, 2021-05-11 Sports films are popular forms of entertainment around the world but beyond simply amusing audiences they also reveal much about class race gender sexuality and national identity In All Stars and Movie Stars Ron Briley Michael K Schoenecke and Deborah A Carmichael explore the interplay between sports films and critical aspects of our culture examining them as both historical artifacts and building blocks of ideologies values and stereotypes The book covers not only Hollywood hits such as Field of Dreams and Miracle but also documentaries such as The Journey of the African American Athlete and international cinema such as the German film The Miracle of Bern The book also explores television coverage of sports commenting on the relationship of media to golf and offering a new perspective on the culture and politics behind the depictions of the world's most popular pastimes The first part of the book addresses how sports films represent the cultural events patterns and movements of the times in which they were set as well as the effect of the media and athletic industry on the athletes themselves Latham Hunter examines how the baseball classic The Natural reflects traditional ideas about gender heroism and nation and Harper Cossar addresses how the production methods used in televised golf affect viewers The second section deals with issues such as the growth of women's involvement in athletics sexual preference in the sports world and the ever present question of race by looking at sports classics such as Rocky Hoosiers and A League of Their Own Finally the authors address the historical and present day role sports play in the international and political arena by examining such films as Visions of Eight and The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner This important and unique collection illuminates the prominent role that sports play in society and how that role is reflected in film Analysis of the depiction of sports in film and television provides a deeper understanding of the appeal that sports hold for people worldwide and of the forces behind the historic and cultural traditions linked to sports Crash Cinema Will Godfrey, Jill Good, Mark Goodall, 2009-10-02 Crash Cinema Representation in Film is a collection of essays that emerged from Crash Cinema an annual symposium that is an integral part of the Bradford Film Festival at the National Media Museum UK The symposium was created by academics and curators who share the common aim of promoting the importance of film both as an academic study and for critical public appreciation Films can be enjoyed as entertainment they can educate and inform and they can excite and disturb Films are powerful pieces of culture The films that we now consume do more than simply amuse or horrify Cinema not only thrills us but also communicates to us about ourselves and in the twentieth and twenty first century moving images have become the dominant form of this communication Bombarded by images we inhabit a media intensive world in which every aspect of life is pervaded by visual signs In these circumstances it becomes increasingly significant to engage with the politics of representation Through this vital process we can acknowledge that all cultural forms whether in high art or the mass media are in the broadest sense political We can also appreciate that it is a complex agenda of interests that shapes specific ideological meanings Fulsomely equipped we can apply this essential tool to the exciting task of decoding the political social and cultural meanings articulated through the making promotion and consumption of film This book aims to offer an arena for the analysis of these representations Representations cannot depict the truth and the essays in this book do not claim to search for the truth We ask whose truth is being represented how is it represented and why is it represented like that We also ask how do representations tell us something about the culture within which they are created Yet the essays in this volume are not stuck in the representational concerns of the past and try instead to uncover the power of cinema to shock and surprise whether that be through visceral impact subversive content experiments with identity or the exploration of the taboo Representation as defined by the eleven essays in this book is a fluid and dynamic approach to the study of film The study of film to which this book contributes some unique case studies is as popular as ever and has withstood growing challenge from the new media such as CG Animations the internet and computer console and online gaming This is because the pleasure of film is still the most humanistic and because the sophistication of the representations offered by cinematic expression remain ever more complex and pleasurable to decipher This book can therefore be read by any student academic writer or filmmaker hooked on these delights Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice Joe Parker, Ranu Samantrai, Mary Romero, 2012-02-01 In the 1960s and 1970s activists who focused on the academy as a key site for fostering social change began by querying the assumptions of the traditional disciplines and transforming their curricula putting into place women s and ethnic studies programs that changed both the subject and methods of scholarship The pattern of scholars and activists joining forces to open fields of research and teaching continued in subsequent decades and recent additions including critical race studies queer studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies take as their epistemological foundation the inherently political nature of all knowledge production Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice seizes this opportune moment in the history of interdisciplinary fields to review their effects on our intellectual and political landscape to evaluate their ability to deliver promised social benefits and to consider their futures The essays collected in this volume detail histories of the interdisciplinary fields that emerged from social movements examine how effectively they have achieved their goals of intellectual and social change and consider the challenges they now face inside and outside the academy
