Clement, 1994-05-25 This is the first comprehensive scholarly bibliography research guide sourcebook on the major French Fauve painters Henri Matisse and Georges Braque are treated in separate Greenwood bio bibliographies It includes information on 3 120 books and articles as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists Each artist receives a primary and secondary bibliography with many annotated entries Secondary bibliographies include details about each artists life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography and more Designed for art historians art students museum and gallery curators and art lovers alike this volume organizes the vast literature surrounding this fascinating revolutionary 20th century art group Genuinely new art is always challenging sometimes even shocking to those unprepared for it In 1905 the paintings of Matisse Derain Vlaminck and their friends shocked conservative museum goers hence the eventual popularity of art critic Louis Vauxcelles's tag les fauves or wild beasts by which these artists became known Although it lasted only three or four years Fauvism is recognized as the first artistic revolution of international consequence in the 20th century It was based on the glorification of pure saturated colors and the free expression of primitivism It was a dynamic sensualism an equilibrium of passion and order fire and austerity that could not last By the end of 1908 Fauvism collapsed in the face of Cubism which moreover several Fauve artists helped to form The Routledge Companion to Drama in Education Mary McAvooy, Peter O'Connor, 2022-05-23 The Routledge Companion to Drama in Education is a comprehensive reference guide to this unique performance discipline focusing on its process oriented theatrical techniques engagement of a broad spectrum of learners its historical roots as a field of inquiry and its transdisciplinary pedagogical practices The book approaches drama in education DE from a wide range of perspectives from leading scholars to teaching artists and school educators who specialise in DE teaching It presents the central disciplinary conversations around key issues including best practice in DE aesthetics and artistry in teaching the histories of DE ideologies in drama and education and concerns around access inclusivity and justice Including reflections lesson plans programme designs case studies and provocations from scholars educators and community arts workers this is the most robust and comprehensive resource for those interested in DE's past present and future

Whose People? Jasmine Donahaye, 2012-02-15 Wales has a centuries long history of interest in Palestine and Israel and a particularly close interest in Jews and Zionism which has been expressed widely in the literature Whose People Wales Israel Palestine is the first monograph to explore this subject It asks difficult and probing questions about the relationship that Wales has had with Palestine in the past and now has with the Israel Palestine situation in the present and it challenges received wisdom about Welsh tolerance and liberalism Using publications in Welsh and in English across several centuries this survey examines Welsh missionary efforts and colonial desires in Palestine complex and contradictory attitudes to Jews and the use of Zionism and the Hebrew language revival as a model for Wales Beginning with an analysis of a so called tradition of Welsh identification with Jews the study locates its origins in the early twentieth century and moves on to uncover provocative material in Welsh conversionist writing on Jews Muslims and Samaritans in Palestine in the nineteenth century and imaging of Jews in twentieth century fiction and the periodical press It concludes with a survey of Jewish literary responses to Wales that suggests that some Jewish writers have been active agents in reinforcing Welsh support of Zionism in particular The evidence uncovered here shows a complex picture of a unique cultural and political relationship Whose People Wales Israel Palestine makes an important contribution to international Jewish studies to the study of British colonial involvement in Palestine and to Welsh and Jewish literary and cultural history A Dictionary of Modern and Contemporary Art Ian Chilvers, John Graves-Smith, 2009 This unique and authoritative reference work contains more than 2 000 clear and concise entries on all aspects of modern and contemporary art Its impressive range of terms includes movements styles techniques artists critics dealers schools and galleries There are biographical entries for artists worldwide from the beginning of the 20th century through to the beginning of the 21st from the Finnish architect Alvar Aalto to the French sculptor Jacques Zwobada With international coverage indications of public collections and publicly sited works and in depth entries for key topics for example Cubism and abstract art this dictionary is a fascinating and thorough guide for anyone with an interest in modern and contemporary culture amateur or professional Formerly the Dictionary of 20th Century Art the text has been completely revised and updated for this major new edition 300 entries have been added and it now contains entries on photography in modern art With emphasis on recent art and artists for example Damien Hirst it has an exceptionally strong coverage of art from the 1960s which makes it particularly ideal for contemporary art enthusiasts Further reading is provided at entry level to assist those wishing to know more about a particular subject In addition this edition features recommended web links for many entries which are accessed and kept up to date via the Dictionary of Modern Art companion website The perfect companion for the desk bedside table or gallery visits A Dictionary of Modern and Contemporary Art is an essential A Z reference work for art students artists and art lovers The Art and Life of Josef Herman Monica Bohm-Duchen, 2009 This work traces Herman s life and work from his earliest years through to his mature work It combines biographical detail an analysis of individual artworks in a variety of media and an assessment of his status within the history of 20th century art John Ormonds Organic Mosaic Kieron Smith, 2019-10-15 This book is the only extended study of John Ormond s poetry and films It is a contribution to the history of BBC television It is a contribution to the history of the documentary film form particularly in a national context It is a contribution to the cultural history of Wales It is a case study in inter artistic creative practice Edinburgh Companion to Modern Jewish Fiction David Brauner, 2015-06-07 This book provides a critical overviews of the main writers and key themes of Anglophone Jewish fiction highlighting the rich diversity of the field identifying key themes analysing the main trends in Anglophone Jewish fiction and situating them in a historical context Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish Culture Glenda Abramson, 2004-03 The Companion
