Red Headed Book Lady Beautifully written story with a dual storyline Tragic and sad but filled with strong women this story will have you crying and reaching for that ray of hope I had never read any book on Hitler s reach in Greece Wonderful book Definitely recommend Goodreads Reviewer Wow where to start with this one both stories are gripping in themselves and as both storylines continue you are gripped with each of them willing them on Goodreads Reviewer Have to admit to shedding a few tears at the end and will be keeping an eye out for more of this author s work this book won t disappoint and it highlights the journey of the Corfu Jews and how they were treated by the Germans Goodreads Reviewer A captivating novel You will not regret reading this book Suzanne Goldring did a fantastic job of writing this Goodreads Reviewer This was a heart wrenching story and it was told well Having no idea there were Jews on Corfu even though I know Greece suffered horribly at the hands of the Germans during WWII A dual timeline novel made it even more interesting These stories are difficult to read but authors such as Suzanne Goldring bring you the reality capturing the history and the humanity that can t help but draw you in Goodreads Reviewer This was a beautiful story though heartbreaking and tragic The writing flowed perfectly and made even a sad story such as this a joy to read I felt the emotions in every character to the point that I was in tears I especially liked seeing a WWII story focusing on strong women I look forward to reading more from this author Goodreads Reviewer Two storylines come together beautifully in this historical fiction story They cross over in ways that I didn t see coming and both stories show us strong women in different situations I really loved the flow of this story and I would love to see what else this author has out there The characters are all written wonderfully and I couldn t put this down Crossroad Reviews I really enjoyed this book I found the juxtaposition between the two story lines very interesting and captivating Both storylines cross in a beautiful and unexpected way drawing Amber Anna and Matilde closer and giving them an even deeper appreciation for their lives Goodreads Reviewer Eurasian Names for Boys and Girls Hseham Amrahs,2023-12-30

Volume 3 R. R. Dale,2017-05-18 Originally published in 1974 This final volume in the trilogy is concerned primarily with comparing the academic progress made by pupils of near equal ability in the two types of school. It considers attainment in different subjects but also attitudes to different subjects and then follows up with a study of university students from both types of school background. Mixed or Single-sex School? Volume 2 R. R. Dale, 2017-05-18. Originally published in 1971. This second volume in this three part set examines specific aspects of social relationships within the school and demonstrates that co educational and single sex schools are fundamentally different communities. These volumes examine in detail the social and psychosocial differences between co educational and single sex schools. This volume provides a wealth of evidence from pupils and ex pupils about such aspects as discipline bullying happiness anxiety and attitudes to sex.

Restaging the Past Angela Bartie, Linda Fleming, Mark Freeman, Alexander Hutton, Paul Readman, 2020-08-17. Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day. Across Britain in the twentieth century people succumbed to pageant fever. Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived and hundreds of thousands more watched them. These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s. They took place in large cities, small towns and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups including Women's Institutes, political parties, schools, churches and youth organisations. Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past. They also involved many prominent novelists, professional historians and other writers as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature. Although the pageant tradition has largely died out, it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change. Indeed, as this book shows, some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today.

Safe Space Alyssa Huynh, 2024-06-05. A searingly honest and impassioned account of being an advocate in the social media era. Alyssa's voice is fierce, urgent and brave and filled with deep familial love. This book burns with an urgency and clarion call to action. Alice Pung, author of One Hundred Days. This is a book for anyone who believes that racism has no place in Australia's future and is ready to take action. I've played the role of the quiet and embarrassed Asian girl who shyly laughs along more than I should have in my lifetime. Enough is enough. Growing up, Alyssa Huynh heard stories from her family about their journey from Vietnam to Australia following the fall of Saigon and the racism they experienced upon arrival. While the discrimination she faced was different, she never quite felt like she belonged either. Longing for a safe space, she turned to the internet. Through sharing her writing online, she created a supportive community for fellow Asians and people of colour with similar experiences as well as for allies. When some of her views went viral, important conversations were sparked, but there was also racist backlash showing her that the work was necessary and her voice had impact. Honest and heartfelt, Safe Space is unapologetically angry and sincerely hopeful. Alyssa explores the challenges she has faced as an Asian Australian and those that made her the advocate she is today. She also offers practical advice both to those who are victims of racism and wish to add their voice to the discourse or deepen their connection to their cultural identities and to allies who want to learn more about how they can meaningfully show their support

Journal of the ... Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York ... ,1896 The Economic Review ,1906 Includes section Reviews The Charity Organisation Review Charity Organisation Society (London, England),1907 Children's Literature Abstracts ,1997 Mongolia Nily Naiman,2011-06-01 Description This novel is based upon true events in the lives of the author and her family members The narrator Lana is three years old when she stands on a hill with her mother and sisters for the first time waiting for butterflies to land on her Thus Nily Naiman begins this sensual emotional and ever surprising saga of a very special family The complex narrative spreads over two lifetimes and four continents over times of war and peace and poverty and plenty The women of this novel are larger than life Only at the age of 18 does Lana come to the realization that not everything has been known to her about her family and she begins an adventurous journey in search of her roots and her identity Her mother Sara a determined and passionate woman who found herself in the wilderness of Mongolia during the Second World War relates a life story of exceptional bravery and turmoil Lana s two sisters are polar opposites as personalities but each in her own way is fascinating and brings the reader to tears Farah an Arab woman who lives under the Israeli occupation is a symbol of strength and incredible pride in her identity Lana s captivating daughters each uniquely combine the attributes of sensitivity and courage Lana herself lives through an extraordinary and unexpected series of events that bring forth all the special strengths that she has within her Although this complex tale is focused primarily in Mongolia it reaches throughout much of the world Author Naiman is able to transmit the magical atmosphere of each locale that she describes from the hard constricted narrow minded climate of Israel a tiny country at war to the distant open terrain of Mongolia its mountains lakes deserts and forests and its open minded people One thread of the narrative is an old belief that when a girl stands on a hill where butterflies are about the number that land on her will foretell the number of husbands that she will have The men in this book the butterflies are all interesting in their own right sensitive strong and caring They supply the physical and emotional needs of the women and provide critical support in times of severe stress But it is the women who are central Coping with the setbacks and crises of life is a major theme of the story Both Lana and later her eldest daughter live through shocking events that cause them to retreat within themselves They lose the capacity to speak or even utter a sound The book explores in depth the phenomenon of post traumatic muteness the horrendous conscious fears and frustrations that accompany it and the paradoxical and contradictory underlying reality that this kind of mental collapse temporarily frees the individual from her normal relationship with her surroundings a convenient and all too enticing form of escape This silence has a language of its own It speaks it cries it shouts out in anger all in the mind of the sufferer Through the experiences of Lana and her daughter the book describes not only the horrible anxiety and loneliness that are a part of post traumatic muteness but the exceptional strength and courage that must be brought to bear to fight one's way out of the suffering and renew one's relationship with the world. Of all the demonstrations of strength and determination in the course of the saga, the struggles of Lana and her daughter in this regard are perhaps the greatest examples.

About the Author: Born in Israel in 1953, Nily Naiman grew up among Holocaust survivors and their children. Israel of the 1950s was a confused mix of conflicting cultures, traditions, and tragic personal histories all grating against each other in a new society struggling to define itself.
