There are so many different Religions practiced in the world today. There are many that we are not even aware exist. To each Religion there are many points of view, some of these points of view have been research and studied for years by many great scholars. Although there are various perspectives, each is entitled to their own, and there is no right or wrong way of thinking when it comes to religion. Each religion has different beliefs, practices and traditions that make them unique and interesting. One religion that is particularly engaging is that of the Indigenous peoples.

Rethinking Islam in Europe Zekirija Sejdini, 2022-01-19 Islamic theology had to wait a long time before being granted a place in the European universities That happened above all in German speaking areas and this led to the development of new theological and religious pedagogical approaches This volume presents one such approach and discusses it from various perspectives It takes up different theological and religious pedagogical themes and reflects on them anew from the perspective of the contemporary context The primary focus is on contemporary challenges and possible answers from the perspective of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy It discusses general themes like the location of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy at secular European universities The volume also explores concrete challenges such as the extent to which Islamic religious pedagogy can be conceptualised anew how it should deal with its own theological tradition in the contemporary context and how a positive attitude towards worldview and religious plurality can be cultivated At issue here are foundations of a new interpretation of Islam that takes into account both a reflective approach to the Islamic tradition and the contemporary context In doing so it gives Muslims the opportunity to take their own thinking further *Science of Religion. Literature, Ethics, Morality: American Studies Perspectives

Ridvan Askin, Philipp Schweighauser, 2015-10-28 This timely volume explores a wealth of North American literary texts that engage with moral and ethical dilemmas. It ranges from William Dean Howells's and Henry James's realist novels to Edward Sapir's intermedial poems and from John Muir's unpublished letters and journal of his 1893 tour of the Swiss Alps to Rudy Wiebe's A Discovery of Strangers and the poetry of Robert Lowell. Many of the contributions also critically engage with and reflect on some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theoretical debates about ethics such as Ludwig Wittgenstein, Jürgen Habermas, Emmanuel Levinas, Axel Honneth, Hannah Arendt, John Rawls, and Julia Kristeva. This volume thus aptly covers the panoply of contemporary ethical and moral interventions while at the same time providing distinctively American Studies perspectives.

Religious transformations: Forms of Religious Communities in Global Society; Political Contributions of Ancestral Cosmologies and the Decolonization of Religious Beliefs; Esoteric Tradition as Poetic Invention. 3. Focus on the individual: Religion and Life Trajectories of Islamists; Angels, Animals, and Religious Change in Antiquity and Today; Gaining Access to the Radically Unfamiliar in Today's Religion; Religion between Individuals and Collectives. 4. Narrating religion: Entangled Knowledge, Cultures, and the Creation of Religions in Mongolia and Europe; Global Intellectual History and the Dynamics of Religion; On Representing Judaism.

An Epistemology of Religion and Gender Ulrike E. Auga, 2020-03-26 This book puts forward a new epistemological framework for a theory of religion and gender's role in the public sphere. It provides a sophisticated understanding of gender and its relation to religion as a primarily performative category of knowledge production, rooting that understanding in case studies from around the world. Gender and religion are examined alongside biopolitics and the influence of capitalism, neoliberalism, and empire. The book analyses the interdependence of religion, gender, and new nationalisms in the Palestinian territories, South Africa, and the USA, scrutinising the biopolitical interferences of nation-states and dominant political and religious institutions. It then moves on to uncover counter-discourses and spaces of activism and agency in contexts such as East Germany and the Occupy Wall Street movement. Using gender, queer, and trans theory in tandem with postcolonial and post-secular perspectives, readers are shown a more nuanced understanding of critical contemporary questions related to religion, gender, and sexuality. This is a bold new take on religion, gender, and public life. As such, it will be of keen interest to scholars of Religious Studies and Gender Studies, as well as those working on religion's interaction with Politics, Sociology, and Social Activism.
