The Genius of Erasmus Darwin

Christopher Upham Murray Smith, Robert Arnott, 2005 The Genius of Erasmus Darwin provides insight into the full extent of Erasmus Darwin's exceptional intellect. He is shown to be a major creative thinker and innovator, one of the minds behind the late eighteenth-century industrial revolution and one of the first if not the first to perceive the living world including humans as part of a unified evolutionary scenario. The contributions here provide contextual understandings of Erasmus Darwin's thought as well as studies of particular works and accounts of the later reception of his writings. In this way it is possible to see why the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge was moved to describe Darwin as the first literary character in Europe and the most original minded man Erasmus Darwin. Charles Darwin's grandfather was one of the leading intellectuals of eighteenth-century England. He was a man with an extraordinary range of interests and activities: he was a doctor, biologist, inventor, poet, linguist, and botanist. He was also a founding member of the Lunar Society, an intellectual community that included such eminent men as James Watt and Josiah Wedgwood. A New Dictionary of Eponyms, Brain, Mind and Medicine: Harry Whitaker, C.U.M. Smith, Stanley Finger, 2007-10-27 No books have been published on the practice of neuroscience in the eighteenth century, a time of transition and discovery in science and medicine. This volume explores neuroscience and reviews developments in anatomy, physiology, and medicine in the era some call the Age of Reason and others the Enlightenment. Topics include how neuroscience adopted electricity as the nerve force, how disorders such as aphasia and hysteria were treated, Mesmerism, and more. Minds Behind the Brain Stanley Finger, 2004-12-30 Traces the study of the brain from the ancient Egyptians through the classical world of Hippocrates, the time of Descartes, and the era of Broca to modern researchers such as Sperry and examines their sources and tools.
