Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E. Carranza, Fernando Luiz Lara, 2015-01-05 Designed as a survey and focused on key examples and movements arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this is the first comprehensive history of modern architecture in Latin America in any language Runner up University Co op Robert W Hamilton Book Award 2015 Modern Architecture in Latin America Art Technology and Utopia is an introductory text on the issues polemics and works that represent the complex processes of political economic and cultural modernization in the twentieth century The number and types of projects varied greatly from country to country but as a whole the region produced a significant body of architecture that has never before been presented in a single volume in any language Modern Architecture in Latin America is the first comprehensive history of this important production Designed as a survey and focused on key examples paradigms arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this volume covers a myriad of countries historical social and political conditions and projects developments that range from small houses to urban plans to architectural movements The book is structured so that it can be read in a variety of ways as a historically developed narrative of modern architecture in Latin America as a country specific chronology or as a treatment of traditions centered on issues of art technology or utopia This structure allows readers to see the development of multiple and parallel branches historical strands of architecture and at times their interconnections across countries The authors provide a critical evaluation of the movements presented in relationship to their overall goals and architectural transformations

Medellín: environment urbanism society Michel Hermelin Arboux, Alejandro Echeverri Restrepo, Jorge Giraldo, 2012-01-01 In recent times what has become known as the case of Medell n has generated a growing interest in the international community These urban transformation that Medell n has experimented have become a focus of attention and reference for experts in many fields around the world The book Medellin Environment Urbanism and Society that now published the Center for Urban and Environmental Studies Urbam of EAFIT University is a testimony of the value given by our culture to the accomplishments of the city to the idea of the public sphere and the growing relationship between the technical sphere and the political sphere understood in the broad sense as a form of disciplinary knowledge and construction of civil society This book brings together a knowledge of the city from multiple perspectives knowledge that is without any doubt impressive for its extension and profundity as well as for its capacity to combine objective data with conceptual reflections about the scope and impact of the different perspectives concerning the theme of urban transformation and the different actors that have participated in such processes The book weaves a broad net over the city its history and development adopting a multidisciplinary vision I think that this will be the first step in creating a speech that might finally liberate itself from the strict disciplinary boundaries building a trans disciplinary perspective that can amplify the urban dimension of the city This is the beginning of a profound and complex reflection that is at the same time a project of knowledge and an instrument of action and participation A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942

,1942 Colombia Sarah Woods,Richard McColl,2015-09-01 This guide to Colombia reflects the resurgence of the country among travellers following years of lawlessness With a strong focus on the country s cultural attractions it will appeal to
