Lunch With Jan Wong:

Lunch With Jan Wong, 2011-12-14 Many people have predicted that she'll never eat lunch in this town again. But as Lunch With proves each week there's always another unsuspecting celebrity ready to break bread with columnist Jan Wong. Now's your chance to dine with her while she dishes, disses, and dissects the likes of Suzanne Somers, Jeffrey Archer, Margaret Trudeau, Dr. Ruth, Preston Manning, Atom Egoyan, Don Cherry, Margaret Atwood, Mordecai Richler, Bryan Adams, Sarah Polley, Eartha Kitt, Helen Gurley Brown, and many more in sixty of her funniest, most trenchant, often barbed, and occasionally moving Lunch With columns. With an introduction on the lunching phenomenon, some appetizing background on arranging the interviews, and for dessert, some reactions from readers and guests, this compilation is a deliciously wicked treat from start to finish.

Jan Wong's China Jan Wong, 2011-01-28 As the fiftieth anniversary of the People's Republic of China approaches on October 1, 1999, Jan Wong reflects on her body of work as a foreign correspondent there. Despite the fact that everything is changing, she discovers that not much really changes, and what she wrote several years ago about love, work, and living still holds, as do the conflicts over who rules, who survives, and who gets the bigger slice of Peking Duck. From a peasant tax revolt through the new consumerism, ads on television, to the closeted world of Chinese gays, Jan Wong's China is a highly personal account of a country in transition. Its perspective is shaped by the author's six-year reporting stint, her life in Beijing in the 70s as a student and a Maoist, and her return visit to China in the spring of 1999. Employing humour and behind-the-scenes detail, Jan Wong brilliantly weaves her adventures into a rich journalistic tapestry.

Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan, 2009-01-01 In Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace, Yihong Pan tells her personal story and the story of her generation of urban middle school graduates sent to the countryside during China's Rustication Movement. Based on interviews, reminiscences, diaries, letters, and newspaper accounts, the work examines the varied and often perplexing experiences of the seventeen million Chinese students sent to work in the countryside between 1953 and 1980. Rich in human drama, Pan's book illustrates how life in the countryside transformed the children of Mao from innocent, ignorant, yet often passionate believers in the Communist Party into independent adults. Those same adults would go on to lead the nationwide protests in the winter of 1978-1979 that forced the government to abandon its policy of rustication. Richly textured, this work successfully blends biography with a wealth of historical insight to bring to life the trials of a generation and to offer Chinese studies scholars a fascinating window into Mao Zedong's China. Book jacket.

Hunger Susan Musgrave, 2025-08-19 From Griffin Poetry Prize finalist Susan Musgrave, author of more than thirty-five books, comes Hunger, works selected from Musgrave's last four books with an introduction by Micheline Maylor. The Bad Wife, Little Wildheart, and a humorous and thoughtful after-essay by Musgrave herself about the breadth of her literary career. This volume features poems written since the death of Musgrave's husband, the award-winning memoirist Stephen Reid, and showcases Musgrave's signature blend of ribaldry, wit, and the big questions about life, love, rebellion, and aging. A visceral and hearty collection of poems and an examination of the feminine principle in the first two decades of the 21st century this selected volume is a tribute to Musgrave's long career and literary wisdom

Jan Wong has returned to Beijing Her quest to find someone she encountered briefly in 1973 and whose life she was certain

she had ruined forever In the early 1970s Jan Wong became one of only two Westerners permitted to study at Beijing University One day a young stranger Yin Luoyi asked for help in getting to America Wong then a starry eyed Maoist immediately reported her to the authorities and Yin disappeared Wong chronicled that brief meeting in her bestselling book Red China Blues Now a decade after Red China Blues and thirty four years after that fateful encounter Jan Wong revisits the Chinese capital to begin her search for the woman who has haunted her conscience She wants to apologize to somehow make amends At the very least she wants to discover whether Yin survived Emotionally powerful and rich with detail Beijing Confidential weaves together three distinct stories Wong s journey from remorse to redemption Yin s journey from disgrace to respectability and Beijing s stunning journey from communism to capitalism Canadian Books in Print. Belling the Cat Mordecai Richler,2010-10-22 More than forty years of scribble scribble scribble and I have been sued only once But this collection of essays is no less a pleasure to read for all that Mordecai Richler is an exuberant essayist with a combative wit and sharp eye regularly offending some endearing himself mightily to others and always hugely entertaining Like all great satirists he is passionate about the world in which we live it s that appetite for life and friendship his love of sanity and common sense as much as his hatred of sacred cows that lies at the heart of this irresistible book Red China Blues (reissue) Jan Wong,2011-02-04 Jan Wong a Canadian of Chinese descent went to China as a starry eyed Maoist in 1972 at the height of the Cultural Revolution A true believer and one of only two Westerners permitted to enroll at Beijing University her education included wielding a pneumatic drill at the Number One Machine Tool Factory In the name of the Revolution she renounced rock and roll hauled pig manure in the paddy fields and turned in a fellow student who sought her help in getting to the United States She also met and married the only American draft dodger from the Vietnam War to seek asylum in China Red China Blues begins as Wong s startling and ironic memoir of her rocky six year romance with Maoism that began to sour as she became aware of the harsh realities of Chinese communism and led to her eventual repatriation to the West Returning to China in the late eighties as a journalist she covered both the brutal Tiananmen Square crackdown and the tumultuous era of capitalist reforms under Deng Xiaoping In a wry absorbing and often surreal narrative she relates the horrors that led to her disillusionment with the worker s paradise And through the stories of the people an unhappy young woman who was sold into marriage China s most famous dissident a doctor who lengthens penises Wong creates an extraordinary portrait of the world's most populous nation. In setting out to show readers in the Western world what life is like in China and why we should care, Wong reacquaints herself with the old friends and enemies of her radical past and comes to terms with the legacies of her ancestral homeland. Pierre Berton Brian McKillop, 2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author. From his northern childhood on, it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920-2004 was different from his peers. Over the course of his eighty-four years, he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers, magazines, radio, television and books, sometimes all at once. Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century, winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others, along with a dozen honorary degrees. Throughout it all, Berton was larger than life, full of verve and ideas; he approached everything he did with passion, humour and an insatiable curiosity. He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use. A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization, he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it. But he had his critics too, and some considered him egocentric and mean-spirited. Now, with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and The Prophet, Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence. The result is a comprehensive, vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures.

Mordecai Charles Foran, 2010-10-19 Foran's book is the first major biography with access to family letters and archives, the definitive, detailed, intimate portrait of Mordecai Richler, the lion of Canadian literature and the turbulent, changing times that nurtured him. It is also an extraordinary love story that lasted half a century. Mordecai Richler won multiple Governor General's Literary Awards, the Giller Prize, the Commonwealth Writers Prize, among others, as well as many awards for his children's books. He also wrote Oscar-nominated screenplays. His influence was larger than life in Canada and abroad. In Mordecai, award-winning novelist and journalist Charles Foran brings to the page the richness of Mordecai's life as young bohemian, irreverent writer, passionate and controversial Canadian, loyal friend and deeply romantic lover. He explores Mordecai's distraught childhood and gives us the portrait of a marriage, the lifelong love affair with Florence, with Mordecai as beloved father of five. The portrait is alive and intimate, warts and all. Acting the Right Part Xiaomei Chen, 2002-01-31 Acting the Right Part is a cultural history of huaju, modern Chinese drama, from 1966 to 1996. Xiaomei Chen situates her study both in the context of Chinese literary and cultural history and in the context of comparative drama and theater cultural studies and critical issues relevant to national theater worldwide. Following a discussion of the marginality of modern Chinese drama in relation to other genres, periods and cultures, early chapters focus on the dynamic relationship between theater and revolution.
