Lure Of The Forest Oral Histories From The National Forests In California:

The Lure of the Forest ,2005 The Lure of the Forest Victor Geraci,2005 This oral history project brought together a group that encompassed the talents of numerous Forest Service professionals retirees volunteers the UC Berkeley Regional Oral History Office ROHO In preparation for the Forest Service s 100th anniversary retirees conducted over 50 oral interviews from selected members of the region s past workforce ROHO employees then selected interview segments lightly edited them for publication The stories of these interviewees are synthesized into sections based on common recurring themes that reflect how these past employees remembered their service to the forests From their stories established historiographic sources this brief history emerged Photos The Lure of the Forest ,2005 For the Forest Service s 100 anniversary Region Five retirees established an oral history committee They then conducted over fifty oral interviews from selected members of the regions past workforce Wine By Design Victor W. Geraci,2020-03-18 From its eighteenth century beginnings the Santa Barbara wine industry achieved success by embracing a wine by design model In this process farmers winemakers and entrepreneurs overcome roadblocks like diseases government policies and regulations and environmental concerns by utilizing the latest technological advances coupled with agribusiness capitalism As the American demand for premium wine grapes intensified in the late twentieth century the Northern California wine industry rapidly grew its boutique and innovative local designer winemaking to increase profit to meet demand and compete on a global scale Set in the context of the regional national and global wine community this story illuminates a regional story of how the Santa Barbara wine industry found solutions to current market conditions while utilizing local traditions to develop a new version of local wine terroir An accomplishment that allowed them to compete in the global marketplace yet develop highly specialized wine that is unique to the region By employing leading edge technology and entrepreneurship the California Central Coast region of Santa Barbara became a model for the American vision of agricultural innovation and an integral part of the international wine trade developing a personalized version of local wine terroir The Forest Service Gerald W. Williams,2006-11-30 Established in 1905 The Forest Service is steeped in history conflict strong personalities including Theodore Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot and the challenges of managing 193 million acres of national forests and grasslands This unique federal agency is one that combines forest management with wildlife fish recreation mining grazing and hundreds of other uses It operates in the midst of controversy and change The original intent was to protect the public forests protect the water supplies and when appropriate provide timber Much has changed over the last 100 years including many new laws but the fact that these lands are still fought over today shows the foresight of politicians foresters scientists and communities This work brings to light the many and varied activities of the agency that many people know little about in a world that is constantly changing Written by a former Forest Service national historian topics discussed in the work include wilderness and the Wilderness Act of 1964 recreation battles and interagency rivalry with the National Park Service timber management including clearcutting ecosystem management roadless area and controversies over RARE and RARE II studies fish and wildlife management including endangered species before and after the Endangered Species Act of 1973 and mining and the General Mining Act of 1872 It also discusses the future challenges forest fires water protection and restoration recreation involving the public and fish and wildlife

Between Two Fires Stephen J. Pyne, 2015-10-15 From a fire policy of prevention at all costs to today's restored burning Between Two Fires is America's history channeled through the story of wildland fire management Stephen J. Pyne tells of a fire revolution that began in the 1960s as a reaction to simple suppression and single agency hegemony and then matured into more enlightened programs of fire management It describes the counterrevolution of the 1980s that stalled the movement the revival of reform after 1994 and the fire scene that has evolved since then Pyne is uniquely qualified to tell America's fire story The author of more than a score of books he has told fire's history in the United States Australia Canada Europe and the Earth overall In his earlier life he spent fifteen seasons with the North Rim Longshots at Grand Canyon National Park In Between Two Fires Pyne recounts how after the Great Fires of 1910 a policy of fire suppression spread from America's founding corps of foresters into a national policy that manifested itself as a costly all out war on fire After fifty years of attempted fire suppression a revolution in thinking led to a more pluralistic strategy for fire's restoration The revolution succeeded in displacing suppression as a sole strategy but it has failed to fully integrate fire and land management and has fallen short of its goals Today the nation's backcountry and increasingly its exurban fringe are threatened by larger and more damaging burns fire agencies are scrambling for funds firefighters continue to die and the country seems unable to come to grips with the fundamentals behind a rising tide of megafires Pyne has once again constructed a history of record that will shape our next century of fire management Between Two Fires is a story of ideas institutions and fires It's America's story told through the nation's flames

California Stephen J. Pyne, 2016-03-31 By its size fire intensity and institutional responses California has long shaped the national agenda for wildland fire From its early days California decided for fire suppression How and why this happened is the subject of this fire reconnaissance of America's Golden State for fire Provided by publisher

Enchanted Summer Cynthia Mascott, 2007-06-15 A superb travel guide This book is what travel guides are supposed to be informative interesting and most of all fun Great research and the author's warm writing style make planning a leisurely holiday a pleasant experience. Great suggestions for romantic getaways but there's plenty here for the whole family if you really want to bring the kids. J. Seriena. This book made me ache for another visit to the Vineyard. The author captures the very essence of the Cape Cod shores and the Vineyard and Nantucket. And the charming illustrations add to the call of life at another pace and that life can truly be enjoyed. One B. It appears everyone and their mother is running an inn on the Massachusetts shore. Mascott lets us know how many rooms are available and how they're decorated if you'll have to share a bath, what the yard looks like and what to expect for food. The listings also rank prices ranging from two dollar signs for inns and hotels that cost less than 100 a night not too many of those to four dollar signs for 200 and up. The addition of Web and email addresses are helpful although most places don't have them. The restaurants also appear to be plentiful and Mascott has done some yummy research. Many of the listings include specific menu items that are good but others are as generic as traditional American food. There are a lot of historical tidbits in here, locations of the nice beaches, good places to ride bikes, where to shop etc. Pick up this book a few months ahead of your holiday and you'll be able to schedule every minute. Foreword Magazine. The print edition is 303 pages.

Backpacker, 2009-09. Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep, inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often. The authority on active adventure, Backpacker is the world's first GPS-enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails, camping gear, and survival tips they publish. Backpacker's Editors' Choice Awards, an industry honor recognizing design, feature, and product innovation, has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured.
