century informed how people felt towards the National Health Service memories of the Great Depression shaped arguments about state intervention in the economy Challenging accounts of widespread political disengagement in the twentieth century Politics of the Past shows how re telling family stories about the inter war period offered ordinary people an accessible way of engaging in politics Drawing on six local case studies across Scotland and England this book explains how stories about the inter war working class experience in industrial areas came to appear commonplace nationwide Forging War Mark Thompson,1999 A fascinating study of the manipulation of the media in the former Yugoslavia The New York Times This study of the political manipulation of the media in Serbia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina before and during the war argues that political struggles for media control are early warnings of war and a form of preparation for it Air Transport Auxiliary at War Stephen Wynn,2021-03-23 This book looks at the invaluable work carried out by members of the Air Transport Auxiliary during the course of the Second World War Comprised of both men and women it was a civilian organization tasked with the collection and delivery of military aircraft from the factories to the RAF and Royal Navy stations Men who undertook the role had to be exempt from having to undertake war time military service due to health or age but other than that there were very few restrictions on who who could join which accounted for one legged one armed one eyed and short sighted pilots being accepted Initially it was only men who were allowed to carry out this service but by December 1939 British authorities were persuaded by Pauline Gower the daughter of Sir Robert Vaughan Gower a wartime Conservative MP and an accomplished pilot in her own right to establish a women s section of the Air Transport Auxiliary of which she was put in charge The first eight women were accepted in to the service but it would not be until 1943 that its male and female members received the same pay By the end of the war 147 different types of aircraft had been flown by the men and women of the Air Transport Auxiliary including Spitfire fighter aircraft and Lancaster bombers These brave pilots were not just British but came from 28 Commonwealth and neutral countries and their efforts sometimes came at a price 174 Air Transport Auxiliary pilots both men and women died during the war whilst flying for the service Burke's Handbook to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire A. The Depot for Prisoners of War at Norman Cross Huntingdonshire, 1796 to 1816 Thomas James Walker, 1913 War Crimes M.J. Trow, 2008-10-31 The Second World War was a defining experience in British history It shaped us made us what we are and we are still fascinated by it And one of the most extraordinary aspects of this unique war was the effect it had on crime and this is the focus of M J Trow s compelling survey He does not write solely about servicemen who committed crime although there were many of them and he does not celebrate heroes On the contrary his account highlights the un heroic the weak and the corrupt And it draws attention to something perhaps uniquely British the will of the people to cope be it housewives with rationing the police with the black market or magistrates all too aware that careless talk costs lives The war may have been Britain s finest hour but during it there were many dark moments which M J Trow explores in his intriguing study A Companion to the War Film Douglas A. Cunningham, John C. Nelson, 2016-04-15 A Companion to the War Film contains 27 original essays that examine all aspects of the genre from the traditional war film to the new global nature of conflicts and the diverse formats that war stories assume in today s digital culture Includes new works from experienced and emerging scholars that expand the scope of the genre by applying fresh theoretical approaches and archival resources to the study of the war film Moves beyond the limited confines of the combat film to cover home front films international and foreign language films and a range of conflicts and time periods Addresses complex questions of gender race forced internment international terrorism and war protest in films such as Full Metal Jacket Good Kill Grace is Gone Gran Torino The Messenger Snow Falling on Cedars So Proudly We Hail Tae Guk Gi The Brotherhood of War Tender Comrade and Zero Dark Thirty Provides a nuanced vision of war film that brings the genre firmly into the 21st Century and points the way for exciting future scholarship Football's Great War Alexander Jackson, 2022-04-06 As modern football grapples with the implications of a global crisis this book looks at first in the game s history The First World War The game s structure and fabric faced existential challenges as fundamental questions were asked about its place and value in English society This study explores how conflict reshaped the People s Game on the English Home Front The wartime seasons saw football s entire commercial model challenged and questioned In 1915 the FA banned the payment of players reopening a decades old dispute between the game s early amateur values and its modern links to the world of capital and lucrative entertainment Wartime football forced supporters to consider whether the game should continue and if so in what form Using an array of previously unused sources and images this book explores how players administrators and fans grappled with these questions as daily life was continually reshaped by the demands of total war From grassroots to elite football players to spectators gambling to charity work this study examines the social economic and cultural impact of what became Football s Great War

Baptists and War Gordon L Heath, 2015-07-30 While Baptists through the years have been certain that war is hell they have not always been able to agree on how to respond to it This book traces much of this troubled relationship from the days of Baptist origins with close ties to pacifist Anabaptists to the responses of Baptists in America to the Vietnam War Essays also include discussions of the English Baptist Andrew Fuller s response to the threat of Napoleon how Baptists in America dealt with the War of 1812 the support of Canadian Baptists for Britain s war in Sudan and Abyssinia in the 1880s the decisive effect of the First World War on Canada s T T Shields the response of Australian Baptists to the Second World War and how Russian Baptists dealt with the Cold War These chapters provide important analyses of Baptist reactions to various manifestations of one of society s most intractable problems
