

A woman with long brown hair in a ponytail, wearing a black cap and sunglasses, is seen from the back, holding a fishing rod. She is standing on a grassy bank overlooking a body of water under a dramatic sunset sky with orange and yellow clouds. The overall mood is serene and romantic.

Lydias Passion:

Finding Lydia B.H. Arias, 2013-03-08 Lightly based on a true story a trip through one man's descent into insanity as he attempts to come to grips with the gorgeous ghost who has invaded his mind and will not let him go A tale told in a loosely connected poetic and romantic style during several deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan in diary like vignettes as the author struggles to define this Love wrapped within the folds of a paranormal romance Time and the Erotic in Horace's Odes Ronnie Ancona, 1994 Rejecting both the notion that Horace fails as a love poet because he undermines the romantic ideal that love conquers time and the notion that he succeeds because he eschews illusions about love's ability to endure this book challenges the assumption that temporality must inevitably pose a threat to the erotic The author argues that temporality understood as the contingency the male poet lover wants to but cannot control explains why love fails in Horace's Odes

Godstruck! Ian Wood, 2019-06-02 It might surprise many people to learn that the USA is in its grass roots just as fundamentalist a nation as is any Islamic republic Passionate religious fervor drives at least forty percent of the electorate and through it faith is striving to push back hard won freedoms on every front Belief is working to defeat or contain advances in so many areas including scientific research and medicine What if in this blinkered horse race the reins were lost and in the future through one blunder after another the USA became even more deeply invested in fundamentalism It's already on the way of late When blind and power hungry people adorn themselves with the raiment of gods it's ordinary everyday people whose lives become Hell This is the story of someone in the not too distant future who fought that good fight
