Lynda Benglis, Louise Bourgeois Lynda Benglis,Robert Pincus-Witten,2007 Lynda Benglis Ellen Robinson,2016 Since the 1960s Lynda Benglis born 1941 has been celebrated for the free ecstatic forms she has poured thrown and molded in ceramic latex polyurethane and bronze In her new work documented in this volume she turns to handmade paper which she wraps around a chicken wire armature often painting the sand toned surface in bright metallic colors offset by strokes of deep coal based black At other times she leaves the paper virtually bare These works reflect the environment in which they were made the sere and windblown landscape of Santa Fe New Mexico as Nancy Princenthal writes in her essay It is possible to see the bleached bones of the land its mesas and arroyos its scatterings of shed snakeskins and animal skeletons in the new sculptures combination of strength and delicacy Simultaneously playful and visceral these works enter into a lively dialogue with Benglis previous explorations of materials and form Lynda Benglis Lynda Benglis,1990 Lynda Benglis Andrew Bonacina,Nora Lawrence,Bibiana Obler,2022 The definitive monograph on American sculptor and visual artist Lynda Benglis one of the most important living artists today Since her arrival in New York from her native Louisiana in the late 1960s Lynda Benglis gained recognition for creating a groundbreaking body of work that challenged sculpture and painting conventions in a largely male dominated art world A tireless explorer of new shape and materials Benglis s gestural and formal approach to art making has over the years elevated her to iconic status her work being evidence of how process can wield pliant matter and let it take its own form
