Dunbar's work was praised by William Dean Howells a leading editor associated with the Harper's Weekly and Dunbar was one of the first African American writers to establish an international reputation. He wrote the lyrics for the musical comedy In Dahomey 1903 the first all African American musical produced on Broadway in New York. The musical later toured in the United States and the United Kingdom. Dunbar also wrote in conventional English in other poetry and novels. Since the late 20th century scholars have become more interested in these other works. Suffering from tuberculosis which then had no cure Dunbar died in Dayton at the age of 33.

Early life Paul Laurence Dunbar was born at 311 Howard Street in Dayton Ohio on June 27 1872 to parents who had been enslaved in Kentucky before the American Civil War. After being emancipated his mother Matilda had moved to Dayton with other family members including her two sons Robert and William from her first marriage. Dunbar's father Joshua had escaped from slavery in Kentucky before the war ended. He traveled to Massachusetts and volunteered for the 55th Massachusetts Infantry Regiment one of the first two black units to serve in the war. The senior Dunbar also served in the 5th Massachusetts Cavalry Regiment. Paul Dunbar was born six months after Joshua and Matilda married on Christmas Eve 1871. The marriage of Dunbar's parents was troubled and Dunbar's mother left Joshua soon after having their second child a daughter. Joshua died on August 16 1885. Paul was then 12 years old. Dunbar wrote his first poem at the age of six and gave his first public recital at the age of nine. His mother assisted him in his schooling having learned to read expressly for that purpose. She often read the Bible with him and thought he might become a minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. It was the first independent black denomination in America founded in Philadelphia in the early 19th century. Dunbar was the only African American student during his years at Central High School in Dayton. Orville Wright was a classmate and friend. Well accepted he was elected as president of the school's literary society and became the editor of the school newspaper and a member of the debate club.
