Revolution in Paradise Yehuda Moraly,2019-11-01 The era of the German Occupation of France constituted surprisingly a golden age for the arts literature theater popular music and cinema These works of art seem to be devoid of political impact The widespread trend of unrealistic and fantastic art during this period is explained by some scholars as the artists escape from the omnipotent eye of German censorship The purpose of the book is to show that contrary to the accepted view some of these films were intimately linked to the political situation They convey the demonization of characters that while not specifically presented as Jews nevertheless manifested anti Semitic stereotypes of the Jew as ugly rootless low hypocritical immoral cruel and power hungry All five movies analysed Les Inconnus dans la maison dir Henri Decoin 1942 Les Visiteurs du Soir dir Marcel Carne 1942 L Eternel retour dir Jean Delannoy 1943 Les Enfants du Paradis dir Marcel Carne 1943 present characters not identified as Jews but who exhibit negative Jewish traits in contrast to the aristocratic characters whom they aspire to emulate They demonstrate implicitly central themes of explicit anti Semitic propaganda Yehuda Moraly addresses two current major misconceptions regarding the Cinema of Occupied France 1 that the accepted view that there were almost no explicitly Jewish characters in the cinema of that time and place is patently incorrect and 2 that the feature films of Occupied France were not as it is commonly thought free of the propaganda messages that permeated the press the radio and documentary films Analysis of these films brings out the contradictory nature of European anti Semitism On one hand the Jew is the anti Christ throttling the world with disgusting materialism while on the other hand he is representative of an ancestral stifling morality which it is time to abolish , The Social Architecture of French Cinema, 1929-1939 Margaret C.
