Farmersburg-McGregor Project, Clayton County, Iowa Dallas Eugene Perfect, Donald Ackley Sheetz, 1942 Farmers of this section of Iowa were given an opportunity to combat further loss of soil by cooperating with a soil and water conservation demonstration project established by the Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture in the fall of 1935 Thackeray's Cultural Frame of Reference R. McMaster, 1991-02-01 McMaster has made an extensive identification and detailed study of the many kinds of allusions to be found in The Newcomes There are allusions to classical foreign language and English literature as well as to the Bible fables theatre opera popular songs nursery rhymes newspapers art English and French history and the topography of London These allusions saturate the text of The Newcomes and appeal to several different readerships McMaster specifies what Thackeray's contemporaries would have recognized and responded to and suggests interactions between the text and its readers The cultural density of The Newcomes is identified by McMaster as textual intertextual and to a degree parodic He shows that Thackeray exploited the dynamics of allusion through doubleness and ironic juxtaposition to achieve several ends Not only does Thackeray present an archetypal and cyclical vision of life he questions the status and value of diverse fictions and blurs the traditional distinctions between fiction and history originality and convention and nature and artifice In his account of allusion McMaster has used a simple and straightforward style avoiding unnecessary jargon and cumbersome definitions Thackeray's Cultural Frame of Reference reveals a Thackeray particularly amenable to a post modern and especially to an intertextual approach to literature
