Major Foreign Powers:

Governments of the Major Foreign Powers Military Academy, West Point, 1945 The Governments of the Major Foreign Powers United States Military Academy. Department of Economics, Government, and History, 1941 Foreign Powers and Intervention in Armed Conflicts Aysegul Aydin, 2012-07-11 Intervention in armed conflicts is full of riddles that await attention from scholars and policymakers This book argues that rethinking intervention redefining what it is and why foreign powers take an interest in others conflicts is of critical importance to understanding how conflicts evolve over time with the entry and exit of external actors It does this by building a new model of intervention that crosses the traditional boundaries between economics international relations theory and security studies and places the economic interests and domestic political institutions of external states at the center of intervention decisions Combining quantitative and qualitative evidence from both historical and contemporary conflicts including interventions in both interstate conflicts and civil wars it presents an in depth discussion of a range of interventions diplomatic economic and military in a variety of international contexts creating a comprehensive model for future research on the topic Civil Wars and Foreign Powers Patrick M. Regan, 2000 Explores how outside intervention affects the course of civil wars Foreign Policies of the Major Powers Lloyd Pettiford, Owen Worth, Phoebe Moore, Pauline Eadie, Christopher White, 2007-04-15 For those who need a rapid yet thorough understanding of the foreign policies of the major powers these volumes which cover the USA Soviet Union and present day Russia China Japan and the EU form a comprehensive account of the major debates and developments of the world s major powers U.S. Commitments to Foreign Powers United States. The Governments of Great Britain, France, the Soviet Union, and China ... Under the General Editorship of Benjamin F. Wright. [With a Bibliography.]. John Calyer RANNEY (and CARTER (Gwendolen Margaret)), Gwendolen Margaret Carter, Benjamin Fletcher WRIGHT, 1949 The Dynamics of Economic and Political Relations Between Africa and Foreign Powers Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 1999-01-30 International relations at large and Africa s in particular are shaped by the actors historical location by what they offer economically and culturally and by who they are socially In international relations nations tend to deal with objective conditions as they are or as they are perceived However Lumumba Kasongo demonstrates through case studies of Liberia and Zaire Congo that what the objective conditions are may not necessarily be what they ought to be in the national development process The international struggle for power between the West and the East and their supportive brutal and oppressive states in the South especially in Africa created the extremely weak conditions that redefined international relations as the tools of domination rather than the tools of understanding and cooperation As Lumumba Kasongo clarifies Africa did not gain economically or developmentally from this struggle An important work for scholars and researchers of contemporary Africa and international relations in general
