Major Poets of the Earlier Seventeenth Century: Donne, Herbert, Vaughan, Crashaw, Jonson, Herrick, Marvell Barbara Kiefer Lewalski, Andrew J. Sabol, 1973 There have been many Golden Ages in the English literary tradition but none has surpassed in intensity variety and technical brilliance the early years of the seventeenth century This was the age which brought the ideals of the reformation to full fruition and witnessed both the advent of the new science and the planting of the seed of the democratic spirits Surprisingly these international currents merged felicitously with the poetic and musical impulse to produce a remarkable florescence of lyric poetry giving brilliant expression to the newly perceived interconnection between the divine and mundane worlds The editors of this volume have brought together the work of seven poets who in their opinion are true luminaries in the age of brilliance Each poet is presented in an extensive repertory of his works which in most instances includes his chief poetic volume edited in toto surrounded by generous selections from companion works Publisher
