Major Danes Garden:

Major Dane's Garden Margery Perham,1926      Margery Perham and British Rule in Africa Mary Bull,Alison Smith,2013-12-02 Margery Perham was an outstanding influence on official and academic thinking on British Colonial rule and decolonization in Africa during the middle part of the century The book traces how the Second World War transformed her view of colonial rule and of the rate at which it would have to be relinquished      A.L.A. Booklist ,1927      The Booklist ,1927      Imagined States Baxter Katherine Isobel Baxter,2019-12-05 Imagined States examines representations of the law in British and Nigerian high brow middle brow and popular fiction and journalism Drawing on a rich range of examples the book focuses on the imaginative role that the state of exception played in the application of indirect rule during British colonialism and in the legal machinations of the postcolonial state It reads works by Chinua Achebe Joyce Cary Cyprian Ekwensi and Edgar Wallace together with a range of Nigerian market literature and journalism      Bulletin [Accessions to the Library] Mercantile Library Association (New York, N.Y.),1924      The New A-Z of Empire C. Brad Faught,2011-05-30 The British Empire especially in its late Victorian heyday spanned the world and linked a quarter of world s population to Britain through a shared official allegiance to the Crown In the long history of empires the British imperial state was among the most powerful ever and a major global player A New A Z of Empire catches the current burgeoning interest in empires and covers over 400 years of British imperial history from the founding of the East India Company in 1600 to the First and Second British Empires the time of High Empire following the War of American Independence the unprecedented expansion of the Scramble for Africa the development of Dominion Status and the history often turbulent of decolonization and the growth of Commonwealth The 400 plus entries include a rich panoply of individuals territories treaties politics the law diplomacy war and peace administration business and commerce exploration literature art literature and scholarship Readers will find a mine of fascinating factual information in concise form with expert historical assessment cross referencing between entries and suggestions for further reading The valuable time line is essential to pick through the long period of complex history and links to key web resources are provided A New A Z of Empire is an indispensable tool for the scholar and student and for the general reader interested in the rich history of the British Empire a story of obscure foundation leading to dominance over a huge swathe of the globe now represented by mere pinpricks on the world map      Imperialism, Race and Resistance Barbara Bush,2002-01-04 Imperialism Race and Resistance marks an important new development in the study of British and imperial interwar history Focusing on Britain West Africa and South Africa Imperialism Race and Resistance charts the growth of anti colonial resistance and opposition to racism in the prelude to the post colonial era The complex nature of imperial power in explored as well as its impact on the lives and struggles of black men and women in Africa and the African diaspora Barbara Bush argues that tensions between white dreams of power and black dreams of freedom were seminal in transofrming Britain s relationship with Africa in an era bounded by global war and shaped by ideological conflict      Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal ,1926      The Spectator ,1925 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art      Erased Patricia Owens,2025-03-11 How a field built on the intellectual labor and expertise of women erased them The academic field of international relations presents its own history as largely a project of elite white men And yet women played a prominent role in the creation of this new cross disciplinary field In Erased Patricia Owens shows that since its beginnings in the early twentieth century international relations relied on the intellectual labour of women and their expertise on such subjects as empire and colonial administration anticolonial organising non Western powers and international organisations Indeed women were among the leading international thinkers of the era shaping the development of the field as scholars journalists and public intellectuals and as heterosexual spouses and intimate same sex partners Drawing on a wide range of archival sources and weaving together personal institutional and intellectual narratives Owens documents key moments and locations in the effort to forge international relations as a separate academic discipline in Britain She finds that women s ideas and influence were first marginalised and later devalued ignored and erased Examining the roles played by some of the most important women thinkers in the field including Margery Perham Merze Tate Eileen Power Margaret Cleeve Coral Bell and Susan Strange Owens traces the intellectual and institutional legacies of misogyny and racism She argues that the creation of international relations was a highly gendered and racialised project that failed to understand plurality on a worldwide scale Acknowledging this intellectual failure and recovering the history of women in the field points to possible sources for its renewal      Canadian Bookman ,1926      The Nation and Athenæum ,1925      The New Statesman ,1925      Public Outdoor Recreation Areas ,1962      Land Acquisition for Outdoor Recreation--analysis of Selected Legal Problems Norman Williams,1962      Into Africa C. Brad Faught,2011-11-30 In the long history of the British Empire there are few stories as singular as that of Margery Perham From the moment she first set foot on African soil in 1921 to her death over sixty years later Perham was focused on the ways and means of Britain s administration of its African empire She acquired an unrivalled expertise in all aspects of this branch of empire its systems of governance and those who administered them its economic impact its geo strategic implications and its effect on Africans including their sense of nationalism and attitudes towards the end of empire From the 1930s until the 1960s it is unlikely that anyone in the administrative apparatus of the British Empire and almost assuredly anyone in the world of academia had as nuanced an understanding of how Britain s African empire actually worked as did Margery Perham Her road into Africa led from British Somaliland in 1921 where she went to visit her sister the wife of a local British district commissioner From such beginnings was spawned a career at the centre of British governance of empire In 1928 as a Fellow of St Hugh s College Oxford she was awarded a travelling fellowship which she used to study colonial administration So long and thorough was her tour that she had to sacrifice her teaching post but so expert did she become in the subject that in 1935 Oxford appointed her research lecturer in the field and a few years later she was appointed the first official and only female Fellow of Nuffield

College For the next 30 years Perham delved deeply into every aspect of British Africa She was an adviser to the Colonial Office and became director of Oxford s Institute of Commonwealth Studies She wrote extensively and prolifically and publicly debated the future of Africa in the press As the era of African independence and decolonization began she advised newly independent governments about post colonial governance and corresponded with leading African nationalists Appointed DCMG in 1965 Dame Margery Perham died in 1982 Her life provides a unique window into the workings of the British Empire in Africa for most of the time it was fully operational In this new biography the first of its kind and based primarily on Perham s extensive private papers C Brad Faught tells her life story in all its richness while throwing fresh light on Britain s twentieth century imperial experience     African Gender Studies Oyeronke Oyewumi,2016-09-27 This is the first comprehensive reader that brings African experiences to bear on the ongoing global discussions of women gender and society Bringing together the essential writing on this topic from the last 25 years these essays discuss gender in Africa from a multi disciplinary perspective     Science and Exploration in the Pacific Margarette Lincoln,1998 This volume contains studies of scientific and cultural discoveries made on Cook s 1768 7 voyage to the South Sea in Endeavour and issues emerging from this and successive Pacific voyages     Catalog of Copyright Entries.
