Fear and What Follows Tim Parrish,2014-07-17 Fear and What Follows is a riveting unflinching account of the author s spiral into racist violence during the latter years of desegregation in 1960s and 1970s Baton Rouge About the memoir author and editor Michael Griffith writes This might be a controversial book in the best way controversial because it speaks to real and intractable problems and speaks to them with rare bluntness The narrative of Parrish s descent into fear and irrational behavior begins with bigotry and apocalyptic thinking in his Southern Baptist church Living a life upon this volatile foundation of prejudice and apprehension Parrish feels destabilized by his brother going to Vietnam his own puberty and restlessness serious family illness and economic uncertainty Then a near fatal street fight and subsequent stalking by an older sociopath fracture what security is left leaving him terrified and seemingly helpless Parrish comes to believe that he can only be safe by allying himself with brute force This brute influence is a vicious charismatic racist Under this bigot s terrible sway Parrish turns to violence in the street and at school He is even conflicted about whether he will help commit murder in order to avenge a friend At seventeen he must reckon with all of this as his parents and neighbors grow increasingly afraid that they are losing their neighborhood to African Americans Fear and What Follows is an unparalleled story of the complex roots of southern urban working class racism and white flight as well as a story of family love and the possibility of redemption      Memories of an Old Geezer Charles Benjamin McReynolds, 2008-05 Reminiscences of McReynolds as a young boy growing up in the mountains of West Virginia      The Neighborhood Paul H. Price, 2021-10-22 Childhood is the very foundation of adulthood The ideals and expressions of life we hold in our adulthood have their origins and rudiments in the ideals and expressions of life we encounter and gather and live out in our youth Be they feelings of worth or worthlessness the vigor and hope of making something of ourselves or an acquiescence to the belief that things of consequence are beyond our reach or the lens of optimism or of doubt with which we view our own existence all have their budding and beginnings in the experiences or lack of experiences of our childhood And growing up in the 1950s and 1960s was at a very unique convergence of circumstances of combined societal economical political spiritual and cultural seismic shifting perhaps unlike any other era We were a nation barely emerging from decades of world wide wars and economic ruin and social survival trying now to find our footing and our own stride and our equilibrium and our very identity Never were we more communally encased and even secure in and at the same time struggling to break out of our traditions our superstitions our ignorance our fears our limitations and our collective innocence
