Children's Games in the New Media Age Chris Richards, Andrew Burn, 2016-05-23 The result of a unique research project exploring the relationship between children's vernacular play cultures and their media based play this collection challenges two popular misconceptions about children's play that it is depleted or even dying out and that it is threatened by contemporary media such as television and computer games A key element in the research was the digitization and analysis of Iona and Peter Opie's sound recordings of children's playground and street games from the 1970s and 1980s This framed and enabled the research team's studies both of the Opies documents of mid twentieth century play culture and through a two year ethnographic study of play and games in two primary school playgrounds contemporary children's play cultures In addition the research included the use of a prototype computer game to capture playground games and the making of a documentary film Drawing on this extraordinary data set the volume poses three questions What do these hitherto unseen sources reveal about the games songs and rhymes the Opies and others collected in the mid twentieth century What has happened to these vernacular forms How are the forms of vernacular play that are transmitted in playgrounds homes and streets transfigured in the new media age In addressing these questions the contributors reflect on the changing face of childhood in the twenty first century in relation to questions of gender and power and with attention to the children's own participation in producing the ethnographic record of their lives

Shades of the Moon Eric James, 2008-06-28 The move from the City to the Suburbs was a huge change even though I was young when it happened People in the suburbs were a lot different than the city and we as kids thought it was paradise Boy were we wrong Most people in this town are fake corrupted selfish and overall ASSHOLES in my opinion A lot of politics I wont get into but you might see some of it From the time I turned seventeen to about twenty two Ive gone threw some pretty interesting experiences My life entailed robbing stealing fighting drugs just had a few over nighters in a holding cell My family is very close and we chill together all the time Id do anything for them some not for me but thats just the way they are I guess they call me the crazy one but honestly every family needs someone like me From my tales to tell overall I wouldnt take any of it back I love my life and how I lived it I feel my past was lived to the fullest and my crew thugged it out for years I know that most of the trouble I got into was because of the choices I made and even then I knew that it was the wrong path to take but I just didnt care While these adventures where happening I knew my life would be change for the better once I finished school and landed a good set job Though it seemed like it took forever I finally did finish school and became full time at the position I'd been working at for a few years. That is when my life started. I enjoyed being young and dumb as they say but now it's time to grow up and become a man. I've gone through plenty of friends over the years, some lost due to changes in schools or choosing different cliques in school, others lost on bad terms, sometimes I knew why and others I didn't understand. I lost a couple very close best friends and also gained new ones. Life is a struggle, I struggled through it but was able to surpass. I got through the tough times, enjoyed the memorable times, and here are my stories to tell. This book will deliver my resume of an uncontrolled substance that almost ruined my life. The rage and power I absorbed through fisting a person's face brought happiness to me. Every true street fighter will tell you they've gotten their ass kicked at least once in their life and probably didn't like it. I, on the other hand, loved it. The more I got hit, the more aggressive I became, trying to destroy anything in my path. It became so much of an addiction that I looked for it all the time and even threw down with my own brother. I loved to fight and was pretty good at it but it almost got me killed a few times. My stories here are all true but some names may have been altered for confidentiality purposes. In no way am I trying to disrespect anyone past or present because it's a story about my life but a lot of others are involved as well. Overall, I have been in over fifty legit street fights, mostly in a five-year range, and these are the main tales. Other than fighting and the mischief, I'm actually a really nice person and a great athlete. My whole life has been based around sports, and my entire family is athletes, including the girls. Though I pursued a sports career, I still found myself living the Hip Hop lifestyle, which made me the person I am today. I speak mostly of the bad experiences rather than the good because everyone has their good moments, and the awful times are the juiciest. I give a lot of credit to my parents for putting up with me all these years, and I know what they've done for me, and I really do appreciate it. They are the best parents any kid can ever ask for, and to put them through what I did was a horrible thing to do, so I'm truly sorry. Like the saying goes, what doesn't kill you only makes you stronger, I guess. I'm Exploring Parenting Roy Littlejohn Associates, 1978 Your School of Love Agnes M. Penny, 2014-05.
