

A young child with curly hair, wearing a white shirt and tan overalls, is climbing a wooden play structure. The structure is made of light-colored wood and features a peaked roof with a small square window at the top. Inside the structure, there is a black, scalloped-edge fabric element. A wooden slide with a scalloped edge is attached to the side. The child is currently on the slide, leaning forward and using their hands to grip the sides. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
