tradition of private public and industry labor cooperation to invest in high quality inputs such as human capital and research Both strategies facilitated movement into new high tech industries but with distinctive political and economic consequences In explaining how previously slow moving states entered dynamic new industries Ornston identifies a broader range of strategies by which countries can respond to disruptive challenges such as economic internationalization rapid technological innovation and the shift to services

Why Smart People Make Big Money Mistakes and How to Correct Them Gary Belsky, Thomas Gilovich, 2010-01-12 Protect and grow your finances with help from this definitive and practical guide to behavioral economics revised and updated to reflect new economic realities In their fascinating investigation of the ways we handle money Gary Belsky and Thomas Gilovich reveal the psychological forces the patterns of thinking and decision making behind seemingly irrational behavior They explain why so many otherwise savvy people make foolish financial choices why investors are too quick to sell winning stocks and too slow to sell losing shares why home sellers leave money on the table and home buyers don't get the biggest bang for their buck why borrowers pay too much credit card interest and savers can't sock away as much as they'd like and why so many of us can't control our spending Focusing on the decisions we make every day Belsky and Gilovich provide invaluable guidance for avoiding the financial faux pas that can cost thousands of dollars each year Filled with fresh insight practical advice and lively illustrative anecdotes this book gives you the tools you need to harness the powerful science of behavioral economics in any financial environment

The Making of a Bestseller Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 1999-01-01 Writer F Scott Fitzgerald's career itself is a metaphor for the vagaries of book publishing If Fitzgerald would have had his way we would today refer to The Great Gatsby as either Gold Hatted Gatsby Trimalchio in West Egg or The High Bouncing Lover A few years before Gatsby Fitzgerald had become a literary sensation at the age of 23 Helen Hooven Santmyer a contemporary of Fitzgerald's would not have a successful novel published until she was 88 and living in a nursing home In this book the author explores that mysterious place in publishing where art and commerce can either clash mesh or both Along the way a wide range of authors from the literary greats to today's commercial superstars editors agents and publishers share their thoughts insights and experiences What inspires writers John Steinbeck for example wrote every novel as if it were his last as if death were imminent Why are some books successful and appreciated while others fall into oblivion The answers are often elusive never absolute but the stories and anecdotes are always fascinating
