Sonic Icons Sarah Bakker Kellogg, 2024-11-05 A vivid artfully crafted and deeply hopeful account of one community's struggle to rediscover and reinvent itself after a century of genocidal loss dispossession and displacement To the extent that Middle Eastern Christians register in Euro American political imaginaries they are usually invoked to justify Western military intervention into countries like Iraq or Syria or as an exemption to anti Islamic immigration policies because of an assumption that their Christianity makes them easily assimilable in the so called Judeo Christian West Using the tools of multisensory ethnography Sonic Icons uncovers how these views work against the very communities they are meant to benefit Through long term fieldwork in the Netherlands among Syriac Orthodox Christians also known as Assyrians Aramaeans and Syriacs Bakker Kellogg reveals how they intertwine religious practice with political activism to save Syriac Christianity from the twin threats of political violence in the Middle East and cultural assimilation in Europe In a historical moment when much of their tradition has been forgotten or destroyed their story of self discovery is one of survival and reinvention By reviving the late antique Syriac liturgical tradition known as the Daughters and Sons of the Covenant they seek a complex form of recognition for what they understand to be the ethical core of Christian kinship in an ethnic as well as in a religious sense despite living in societies that do not recognize this unhyphenated form of ethnoreligiosity as a politically legitimate mode of public identity Drawing on both theological and linguistic understandings of the icon Sonic Icons rethinks foundational theoretical accounts of ethnicization racialization and secularization by examining how kinship gets made claimed and named in the global politics of minority recognition The icon as a site of communicative and reproductive power illuminates how these processes are shaped by religious histories of struggle for sovereignty over the reproductive future

The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S. Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seek to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series      Reconstructing Iraq's Budgetary Institutions James D. Sectarianism in Iraq Khalil Osman, 2014-10-10 This book links sectarianism in Iraq to the failure of the modern nation state to resolve tensions between sectarian identities and concepts of unified statehood and uniform citizenry After a theoretical excursus that recasts the notion of primordial identity as a socially constructed reality the author sets out to explain the persistence of sectarian affiliations in Iraq since its creation following the dismemberment of the Ottoman Empire Despite the adoption of homogenizing state policies the uneven sectarian composition of the ruling elites nurtured feelings of political exclusion among marginalized sectarian groups the Shicites before 2003 and the Sunnis in the post 2003 period The book then examines how communal discourses in the educational curriculum provoked masked forms of resistance that sharpened sectarian consciousness Tracing how the anti Persian streak in the nation state s Pan Arab ideology which camouflaged anti Shicite undermined Iraq s national integration project Sectarianism in Iraq delves into the country s slide from a totalizing Pan Arab ideology in the pre 2003 period toward the atomistic impulse of the federalist debate in the post 2003 period Employing extensive fieldwork this book sheds light on the dynamics of political life in post Saddam Iraq and is essential reading for Iraqi and Middle East specialists as well as those interested in understanding the current heightening of sectarian Sunni Shicite tensions in the Middle East Antiquarian Bookman ,1958 The Making of the Modern Gulf States Rosemarie Said Zahlan,2016-02-05 The Gulf States are the focus of great international interest yet their fabulous evolution from pearl fishing to oil drilling their individuality and variety are screened by a thick cloud of petro dollars This book first published in 1989 tells the story of their formation their evolution from colonial dependency to statehood and their transformation by oil The result is an informed and balanced picture of the political economic religious and cultural character of the area It is also a story of the powerful families and their sheikhs that have had to hurry these states into the modern world of the interchanging role of political and economic dependence the influence of the oil industry the influx of workers from abroad and the varying forces acting on the Gulf States The Library Catalogs of the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, Stanford University Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace,1969 The Institutionalization of Evaluation in the Middle East and North Africa Anis B. Brik,2025-09-10 Anis Ben Brik examines the state of the institutionalization of evaluation across the Middle East and North Africa MENA providing a rigorous analysis of both historical progress and contemporary practices Utilising Reinhard Stockmann et al s well established theoretical and methodological approach he focuses on core political social and professional systems to thoroughly assess evaluation frameworks within diverse national contexts Writing the Modern History of Iraq Jordi Tejel,Riccardo Bocco,2012 The modern history of Iraq is punctuated by a series of successive and radical ruptures coups d etat changes of regime military adventures and foreign invasions whose chronological markers are relatively easy to identify Although researchers cannot ignore these ruptures they should also be encouraged to establish links between the moments when the breaks occur and the longue dur e in order to gain a better understanding of the period Combining a variety of different disciplinary and methodological perspectives this collection of essays seeks to establish some new markers which will open fresh perspectives on the history of Iraq in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and suggest a narrative that fits into new paradigms The book covers the various different periods of the modern state the British occupation and mandate the monarchy the first revolutions and the decades of Ba thist rule through the lens of significant groups in Iraq society including artists film makers political and opposition groups members of ethnic and religious groups and tribes The Modern Middle East Ilan Pappé,2005 The Gulf states Two introductory chapters on political and economic history set the broader context The main text focuses on the experience of everyday people from Ottoman and colonial times through the present Rural and urban
