Authenticity focuses on a core area of overlap between food and architecture. Structured around a series of conversations between chefs, culinary historians and architects, each theme is explored through a variety of case studies ranging from pig slaughtering and farmhouses in Greece to authenticity and heritage in American cuisine. Drawing on a range of approaches from both disciplines, methodologies include practice based research, literary analysis, memoir and narrative. The end of each section features a commentary by Samantha Martin McAuliffe which emphasizes key themes and connections. This compelling book is invaluable reading for students and scholars in food studies and architecture as well as practicing chefs and architects.

Fuzzy Caterpillars and Great Big Dinosaurs Jay Dale, 2017. Perfect for sharing in the classroom, this wonderful collection of poems, rhymes and songs are sure to delight your very youngest readers. With vibrant illustrations and fun rhyming text, students are introduced to different genres on a wide range of topics. The poems, rhymes, songs and chants link directly to Engage Literacy fiction and nonfiction texts. Using fun text, vibrant pictures and detailed teaching notes, teachers can use this book for shared reading, either on its own or as part of the wider Engage Literacy program. Shared reading allows the demonstration of sight word knowledge and fluent reading and encourages confidence in young readers. The books offer oral language practice incorporating rhyme, rhythm and repetition and including vocabulary that may not be independently accessible to all children. Reading the poems, rhymes, songs and chants gives practice in language patterns, fluency, vocabulary and finding meaning. Used with the Engage student books, the poems, rhymes, songs and chants build comprehension by providing concept reinforcement. They can also be used for pre-teaching high frequency words or phonics skills.
