Making Good:

Making Good Tony Allan, 2007-02-06 Tony Allan is a rare breed a masterful chef as well as a great businessman He is second only to Sir Terence Conran as Britain's wealthiest restaurateur and enjoys celebrity status following his primetime BBC cookery show Tony Giorgio with best pal Giorgio Locatelli Packed with entertaining anecdotes his inspiring biography and business manual Making Good gives a real insight into one of the few remaining characters on the UK's restaurant scene and a template for aspiring entrepreneurs who want to know how it could but perhaps shouldn't be done Making Good is the fly on the kitchen wall cookumentary of exactly what Tony Allan did and why he did it the way he did It is essential reading for wannabe millionaires from all walks of life including anyone who has ever dreamt of running their own business or opening a successful restaurant Making Good will inspire anyone hungry for a genuine rags to riches story I call Tony my English brother He is the man who introduced me to English culture and we have had some wonderful times together Launching Bank restaurant was a fantastic experience one I will always remember so this book is very special Christian Delteil Managing Director of Bank Restaurants

Making Good Martin Wright, 2008 The author argues that neither the conservative idea of deterrence nor the liberal ideal of rehabilitation has worked In their place he proposes the basis for a radical but practical philosophy which places the emphasis on the offender making amends to the victim and to society for the damaged cause The original edition published in 1982 was one of the books that paved the way for the restorative justice movement

Making Good Choices Richard L. Curwin, 2003-02-11 Help each student make the transition from child to responsible teenager and adult Oftentimes children between the ages of 9 and 15 grades 4-9 seem to exist in a twilight zone between a waning childhood and an impending functioning adulthood These critical years are an ideal and essential time to teach those students to accept responsibility for the consequences of their own behavior to recognize that mistakes can become opportunities for learning and to help them learn how to formulate and live with classroom and community rules that promote responsibility respect and self discipline By the author of Discipline With Dignity Making Good Choices offers teachers eight ready to use strategies with objectives materials language and examples all designed to encourage students to Accept responsibility for their own behavior Learn the difference between internal and external control Learn to predict the outcomes of their decisions Learn to plan and redesign plans Learn from mistakes Learn direct and effective communication Learn to identify classroom rules that promote responsibility and respect Learn how to make the classroom their community Employ these strategies and utilize the included forms checklists classroom posters and glossary and help your students learn to make good choices for good behavior in the classroom and then transfer those positive behaviors to the real world

Making Good Wendy Fischman, Becca Solomon, 2005-10-28 Making Good explores the choices confronting young workers who join the ranks of three dynamic professions journalism science and acting and looks at how the novices navigate moral dilemmas posed by a demanding frequently lonely professional life
