Making It Happen:

Making it Happen Carl Hester, Bernadette Hewitt, 2014-05-08 Carl Hester is one of the greatest ever equestrians leading Great Britain to Gold Medal victory at the London 2012 Olympics In these vibrant memoirs he tells the incredible story of the passion for horse riding which revolutionised his life and made him the champion he is today Carl grew up on the remote Channel Island of Sark moving to the UK mainland at the age of 16 to work with horses mainly as a way to leave home He could never have predicted what a great affinity he would have for dressage Carl's career enjoyed a stratospheric rise as he progressed from working as a groom rider to riding international dressage horses full time for renowned owners Dr and Mrs Bechtolsheimer to training his own horses and other top riders to international success Carl's early career revealed someone capable of monumental achievements He provides a rare insight into both the people and the horses that drove him to victory initially the skewbald mare Jolly Dolly on which he won the 1985 Young Riders Dressage Championship During the early 1990s he rode in the World Championships the European Championships and the 1992 Barcelona Olympics becoming Great Britain's youngest ever rider to compete in the Games His riding skills have increased with age culminating in the hugely successful years as part of the Gold Medal teams that won the 2011 European Dressage Championships and of course that made history at London 2012 He achieved both feats on the same extraordinary horse Uthopia while as a trainer he produced the even more remarkable combination of Charlotte Dujardin and Valegro A first class sportsman and a witty and engaging writer Carl now offers his admirers the opportunity to read an intelligent humorous and above all inspiring account of his life from the ups and downs of his career to the motivations and techniques which have helped him to win 66 national titles represent Team GB at four Olympic Games two World Championships and seven European Championships and become one of the best riders and horsemen in the world Making It Happen Peter Sheahan, 2011-04-05 The world is not short of ideas but it is short of people who know how to carry them out Making It Happen unravels the process of taking a good idea and turning it into a successful venture Author Peter Sheahan guides the reader through the five competencies that will enable you to understand and utilize the forces that drive buyers behavior break through mental barriers and effectively position your offer in the market Whether you are looking to start a business get promoted or launch a social movement this book will streamline your thinking so you can finally turn your good ideas into great results Peter Sheahan has a reputation for making it happen fast By 30 he had established two international multimillion dollar consulting practices and authored five books including the bestsellers Generation Y and Fl p Let him share with you the strategies that make Google BMW and Goldman Sachs his clients Making It Happen Iain Martin, 2013-09-12 When RBS collapsed and had to be bailed out by the taxpayer in the financial crisis of October 2008 it played a leading role in tipping Britain into its deepest economic downturn in seven decades The economy shrank bank lending froze hundreds of thousands lost their jobs living standards are still falling and Britons will be paying higher taxes for decades to pay the clean up bill How on earth had a small Scottish bank grown so quickly to become a global financial giant that could do such immense damage when it collapsed At the centre of the story was Fred Goodwin the former chief executive known as Fred the Shred who terrorised some of his staff and beguiled others Not a banker by training he nonetheless was given control of RBS and set about trying to make it one of the biggest brands in the world It was said confidently that computerisation and new banking products had made the world safer Only they hadn't Based on more than 80 interviews and with access to diaries and papers kept by those at the heart of the meltdown this is the definitive account of the RBS disaster a disaster which still casts such a shadow over our economy In Making It Happen senior executives board members Treasury insiders and regulators reveal how the bank's mania for expansion led it to take enormous risks its leaders didn't understand From the birth of the Royal Bank in 18th century Scotland to the manic expansion under Fred Goodwin in the middle of a mad boom and culminating in the epoch defining collapse Making It Happen is the full extraordinary story Making It Happen* Mackenzie Kyle, 1999-11-18

Making It Happen A Non Technical Guide to Project Management provides a fresh and clear approach to project management Written in the form of a novel it covers the basics of project management in a friendly interesting and memorable way Will Campbell a reasonably competent middle manager is suddenly thrust into managing a high profile project that could make or break his career With no project management experience and armed only with the guidance of his eccentric mentor Martha Will learns the hard way As Will navigates the rough seas of company politics treacherous competition and a project swirling out of control he narrowly evades many pitfalls and masters some indispensable project management tools along the way Against the backdrop of this personal drama a simple rational approach to project management unfolds Will's ability to grasp these principles is the key to his survival and could be the key to yours Making It Happen enables the reader to transform risky real life situations into success Provides a simple non technical approach useful to any business person involved in teams or managing projects Offers practical tools and principles that will make any project a success from office moves to product roll outs systems implementations to training program delivery and everything in between Boxes definitions and charts highlight key points and practical project management tips Making It Happen* Rebecca Stephens MBE, 2021-11-25 An inspiring and informative read Financial Times Shortlisted for the Business Book Awards 2022 In Making It Happen Rebecca Stephens argues that the successful implementation of strategy often comes down to one individual an individual with a clear unswerving commitment to the cause coupled with excellent leadership and communication skills We all have the power within us to create change and get things done even against the odds With a variety of case studies and an eclectic selection of interviewees this book champions diversity of thought and the importance of gleaned practical and actionable insights from a broad array of perspectives and experiences And making things happen is more important now than ever Virtually every organization institution and business is in desperate need of a practical and actionable strategy to find their way through these difficult times with minimal disruption According to the Project

Management Institute 37% of projects fail due to the lack of defined project objectives and milestones Yet there are rare exceptions to this widespread failure to effectively strategize This book tells the stories of individuals whose extraordinary efforts and persistence have resulted in successful strategy execution Interestingly most have effected change not just to the benefit of themselves or their organization but to broader society too And most work in organizations that are typically steeped in tradition and resistant to change the civil service the UN the medical industry education financial services and long established multi national corporations Rebecca Stephens interviews these individuals and uncovers the secrets behind their success while also drawing upon her own eclectic experiences in implementing strategy from both her corporate and journalism career and her time as a revered mountaineer Making it Happen demonstrates that it s a sense of purpose conviction and optimism combined with strong commitment and the ability to influence and persuade that leads to the successful implementation and execution of strategy Making It Happen Asad Alam,Renosi Mokate,Kathrin A. Plangemann,2016-04-18 South Africa has achieved a lot on its path of socio economic transformation since the end of Apartheid in 1994 While many challenges remain to foster inclusive growth to address the triple challenges of unemployment poverty and inequality some innovative approaches have been used to build more inclusive public institutions These have helped to expand service delivery strengthen quality and improve the lives of millions of South Africans Although much is known about the motivation and nature of the policies and institutional changes that drove this transformation very little is known of the manner in which they were executed With this book Making It Happen From Policies to Implementation we offer a selection of twelve case studies to illustrate how policies and institutions were developed and implemented to improve specific public services Done through interviews with senior policy makers the book captures the how to of executing these policies in a variety of areas including increasing budget transparency developing an intergovernmental fiscal system strengthening tax administration developing a modern performance monitoring and evaluation system expanding HIV AIDS treatment reforming the social transfer system strengthening statistics creating a modern national identity system developing a system for the management of biodiversity modernizing the national road network management developing the framework for renewable energy and the formulation of the country s much lauded constitution Tracing a twenty year journey of transformation this book places particular emphasis on recording the design of these reforms and endeavors to shed some light on the decision making processes In particular it attempts to provide insight on the trade offs policy makers faced and the sequencing and complementarities among the various reforms It finds leadership at different levels adoption of pragmatic and innovative solutions and the focus on results as among the key drivers in implementing these changes This book is primarily intended to enhance knowledge exchange by exporting South Africa s development experience to the world It is a product of the country s Knowledge Hub developed in partnership with the World Bank Group to provide evidence based solutions for enhancing service delivery Making It Happen Hannah Trigwell,2023-11-06 Making It Happen is a
