Participation in EU Rule-making Joana Mendes, 2011-04-07 The limited scope of participation in the making of EU law remains a continued source of controversy featuring prominently in recent institutional and political developments that have been shaping the EU's constitutional framework most intensely in the follow up of the Commission's

White Paper on Governance Yet little attention has been paid to participation rights as a means of ensuring the procedural protection of persons affected by EU regulation in its diverse forms This is a dimension of the rule of law that has been largely ignored by EU legislative and judicial bodies Not only the legislator but also the Court of Justice and the Court of First Instance tend to adhere to excessively formal conceptions of participation rights that are premised on the right to be heard in individual procedures as well as to a restrictive view regarding the relationships between the citizens and the administration This book shows why in the face of new regulatory developments these conceptions are currently inadequate to ensure the legal protection of rights and interests affected by EU regulation Combining a conceptual analysis with thorough empirical scrutiny this book assesses the scope of participation rights in EU law against their rationales and underlying legal values It makes a case for the extension of participation rights to new situations and new types of procedures in particular those that would generally fall within the category of rulemaking It brings distinct normative insights into a crucial theme of EU administrative law and makes a topical and timely contribution to the increasingly notable theme of public participation in EU regulation Joanna Mendes 2009 thesis upon which Participation in EU Rule Making is based was awarded the the European University Institute Florence Mauro Cappelletti Prize for the best doctoral thesis using a methodology of comparative law

Making A Comeback Jeffrey A. Johnson, 2008-09 If we are not living abundant lives how do we reclaim our lives in Christ Jesus said in John 10 10 The thief comes only to steal kill and destroy I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly Yet so many Christians fail to live an abundant life in fact too often they are just getting by just struggling to survive But God has so much more for us Many of us have sat passively and watched as the enemy of our souls has come like a thief stealing away our joy killing our bodies and destroying our families We have lost the abundance in our lives that Christ died to give us We allowed it to be taken from us while we watched apathetically as though we were only spectators of our own lives not followers of a risen active triumphant Christ The time for sitting still and bemoaning our lot in life is over God has empowered us to reclaim what we've lost We can get our lives back Get our health back Get our minds back Get our families back Get our joy back We do not have to wallow in defeat We can make a comeback JEFFREY A JOHNSON SR is senior pastor of Eastern Star Church in Indianapolis Indiana a position he has held for over twenty years This is a church Where Jesus is Exalted and the Word is Explained More important to him than the size of his church the titles he holds or the places he's been he wants people to know that he loves Jesus He and his wife Sharon Henry Johnson are the parents of four sons This is his second book following The Song of Solomon Love Sex and Relationships

Redefining Human Rights in the Struggle for Peace and Development Terrence E. Paupp,2014-01-20 Human rights in peace and development are accepted throughout the Global South as established normative and beyond debate Only in the powerful elite sectors of the Global North have these rights been resisted and refuted The policies and interests of these global forces are antithetical to advancing human rights ending global poverty and respecting the sovereign integrity of States and governments throughout the Global South The link between poverty war and environmental degradation has become evident over the last 60 years further augmenting international consciousness of these issues as interconnected with the rest of the human rights corpus This book examines the history of this struggle and outlines practical means to implement these rights through a global framework of constitutional protections Within this emerging framework it argues that States will be increasingly obligated to formulate policies and programs to achieve peace and development throughout the global society

If Life Is a Grocery Store, I Need Better Coupons Keith Johnson, 2011-02-21 I believe that every man has the potential to pull himself from the mud of which he was created up to the highest point of stardom to overcome the greatest of indignities whatever may be served to him and demonstrate the greatest of inspirational abilities making mankind far better for his appearance on this earth if he chooses as brief as it may be I believe that every man is sacred and when he realizes his individual worth he cannot help but strive for perfection and though he cannot find it in his own strength will realize that the God who made him loves him and will give him the strength he needs to overcome all tribulation and failure that we were made to be happy and excited about our existence and that we should live and learn to love life and embrace all it has to offer passionately eliminating the bad and enhancing the good for ourselves and our fellow man It is our God given responsibility to take this gift of life and the earth upon which we were given to live to learn to love God and our fellow man and that our journey is solely our own and affects all of us for the worse or the better according to the choices we make guided by our character And whether we like it or not all of our chosen activities affect each other and should lift up our fellow man as sacred and special as we lift ourselves up individually and to never forget that we are not here alone that God is watching every step we take and every action in our lives and we are held in judgment for how we treat ourselves our fellow man and our relationship with our Heavenly Father
