Making Of Apartheid 1948 1961:

The Making of Apartheid, 1948-1961 Deborah Posel, 1991 The Making of Apartheid, 1948-1961 Deborah Posel, 1991 Analyzing the shaping of apartheid this book argues that it was not the product of a single grand plan but that it arose from complex patterns of conflict and compromise within the state in which white capitalists the black working class and popular movements had uneven degrees of power The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu, 2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor Political Identity and Social Change Jamie Frueh, 2012-02-01 Political Identity and Social Change builds upon the constructivist theory of political identity to explore the social changes that accompanied the end of apartheid in South Africa To gain a better understanding of how structures of identity changed along with the rest of South Africa s institutions Frueh analyzes three social and political conflicts the Soweto uprisings of 1976 the reformist constitutional debates of 1983 1984 and post apartheid crime Analyzing these conflicts demonstrates how identity labels function as structures of social discourse how social activity is organized through these structures and how both the labels and their power have changed during the course of South Africa s transition In this way the book contributes not only to the study of South African society but also provides lessons about the relationship between identity and social change Mourning Become... Liz Stanley, 2006-10-17 This work demonstrates that much of what we have traditionally understood about concentration camps run by the British during the South African War originates with the testimony solicited from Boer proto nationalist circles Using detailed archival evidence Stanley shows that much of the history of the camps results from a deliberate imposition of post memory a process by which memory shapes and supports a racialized nationalist framework Race, Taste and the Grape Paul Nugent, 2024-03-28 An examination of the history of the South African wine industry and how race has shaped patterns of consumption Politics and Society in South Africa Daryl Glaser, 2000-12-22 Darryl Glaser supplies an illuminating overview of the scholarship since 1970 on South Africa s political history His emphasis is on the debates between liberals Marxists and to a lesser extent post structuralists about the origins and the course of South Africa s racial order Tom Lodge University of Witwatersrand A well researched well argued readable interesting informative and competent study Capital and Class Providing a wide ranging and critical introduction to contemporary South Africa this book uses an interdisciplinary lens to introduce the student to the main debates historical context and issues that have characterized the study of South Africa over the last three decades Key topics include the role of colonialism capitalism and modernity in the formation of the racial order changes in the South African state questions of class race and ethnicity black resistance and the transition to democracy A number of underlying debates are critically evaluated For exmple the contribution of materialist and class analytic approaches the application of post structuralism and theories of modernity and the prospects for democratic liberalism and socialism in post apartheid South Africa Religions/Globalizations Dwight N. Hopkins, Lois Ann Lorentzen, Eduardo Mendieta, David Batstone, 2001-10-03 A collection of essays demonstrating the ways diverse religious rituals symbols ethics and ideologies perform as primary planks in the construction of the public realm with particular focus on peripheral nations and politicized spiritualities of resist The Afrocentricity Trajectories of Looting in South Africa Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe, Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Sifiso Ndlovu, Dalifa Ngobese, 2023-03-20 Looting has become an increasingly popular concept in South Africa as an unsophisticated interpretation of ownership by force of property during periods of mayhem However looting is a complex concept whose origin spans a long history that cuts across time and space In The Afrocentricity Trajectories of Looting in South Africa edited by Mfundo Masuku Dalifa Ngobese Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe and Sifiso Ndlovu contributors provide sophisticated analysis on the concept of looting and address nuances in the concept of looting looking at links to spiraling inequality and poverty racialization of property ownership and skewed access and benefits of economic policies As shown in this collection looting has taken on a variety of political meanings a challenge to the violence of racial capitalism an alternative and accelerated path to justice and a way to call attention to the reality of racial violence that is often ignored by the media to name a few This volume provides a critical analysis of looting from a multi disciplinary approach that focuses on a combination of themes to show that looting is deeply rooted in property ownership and spiraling poverty and inequality that is structural in nature The Terrorist Album Jacob Dlamini, 2020-05-05 Historian and journalist Jacob Dlamini investigates one of three surviving copies of the terrorist album a rogue s gallery of apartheid s political enemies collected over decades by South Africa s security police From the photos emerges the afterlife of apartheid as Dlamini tells the story of former insurgents collaborators and police The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner, 2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa s apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students teachers art and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence criminality and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state this book focuses instead on a small group s efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school There is no book like this in South African historiography Lushly illustrated and poetically written it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clich d experience of black life under segregation and apartheid Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. Parrillo, 2008-05-22 Social problems affect everyone Because so many actual and potential problems confront us it is often difficult to decide which ones affect us most severely Is it the threat of death or injury during a terrorist attack Is it the threat caused by industrial pollution that may poison us or destroy our physical environment Or does quiet but viciously damaging gender age class racial or ethnic discrimination have the most far reaching effect Do the problems of cities affect us if we live in the suburbs Do poorer nations problems with overpopulation affect our quality of life The Encyclopedia of Social Problems offers an interdisciplinary perspective into many social issues that are a continuing concern in our lives whether we confront them on a personal local regional national or global level With more than 600 entries these two volumes cover all of the major theories approaches and contemporary issues in social problems and also provide insight into how social conditions get defined as social problems and the ways different people and organizations view and try to solve them Key Features Provides as comprehensive an approach as possible to this multifaceted field by using experts and scholars from 19 disciplines anthropology biology business chemistry communications criminal justice demography economics education environmental studies geography health history languages political science psychology social work sociology and women s studies Presents a truly international effort with contributors from 17 countries Argentina Australia Canada England France Germany Greece Hong Kong India Ireland Italy Kenya New Zealand Romania Scotland Turkey and the United States Addresses social problems that are fairly new such as computer crimes and identity theft and others that are centuries old such as poverty and prostitution Examines social problems differently from place to place and from one era to another Explains the perspectives and foundations of various social theories and offers different lenses to view the same reality Key Themes Aging and the Life Course Community Culture and Change Crime and Deviance Economics and Work Education Family Gender Inequality and Sexual Orientation Health Housing and Urbanization Politics Power and War Population and Environment Poverty and Social Class Race and Ethnic Relations Social Movements Social Theory Substance Abuse Readers investigating virtually any social problem will find a rich treasure of information and insights in this reference work making it a must have resource for any academic library

Songs of the Women Migrants Deborah James,2019-07-31 This book gives an account of how migrant women dance and sing the vibrant and expressive musical style of kiba Poverty Knowledge in South Africa Grace Davie,2015-02-05 Poverty is South Africa s greatest challenge But what is poverty How can it be measured And how can it be reduced if not eliminated In South Africa human science knowledge about the cost of living grew out of colonialism industrialization apartheid and civil resistance campaigns which makes this knowledge far from neutral or apolitical South Africans have used the Poverty Datum Line PDL Gini coefficients and other poverty thresholds to petition the state to chip away at the pillars of white supremacy and more recently to criticize the postapartheid government s failures to deliver on some of its promises Rather than promoting one particular policy solution this book argues that poverty knowledge teaches us about the dynamics of historical change the power of racism in white settler societies and the role of grassroots protest movements in shaping state policies and scientific categories Readers will gain new perspectives on today's debates about social welfare redistribution and human rights and will ultimately find reasons to rethink conventional approaches to advocacy State, 1992 Critical Perspectives on African Politics Clive Gabbay, Carl Death, 2014-05-09 Strong states and strong civil societies are now increasingly hailed as the twin drivers of a rising Africa Current attempts to support growth and democracy are part of a longer history of promoting projects of disciplinary regulatory and liberal rule and values beyond the West Yet this is not simply Western domination of a passive continent Such an interpretation misses out on the complexities and nuances of the politics of state building and civil society promotion and the central role of African agency Drawing upon critical theory including postcolonial and governmentality approaches this book interrogates international practices of state building and civil society support in Africa It seeks to develop a theoretically informed critical approach to discourses and interventions such as those associated with broadly Western initiatives in Africa In doing so the book highlights the power relations inequalities coercion and violence that are deeply implicated within contemporary international interventions on the African continent Providing a range of empirical cases and theoretical approaches the chapters are united by their critical treatment of political dynamics in Africa This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics development studies postcolonial theory International Relations international political economy and peacekeeping making

Twentieth-Century South Africa William Beinart, 2001-10-04 An innovative examination of the forces both destructive and dynamic which have shaped twentieth century South Africa This book provides a stimulating introduction to the history of South Africa in the twentieth century It draws on the rich and lively tradition of radical history writing on that country and to a greater extent than previous accounts weaves economic and cultural history into the political narrative Apartheid and industrialization especially mining are central theme as is the rise of nationalism in the Afrikaner and African communities But the author also emphasizes the neglected significance of rural experiences and local identities in shaping political consciousness The roles played by such key figure as Smuts Verwoerd de Klerk Platje and Mandela are explored while recent historiographical trends are reflected in analyses of rural protest white cultural politics the vitality of black urban life and environmental decay The book assesses the analysis of black reactions to apartheid the rise of the ANC The concluding chapter brings this seminal history up to date tackling the issues and events from 1994 1999 in particular the success of Mandela and the ANC in seeing through the end of apartheid rule It also looks at the chances of a stable future for the new found democracy in South Africa Peace Agreements and Human Rights Christine Bell, 2003 This work examines human rights provisions in peace agreements and through them the role of human rights protection in peace processes History, Memory, and State-Sponsored Violence Berber Bevernage, 2013-02-14 Modern historiography embraces the notion that time is irreversible implying that the past should be imagined as something absent or distant Victims of historical injustice however in contrast often claim that the past got stuck in the present and that it retains a haunting presence History Memory and State Sponsored Violence is centered around the provocative thesis that the way one deals with historical injustice and the ethics of history is strongly dependent on the way one conceives of historical time that the concept of time traditionally used by historians is structurally more compatible with the perpetrators than the victims point of view Demonstrating that the claim of victims about the continuing presence of the past should be taken seriously instead of being treated as merely metaphorical Berber Bevernage argues that a genuine understanding of the irrevocable past demands a radical break with modern historical discourse and the concept of time By embedding a profound philosophical reflection on the themes of historical time and historical discourse in a concrete series of case studies this project transcends the traditional divide between empirical historiography on the one hand and the so called theoretical approaches to history on the other It also breaks with the conventional analytical philosophy of history that has been dominant during the last decades raising a series of long neglected big questions about the historical condition questions about historical time the unity of history and the ontological status of present and past programmatically pleading for a new historical ethics Democratising Local Government, 2002 Local government is at the forefront of development In South Africa the ambitious policy objectives of post apartheid reconstruction and development hinge on the successful creation of a democratic tier of government close to the people An entirely new system of developmental local government has thus been introduced As is the case in many developing countries the responsibilities of municipalities in South Africa have been extended dramatically often without adequate resources Managing municipalities for development therefore requires political will and strategic intervention The book provides a comprehensive introduction to developmental local government It includes the design of the new local government system and the issues posed by decentralisation an overview of specific challenges of urban and rural municipalities a discussion of special issues facing local government including poverty gender and environment new tools for local government including budgeting indicators municipal partnerships and capacity building
