Making Of Fingers Finnigan:

The Making of Fingers Finnigan Berlie Doherty, 1993

Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995

Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations Talking

Books James Carter, 2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions The authors featured are Neil Ardley Ian Beck Helen Cresswell Gillian Cross Terry Deary Berlie Doherty Alan Durant Brian Moses Philip Pullman Celia Rees Norman Silver Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits how they came to be published how they write on a daily basis how a particular book came together a type of writing that they are especially known for Through in depth interviews they each reveal their approach to their craft Much is know and spoken of the product that is the children's book but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction non fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft creativity and process of writing for children Historical Fiction for Children Fiona M.

Collins, Judith Graham, 2013-10-18 Historical fiction has a great deal to offer as its readers and devotees have always known The time is ripe however for the historical novel and historical picture book to be promoted more emphatically so that many more are made aware of the delight and learning to be found in the genre The editors of this book invited authors academic writers and teachers to reflect on the nature scope range and richness of historical fiction for children What is collected here provides an overview of the field a consideration of significant writers of historical fiction from the nineteenth century onwards a sense of the various historical eras commonly explored Stone Age to World War 2 a discussion of commonly raised issues themes and topics such as child labor slavery and migration and a forum for writers to reveal their insights into the writing of historical fiction Julian Atterton Berlie Doherty Michael Foreman and Philip Pullman have made contributions It provides evidence of children and students engaging creatively with historical fiction Children's Fiction Sourcebook

Margaret Hobson, Jennifer Madden, Ray Prytherch, 2018-12-17 First published in 1992 this Sourcebook is a basic working tool for all those concerned with children's reading It will help librarians and teachers to select a comprehensive stock of children's fiction for their institutions The authors in the sourcebook have been selected on the grounds of importance popularity and current availability Author entries are arranged in alphabetical order and indexes provided by title series age range and genre Each entry consists of some background information and evaluative comment on style of the book a list of the authors books with publisher date and price and literary agent where applicable There is a suggestion of similar authors sequels related series and reader age range Finnigan and the Gentle Giant Lillian Rosewood, Step into the Whispering Woods where adventure sings and shadows dance in moonlight Finnigan is a boy who listens He hears the secrets rustled by the leaves the dreams murmured by the river the melodies woven by the ancient woods But when darkness threatens to silence their song Finnigan must become more than just a listener He must become a bard weaving his own magic into the Whispering Woods Join Finnigan on his heart soaring journey through Enchanted landscapes From sun dappled clearings to moonlit caves lose yourself in a world both familiar and fantastical Unforgettable creatures Befriend a mischievous bird face a shimmering serpent and encounter the Moon Weaver herself Trials of courage and imagination Confront shadows paint dreams with words and learn to sing your own story into existence A heartwarming friendship Witness the unbreakable bond between a boy and his loyal feathered companion The Whispering Woods is a tale for anyone who has ever dreamed of Feeling the magic of the natural world come alive Embracing the courage to face their fears Letting their imagination soar and their voice be heard Dive into this immersive lyrical adventure and discover the power of stories to mend to inspire and to sing the world into a brighter place Start reading The Whispering Woods today and let the whispers lead you home
