Multiple Realities A Study Of Thirteen American High Schools:

Multiple Realities Barbara Benham Tye,1985-01-02 Presents the findings of a major study of 13 American high schools and the teacher student administrator and parent attitudes that provide the perceptual context in which they operate as a basis for answering major questions about how secondary education might be improved Selected by CHOICE as an Outstanding Academic Book of 1985 86 The Productive High School Joseph Murphy,2001-02-20 Murphy and his colleagues discuss how reform based on empirical evidence and a robust set of theories can create productive high schools for all students Focus is on core technologies of learning and teaching organizational systems and institutional linkages between schools and their environments Using current research and case studies from successful schools they show how to construct models of learning driven school communities that encourage excellence Key concepts cover defining the learning imperative developing humanized and intellectual relationships for learning laying the groundwork for dynamic adaptive change and building linkages with home and family Democracy and the Arts of Schooling Donald Arnstine,1995-10-06 Arnstine shows how schools have been distracted from education by reformers urging higher standards the code word for higher test scores But education is revealed in the dispositions a person has sensitivity and resourcefulness amiability and responsibility taste wit and a disciplined intelligence This book examines the conditions needed to foster dispositions like these for they are not acquired by having the young spend more time studying standard academic subjects in preparation for competitive tests Without recourse to esoteric jargon Democracy and the Arts of Schooling shows why test scores are less significant than the quality of the experiences students have in school When that quality is high when it has the richness and the absorbing character we associate with the aesthetic then learning takes place World Yearbook of Education 1990 Tom Schuler,2013-01-17 Published in 1990 World Yearbook of Education 1990 is a valuable contribution to the field of Education World Yearbook of Education 1990 Chris Bell,Duncan Harris,2019-10-23 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Research, Policy and Practice John Nisbet,Jacquetta Megarry,Stanley Nisbet,1985 The Curriculum Landon E. Beyer,Michael W. Apple,1998-04-09 This new edition of the classic text extends the scope of critically oriented work in curriculum studies IJER Vol 2-N4 International Journal of Educational Reform,1993-10-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world

Teaching Adolescents Howard A. Smith, 2007-01-01 Addresses topics in educational psychology from a semiotic or sign based perspective rather than a behavioural one This book presents an argument that teachers must rely on signs of all kinds to understand students and to survive as teachers It discusses the nature of the sign and its basis in semiotics and its use in classroom management

Handbook of Reading Research, Volume II Rebecca Barr, Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P David Pearson, 2016-11-18 A comprehensive overview of important contemporary issues in the field of reading research from the mid 1980s to mid 1990s this well received volume offers readers an examination of literacy through a variety of lenses some permitting microscopic views and others panoramic views A veritable who's who of specialists in the field chapter authors cover current methodology as well as cumulative research based knowledge Because it deals with society and literacy the first section provides the broadest possible view of literacy The second section defines the range of activities culturally determined to be a part of the enterprise known as literacy The third focuses on the processes that individuals engage in when they perform the act of reading The fourth section visits the environment in which the knowledge that comprises literacy is passed on from one generation to the next The last section an epilogue to the whole enterprise of reading research provides apt philosophical reflection

What the West Can Learn From the East Dennis M. McNerney, Oon Seng Tan, Gregory Arief D. Liem, Ai-Girl Tan, 2008-10-01 Education East and West is today mostly Western in orientation Asian perspectives remain relatively unrepresented in curricula pedagogy and administrative structures This volume has brought together authors researching in Asia who redress this imbalance and describe what the West can learn from the East Topics covered include conceptions of and approaches to effective learning and teaching self regulated learning perceived causes of success and failure valuing of education peer influences and classroom behavior creativity teacher commitment class size motivation future goals and other influences on effective learning Shared insights from the research and theorizing presented should provide a fascinating perspectives for educators and administrators charged with providing cutting edge research based educational best practices in diverse cultural and social environments internationally

Learning From Others Diane Shorrocks-Taylor, Edgar W. Jenkins, 2005-12-20 Diane Shorrocks Taylor School of Education University of Leeds UK In September 1998 a conference was held at the University of Leeds entitled International comparisons of pupil performance issues and policy It was arranged by two groups within the School of Education at the University the newly formed Assessment and Evaluation Unit and the Centre for Studies in Science and Mathematics Education The joint interest in international comparisons of performance had itself arisen from earlier involvement in a follow up study of the 1995 TIMSS work in England reported in a later chapter in this book in which the TIMSS assessment outcomes were studied alongside the outcomes from the National Curriculum testing programme in England Some of the results of this investigation had proved both interesting and challenging so the decision was made to promote wider discussion of some key issues by inviting contributors from all over the world to a meeting the major aims of which were to promote an exploration of the theoretical foundations of international comparative studies of student performance the practical problems of carrying out such studies the appropriateness of the assessment models and approaches used in international comparisons the role of international comparative studies in raising standards of student performance and how international studies affect the shaping of national policy on education
