Neo Baroque:

Latin American Neo-Baroque Pablo Baler, 2016-08-31 Pablo Baler studies the ruptures and continuities linking the de-centered dynamics of the 17th century to the logic of instability that permeates 20th century visual and literary production in Latin America. Bringing philosophy, literary interpretation, art criticism, and a poetic approach to the history of ideas, Baler offers a new perspective from which to understand the uncanny phenomenon of baroque distortion. This interdisciplinary inquiry not only leads to a more specific formulation regarding the singularity of the reappropriations of the baroque in Spanish America but also allows for a more comprehensive assessment of its historical reach in the broader context of the representational crisis of modernity. Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez, 2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers. On the other hand, he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto González Echevarría, René Prieto, Gustavo Guerrero, and other reputable scholars. Missing, however, from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work. In order to fill this lacuna, in Sarduy studies Rolando Pérez's book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays. Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the standpoint of art history. In short, no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer. It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come.

Neo-Baroques, 2016-10-18 The Baroque is back in contemporary culture. The ten essays authored by international scholars and three interventions by artists examine the return of the baroque as Neo Baroque through interdisciplinary perspectives. Understanding the Neo Baroque as transcultural between different cultures and transhistorical between historical moments, the contributors to this volume offer diverse perspectives that suggest the slipperiness of the Neo Baroque may best be served by the term Neo Baroques. Case studies analysed reflect this plurality and include the productions of Belgian theatre company Abattoir, Fernand Lévi, French New Extremist film Trouble Every Day, the novel Lujuria tropical by exiled El Salvadorian Quijada Urias, the science fiction blockbuster spectacles The Matrix and eXistenZ, and the spectacular grandeur of early Hollywood movie palaces and the contemporary Las Vegas Strip. Contributors: Jens Baumgarten, Marjan Colletti, Bolívar Echeverría, Rita Eder, Hugh Hazelton, Monika Kaup, Peter Krieger, Patrick Mahon, Walter Moser, Angela Ndalianis, Richard Reddaway, Karel Vanhaesebrouck, Saige Walton. Emotion and the Seduction of the Senses, Baroque to Neo-Baroque Lisa Beaven, Angela Ndalianis, 2018-07-31 Emotion and the Seduction of the Senses: Baroque to Neo Baroque examines the relationship between the cultural productions of the baroque in the seventeenth century and the neo baroque in our contemporary world. The volume illuminates how rather than providing rationally ordered visual realms, both the baroque and the neo baroque construct complex performative spaces whose spectacle seeks to embrace Umberto Eco and the Open Text Peter Bondanella, 2005-10-20 Umberto Eco is Italy's most famous living intellectual known among academics for his literary and cultural theories and to an enormous international audience through his novels The Name of the Rose, Foucault's Pendulum and The Island of the Day Before. Umberto Eco and the Open Text is the first comprehensive study in English of Eco's work. In clear and accessible language Peter Bondanella considers not only Eco's most famous texts but also many occasional essays not yet translated into English. Tracing Eco's intellectual development from early studies in medieval aesthetics to seminal works on popular culture, postmodern fiction and semiotic theory, he shows how Eco's own fiction grows out of his literary and cultural theories. Bondanella cites all texts in English and provides a full bibliography of works by and about Eco.

Motherland and Progress József Sisa, 2016-11-21 In the 19th century Hungary witnessed unprecedented social, economic and cultural development. The country became an equal partner within the Dual Monarchy when the Austro-Hungarian Compromise of 1867 was concluded. Architecture and all forms of design flourished as never before. A distinctly Central European taste emerged in which the artistic presence of the German-speaking lands was augmented by the influence of France and England. As this process unfolded, attempts were made to find a uniquely Hungarian form based on motifs borrowed from peasant art as well as real or fictitious historical antecedents. Motherland and Progress, the motto of 19th-century Hungarian reformers, reflected the programme embraced by the country in its drive to define its identity and shape its future.

Historical Narratives of Global Modern Art Irina D. Costache, Clare Kunny, 2023-07-31 Diversifying the current art historical scholarship, this edited volume presents the untold story of modern art by exposing global voices and perspectives excluded from the privileged and uncontested narrative of isms. This volume tells a worldwide story of art with expanded historical narratives of modernism. The chapters reflect on a wide range of issues, topics and themes that have been marginalized or outright excluded from the canon of modern art. The goal of this book is to be a starting point for understanding modern art as a broad and inclusive field of study. The topics examine diverse formal expressions, innovative conceptual approaches and various media used by artists around the world and forcefully acknowledge the connections between art, historical circumstances, political environments and social issues such as gender, race and social justice. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, imperial and colonial history, modernism and globalization.

The Theater of Truth William Egginton, 2009-12-17 The Theater of Truth argues that seventeenth-century baroque and twentieth-century neobaroque aesthetics have to be understood as part of the same complex. The Neobaroque rather than being a return to the stylistic practices of a particular time and place should be described as the continuation of a cultural strategy produced as a response to a specific problem of thought that has beset Europe and the colonial world since early modernity. This problem in its simplest philosophical form concerns the paradoxical relation between appearances and what they represent. Egginton explores expressions of this problem in the art and literature of the Hispanic Baroque, new and old. He shows how the strategies of these two Baroque emerged in the political and social world of the Spanish Empire and how they continue to be deployed in the cultural politics of the present Further he offers a unified theory for the relation between the two Baroques and a new vocabulary for distinguishing between their ideological values *W.J.T. Rethinking Media Change David Thorburn, Henry Jenkins, 2004-09-17 The essays in Rethinking Media Change center on a variety of media forms at moments of disruption and cultural transformation The editors introduction sketches an aesthetics of media transition patterns of development and social dispersion that operate across eras media forms and cultures The book includes case studies of such earlier media as the book the phonograph early cinema and television It also examines contemporary digital forms exploring their promise and strangeness A final section probes aspects of visual culture in such environments as the evolving museum movie spectacles and the virtual window The contributors reject apocalyptic scenarios of media revolution demonstrating instead that media transition is always a mix of tradition and innovation an accretive process in which emerging and established systems interact shift and collude with one another
