Registers Of Roger Martival Bishop Of Salisbury 13151330 I:

The Registers of Roger Martival, Bishop of Salisbury, 1315-1330 Catholic Church. Diocese of Salisbury (England). Bishop (1315-1330 : Martival), Salisbury, Eng. (Diocese). Bishop, 1315-1330 (Roger Martival), 1959 Roger of Salisbury, Viceroy of England Edward J. Kealey, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1972 Bishops, Clerks, and Diocesan Governance in Thirteenth-Century England Michael Burger, 2012-10-22 This book investigates how bishops deployed reward and punishment to control their administrative subordinates in thirteenth century England Bishops had few effective avenues available to them for disciplining their clerks and rarely pursued them preferring to secure their service and loyalty through rewards The chief reward was the benefice often granted for life Episcopal administrators security of tenure in these benefices however made them free agents allowing them to transfer from diocese to diocese or even leave administration altogether they did not constitute a standing episcopal civil service This tenuous bureaucratic relationship made the personal relationship between bishop and clerk more important Ultimately many bishops communicated in terms of friendship with their administrators who responded with expressions of devotion Michael Burger's study brings together ecclesiastical social legal and cultural history producing the first synoptic study of thirteenth century English diocesan administration in decades His research provides an ecclesiastical counterpoint to numerous studies of bastard feudalism in secular contexts

Gender and Authority in the Late Medieval Church Ian Forrest, 2025-06-15 Gender and Authority in the Late Medieval Church asks a deceptively simple question How did the governance of the medieval institutional church remain exclusively male despite plentiful evidence of women being as capable and devout as men The remarkable endurance of an all male clergy is an important element of medieval church government one that is frequently taken for granted in the historiography and is connected to another overlooked feature of episcopal authority the strategies that bishops used to secure the compliance of a relatively autonomous clergy As Ian Forrest shows bishops kept their clergy in check through normative standards of masculinity that necessarily disqualified women from leadership roles Everywhere in the medieval church were women who had the capacity the resources and often the ambition to take part in governance from abbesses to priests servants mothers sisters and unofficial wives Bringing together evidence of female activity at the margins of the institutional church Forrest argues that the male monopoly on formal power was haunted by female capability and aspiration at every turn Drawing on case studies from the English diocesan clergy between the mid thirteenth and early sixteenth centuries he explores how women's involvement in governance was rendered unthinkable through the very discursive strategies that bishops used to control their male clergy In doing so Gender and Authority in the Late Medieval Church tells an integrated history that explains how both the exclusion of women and the inclusion of men underpin a rigidly gendered system of religious governance The Foundations of Medieval English Ecclesiastical History Philippa M. Hoskin, Christopher Nugent Lawrence Brooke, Richard Barrie Dobson, 2005 Contributions on fundamental aspects of medieval ecclesiastical history demonstrating the importance of primary documents The work of historians in providing new editions of primary documents and other aids to research has tended to go largely unsung yet is crucial to scholarship as providing the very foundations on which further enquiry can be based The essays in this volume conversely celebrate the achievements in this field by a whole generation of medievalists of whom the honoree David Smith is one of the most distinguished They demonstrate the importance of such editions to a proper understanding and elucidation of a number of problems in medieval ecclesiastical history ranging from thirteenth century forgery to diocesan administration from the church courts to the cloisters and from the English parish clergy to the papacy Contributors CHRISTOPHER BROOKE C C WEBB JULIA BARROW NICHOLAS BENNETT JANET BURTON CHARLES FONGE CHRISTOPHER HARPER BILL R H HELMHOLZ PHILIPPA HOSKIN BRIAN KEMP F DONALD LOGAN ALISON MCHARDY The Archiepiscopal and Deputed Seals of York, 1114-1500 John P.
