Bishop, 1315-1330 (Roger Martival),1973 The Registers of Roger Martival, Bishop of Salisbury, 1315-1330.--Torquay [etc.] Catholic Church. Diocese of Salisbury (England). Bishop (1315-1330 : Martival),1960 The Foundations of Medieval English Ecclesiastical History Philippa M. Hoskin,Christopher Nugent Lawrence Brooke,Richard Barrie Dobson,2005 Contributions on fundamental aspects of medieval ecclesiastical history demonstrating the importance of primary documents The work of historians in providing new editions of primary documents and other aids to research has tended to go largely unsung yet is crucial to scholarship as providing the very foundations on which further enquiry can be based The essays in this volume conversely celebrate the achievements in this field by a whole generation of medievalists of whom the honoree David Smith is one of the most distinguished They demonstrate the importance of such editions to a proper understanding and elucidation of a number of problems in medieval ecclesiastical history ranging from thirteenth century forgery to diocesan administration from the church courts to the cloisters and from the English parish clergy to the papacy Contributors CHRISTOPHER BROOKE C C WEBB JULIA BARROW NICHOLAS BENNETT JANET BURTON CHARLES FONGE CHRISTOPHER HARPER BILL R H HELMHOLZ PHILIPPA HOSKIN BRIAN KEMP F DONALD LOGAN ALISON MCHARDY Market Ethics and Practices, c.1300-1850 Simon Middleton,James E. Shaw,2017-11-28 Market Ethics and Practices c 1300 1850 analyses the nature development and operation of market ethics in the context of social practices ranging from rituals of exchange and unofficial expectations to law institutions and formal regulations from the late medieval through to the modern era Divided into two parts the first explores the principles and regulations of market ethics such as the relations between professed norms and economic behaviour across a range of geographies and chronologies The chapters consider key subjects such as medieval attitudes towards merchant activities across Europe North Africa and Asia market regulations and the notion of the common good Adam Smith s conception of moral capitalism and the combining of religious and capitalist ethics in Nat Turner s Confession The second part provides microstudies that offer insights into topics such as household and market relations in colonial New England the harsher side of the consumer economy experienced by a family of parasol sellers from Lyon informal Jewish networks in the early modern Caribbean and slave trade merchant networks and commercial litigation in eighteenth century France and early encounters and the informal norms of fur trading between Europeans and Native Americans This book provides an understanding of the key pre modern economic historiography whilst pointing students towards new debates and the historical significance for our collective economic future It is ideal for students and postgraduates of late medieval and early modern economic history The History of Courts and Procedure in Medieval Canon Law Wilfried Hartmann, Kenneth Pennington, 2016-09-09 By the end of the thirteenth century court procedure in continental Europe in secular and ecclesiastical courts shared many characteristics As the academic jurists of the Ius commune began to excavate the norms of procedure from Justinian's great codification of law and then to expound them in the classroom and in their writings they shaped the structure of ecclesiastical courts and secular courts as well These essays also illuminate striking differences in the sources that we find in different parts of Europe In northern Europe the archives are rich but do not always provide the details we need to understand a particular case In Italy and Southern France the documentation is more detailed than in other parts of Europe but here too the historical records do not answer every question we might pose to them In Spain detailed documentation is strangely lacking if not altogether absent Iberian conciliar canons and tracts on procedure tell us much about practice in Spanish courts As these essays demonstrate scholars who want to peer into the medieval courtroom must also read letters papal decretals chronicles conciliar canons and consilia to provide a nuanced and complete picture of what happened in medieval trials This volume will give sophisticated guidance to all readers with an interest in European law and courts The Register of Richard Fleming, Bishop of Lincoln, 1420-31 Catholic Church. Diocese of Lincoln (England). Bishop (1420-1431 : Fleming), 2024 Law, laity and solidarities Pauline Stafford, Janet L. Nelson, Jane Martindale, 2020-01-03 The primary focus of this collection by leading medieval historians is the laity in particular the ideas and ideals of lay people The contributors explore lay attitudes as expressed in legal cases charters chronicles and collective activities Highlights the centrality of kinship whilst stressing its limitations as an all purpose social bond Ranges chronologically and geographically from the seventh century to the eve of the Reformation from Western Britain to papal and urban Italy from Carolingian dynastic politics to the decline of medieval pilgrimage in the sixteenth century and from the courts of twelfth century France to the fifteenth century wards of London The ius commune in England R. H. Helmholz, 2001-08-16 This study addresses the ius commune's relation to and influence on English law Helmholz aims to fill in some of the gaps in scholarship on the common legal past of Western law the history of the Roman and canon laws the history of the ecclesiastical courts parallels between the ius commune and English common law and English church history Diocesis Sarisbiriensis. Registrum Rogeri Martival Catholic Church. Diocese of Salisbury (England). Bishop (1315-1330 : Martival), Salisbury, Eng. (Diocese). Bishop, 1315-1330 (Roger Martival), 1975 The Publications of the Lincoln Record Society Lincoln Record Society, 1997 The Journal of Ecclesiastical History, 1867 The Great Famine William Chester Jordan, 1997-12-15 The horrors of the Great Famine 1315-1322 one of the severest catastrophes ever to strike northern Europe lived on for centuries in the minds of Europeans who recalled tales of widespread hunger class warfare epidemic disease frighteningly high mortality and unspeakable crimes Until now no one has offered a perspective of what daily life was actually like throughout the entire region devastated by this crisis nor has anyone probed far into its causes Here the distinguished historian William Jordan provides the first comprehensive inquiry into the Famine from Ireland to western Poland from Scandinavia to central France and western Germany He produces a rich cultural history of medieval community life drawing his evidence from such sources as meteorological and agricultural records accounts kept by monasteries providing for the needy and documentation of military campaigns Whereas there has been a tendency to describe the food shortages as a result of simply bad weather or else poor economic planning Jordan sets the stage so that we see the complex interplay of social and environmental factors that caused this particular disaster and allowed it to continue for so long Jordan begins with a description of medieval northern Europe at its demographic peak around 1300 by which time the region had achieved a sophisticated level of economic integration He then looks at problems that when combined with years of inundating rains and brutal winters gnawed away at economic stability From animal diseases and harvest failures to volatile prices class antagonism and distribution breakdowns brought on by constant war northern Europeans felt helplessly besieged by acts of an angry God although a cessation of war and a more equitable distribution of resources might have lessened the severity of the food shortages Throughout Jordan interweaves vivid historical detail with a sharp analysis of why certain responses to the famine failed He ultimately shows that while the northern European economy did recover quickly the Great Famine ushered in a period of social instability that had serious repercussions for generations to come
