Rehearsing With Rat:

Rehearsing with Rat Jon Potter, 1997-01-01 Rehearsals Jeff Lipkes, 2007 People screamed cried and groaned Above the tumult I could distinguish the voices of small children All this time the soldiers were singing Sometime after the first salvo there was another round of fire and once again I was not hit After this I heard fewer cries save from time to time a small child calling its mother Flix Bourdon survivor of a mass execution in Dinant Belgium In August 1914 without any legitimate pretext German soldiers killed nearly 6 000 Belgian noncombatants including women and children and burned some 25 000 homes and other buildings Rehearsals is the first book to provide a detailed narrative history of the German invasion of Belgium as it affected civilians Based on extensive eyewitness testimony the book chronicles events in and around the towns of Liège Aarschot Andenne Tamines Dinant and Leuven where the worst of the German depredations occurred Accounts of the killing looting and arson have long been dismissed as atrocity propaganda particularly in the United Kingdom and the United States Rehearsals examines the campaign by revisionists that led to voluminous and compelling testimony about German war crimes being discredited Recently the case has been made that the violence that came to a peak between August 19 and August 26 1914 was the result of a spontaneous outbreak of German paranoia about civilian sharpshooters In Rehearsals Jeff Lipkes offers compelling evidence that the executions were in fact part of a deliberate campaign of terrorism ordered by military authorities In his shocking account of events that have been largely overlooked by historians of World War I Lipkes commemorates the heroism as well as the suffering of the Belgian victims of German aggression Becoming Something: The Story of Canada Lee Mona Z. Smith, 2005-08-22 The first biography of the great black actor activist athlete and tragic victim of the blacklist Imagine an actor as familiar to audiences as Denzel Washington and Morgan Freeman are today who is then virtually deleted from public memory Such is the story of Canada Lee Among the most respected black actors of the forties and a tireless civil rights advocate Lee was unjustly dishonored his name reduced to a footnote in the history of the McCarthy era his death one of a handful directly attributable to the blacklist Born in Harlem in 1907 Lee was a Renaissance man A musical prodigy on violin and piano at eleven by thirteen he had become a successful jockey and by his twenties a champion boxer After wandering into auditions for the WPA Negro Theater Project Lee took up acting and soon shot to stardom in Orson Welles's Broadway production of Native Son later appearing in such classic films as Lifeboat and the original Cry the Beloved Country But Lee's meteoric rise to fame was followed by a devastating fall Labeled a Communist by the FBI and HUAC as early as 1943 Lee was pilloried during the notorious spy trial of Judith Coplon in 1949 then condemned in longtime friend Ed Sullivan's column He died in 1952 forty five and penniless a heartbroken casualty of a dangerous and conflicted time Now after nearly a decade of research Mona Z. Smith revives the legacy of a man who was perhaps the blacklist's most tragic victim The Architecture of the Mind Peter Carruthers, 2006-09-28 Providing a comprehensive development and defense of one of the guiding assumptions of evolutionary psychology that the human mind
