American Theatre Ensembles Volume 1 Mike Vanden Heuvel, 2020-11-12 Across two volumes Mike Vanden Heuvel and a strong roster of contributors present the history processes and achievements of American theatre companies renowned for their use of collective and or ensemble based techniques to generate new work This first study considers theatre companies that were working between 1970 and 1995 it traces the rise and eventual diversification of activist based companies that emerged to serve particular constituencies from the countercultural politics of the 1960s and examines the shift in the 1980s that gave rise to the next generation of company based work rooted in a new interest in form and the more mediated and dispersed forms of politics Ensembles examined are Mabou Mines Theatre X Goat Island Lookingglass Elevator Repair Service and SITI Company Preliminary chapters provide a sweeping overview of ensemble based creation within the general historical and cultural contexts of the period followed by a detailed study of the evolution of ensemble based work The case studies consider factors such as influence funding production and legacies as well as the forms of collective devising and creation while surveying the continuing work of significant long running companies Contributors provide detailed case studies of the 6 companies from the period and cover A chronicle of development and methods Key productions and projects Critical reception and legacy A chronological overview of significant productions From the long history of collective theatre creation with its sources in social crises urgent aesthetic experimentation and utopian dreaming American ensemble based theatre has emerged at several key points in history to challenge the primacy of author based and director produced theatre As the volume demonstrates US ensemble companies have collectively revolutionized the form and content of contemporary performance influencing experimental as well as mainstream practice

Reimagining A Raisin in the Sun Rebecca Ann Rugg, Harvey Young, 2012-04-15 This book is a collection of four contemporary plays that reflect the themes of racial and cultural difference of Lorraine Hansberry's 1959 play A Raisin in the Sun

August Wilson Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-10 Award winning African American playwright August Wilson created a cultural chronicle of black America through such works as Ma Rainey's Black Bottom Fences Joe Turner's Come and Gone The Piano Lesson and Two Trains Running The authentic ring of wit anecdote homily and plaint proved that a self educated Pittsburgh ghetto native can grow into a revered conduit for a century of black achievement He forced readers and audiences to examine the despair generated by poverty and racism by exploring African American heritage and experiences over the course of the twentieth century This literary companion provides the reader with a source of basic data and analysis of characters dates events allusions staging strategies and themes from the work of one of America

s finest playwrights The text opens with an annotated chronology of Wilson s life and works followed by his family tree Each of the 166 encyclopedic entries that make up the body of the work combines insights from a variety of sources along with generous citations each concludes with a selected bibliography on such relevant subjects as the blues Malcolm X irony roosters and Gothic mode Charts elucidate the genealogies of Wilson s characters the Charles Hedley and Maxson families and account for weaknesses in Wilson s female characters Two appendices complete the generously cross referenced work a timeline of events in Wilson s life and those of his characters and a list of 40 topics for projects composition and oral analysis

Acting Now Edward Vilga,1997 Those interviewed address artistic challenges in the real world the practical difficulties of a career and the ways the modern entertainment industry shapes an actor s artistic path Milestones in Asian American Theatre Josephine Lee,2022-09-30 This introduction to Asian American theatre charts ten of the most pivotal moments in the history of the Asian diaspora in the USA and how those moments have been reflected in theatre Designed for weekly use on Asian American theatre courses ten chosen milestones move chronologically from the earliest contact between Japan and the West through the impact of the Vietnam War and the resurgent yellow peril hysteria of COVID 19 Each chapter emphasizes common questions of how racial identities and relationships are understood in everyday life as well as represented on the theatrical stage and in popular culture Milestones are a range of accessible textbooks breaking down the need to know moments in the social cultural political and artistic development of foundational subject areas August Wilson Patti Hartigan,2024-08-27 The masterful The Wall Street Journal invaluable Los Angeles Times first authoritative biography of August Wilson the most important and successful American playwriting of the late 20th century by a theater critic who knew him August Wilson wrote a series of ten plays celebrating African American life in the 20th century one play for each decade No other American playwright has completed such an ambitious oeuvre Two of the plays became successful films Fences starring Denzel Washington and Viola Davis and Ma Rainey s Black Bottom starring Viola Davis and Chadwick Boseman Fences and The Piano Lesson won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama Fences won the Tony Award for Best Play and years after Wilson s death in 2005 Jitney earned a Tony Award for Best Revival of a Play Through his brilliant use of vernacular speech Wilson developed unforgettable characters who epitomized the trials and triumphs of the African American experience He said that he didn t research his plays but wrote them from the blood s memory a sense of racial history that he believed African Americans shared Author and theater critic Patti Hartigan traced his ancestry back to slavery and his plays echo with uncanny similarities to the history of his ancestors She interviewed Wilson many times before his death and traces his life from his childhood in Pittsburgh where nine of the plays take place to Broadway She also interviewed scores of friends theater colleagues and family members and conducted extensive research to tell the absorbing richly detailed Chicago Tribune story of a writer who left an indelible imprint on American theater and opened the door for future playwrights of color The Theatre of Revolt Robert Brustein,1991-02-01 In a new edition of this now classic work Robert

Brustein argues that the roots of the modern theatre may be found in the soil of rebellion cultivated by eight outstanding playwrights Ibsen Strindberg Chekhov Shaw Brecht Pirandello O'Neill and Genet Focusing on each of them in turn Mr Brustein considers the nature of their revolt the methods employed in their plays their influences on the modern drama and the playwrights themselves One of the standard and decisive books on the modern theater It shows us the men behind the works what they wanted to write about and the private hell within each of them which led to the enduring works we continue to treasure New York Times Book Review The best single collection of essays I know of on modern drama remarkably fine and sensitive pieces of criticism Alvin Kernan Yale Review

The Director as Collaborator Robert Knopf, 2015-10-05 The Director as Collaborator teaches essential directing skills while emphasizing how directors and theatre productions benefit from collaboration Good collaboration occurs when the director shares responsibility for the artistic creation with the entire production including actors designers stage managers and technical staff Leadership does not preclude collaboration in theatre these concepts can and should be complementary Students will develop their abilities by directing short scenes and plays and by participating in group exercises
